

BRITAIN MAY RATION ITS 3.000.000 DOGS

RELY ON THEM FOR PROTEC- the Food Controller said that the TION OF FAMILIES IN THE dogs would have to be rationed the ABSENCE OF MEN, SAYS LON- same as humans. Cars appear to have disappeared from the streets DON MERCHANT

WOMEN WORKERS PRAISES night." Girl Conductors Are Quicker Than

Strict Adher-Men and Insist on ence to the Rules.

Arthur H. Lindley, a merchant with the old traditions. said that the vital question among the people when he left England, apart from the war, was whether. dogs in England are fed, he went on er a low-grade flour or meal was to step and the conductor shouts 'Full bedrooms on the front floor, a 16-

"00 dogs in the country." 'Full up' and pushes him off. "Hundreds of nolicemen have been drafted into the army." Mr. Lindto France. As the people cannot would wait for them and say, 'Come should be provided, but, except in rely on the police for protection they along, Old 'Un, or Missus,' as the special circumstances, cellars are not must keep dogs. There are farmer's case might be and extend a friendly desirable. The erection of blocks of then there are the heroic dogs who signal for full speed ahead. wait about at night to rescue belated "I was in a motor bus in wayfarers or children from the burn- Strand recently when a well dressing flames when mother is out doing ed woman carrying a Slamese mus-washing. The Government should and dog in her armes entered. Dilimit each household to one watch- rectly the girl in the brown uniform dog as a guardian for the protec- sighted the pet she said: 'You will tion of the family and send all the have to take that dog outside.' The wheezy and under sofa gliding va- owner put a goldrimmed lorgnette to riety to the lethal chamber. her eyes and said in cold tones: 'You "Before the war the suburbs of must be mistaken. I never take London were infested with all kinds Minkole out in the open air." of dogs, which swarmed on the sidewalks and were an annoyance to the regulations of the motor bus com-inhabitants. Women vied with each pany prohibited dogs being carried other to see who could keep the larg- inside no matter how high their est number of dogs. I have seen a birth or breeding. When the indig- Distance From Camp Borden woman carrying a net bag in one nant owner of the pet asked when hand and a long-lashed dogwhip in the law had been put in operation the other, go down the road at Chis- the girl replied, 'I am not here to arwick on the Thames, followed by gue with passengers about the comeighteen dogs. When she entered a pany's by-laws but simply to see Air Forces, Capt. Allan R. Fair- ing to a close. grocers to get a quarter of a pound them carried out. Now will you go bairn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fairbairn, Following is a copy of the ad-

of Regina, formerly of Brockville, dress:of butter and two ounces of tea on outside or leave the bus?" credit, because all her husband's in- "She went outside. The women and Air Mechanic, John Jackson, come went to feed the dogs, a terrific in the big cities are also an improve son of Mr. Ephraim Jackson of Mait. To our new Recruits: -combat ensued between the animals ment on type of men who formerly land, "dropped" into town vesterday Willie Adams, "Earle Anderson, ery age since Constantine, the disasand the dozen or so belonging to usually steeped in beer and appear afternoon for a week-end visit with Bruce Chase, Oscar Bovay. Harold trous consequences. A man, educata neighbor of hers. The grocer and ed to be deaf when a traveler asked friends and relatives after flying Zufelt, G. McHenry, P. Terry, C. ed, bright beyond the average, resid. veh on her repentance; and that Tell "em that I'm tired and weary his assistant had to climb on to the what platform the train would leave from Camp Borden to the Island Istead, E. Harns, C. Carter.

while the mistresses of the fighting the gates do not flirt or waste time, in two hours and 30 minutes. dogs blamed each other for the fra-but give the directions in a calm, At four o'clock the machine hove and door-bell.

cas. Peace was not restored until concise manner thus: "The train for in sight over the western Canadian a social evening with you all, before devotes his entire time to the study turn from captivity, who called on

BROCKVILLE MEN VISIT HOME tion in a few well chosen words. ancient Israelites. To him the bas- to accept the many legends and al- should accept the German proposal TOWN VIA AIR ROUTE

ered in 2½ Hours Actual Flying Time Two local members of the Royal Mutton, W. H. Morton, J. W. Boyd, all except the Bibliomaniac who, de-and Merrit Adams. The boys each serting the service of God, trans-Unfortunately the doctrine of plen-in order to obtain a speedy and comreplied, expressing their apprecia- fers his forship to the library of the ary inspiration induces some people plete accord with Finland Russia

A vote of thanks was extended to ic propositions of religion are, first, all who contributed in furnishing so that the Bible as we have it is the of Jonah and Ruth, as records of ac-land." THEIR COMING A SURPRISE excellent a program, and all united word-inspired law of God, every tual fact with such frightful results This proposal provides for Fin-in singing "God Be with You Till We word in it being literally inscribed as are indicated in our opening par- land ceding to Russia Forts Ino and Cov. Meet Again,, followed by the Nation- by His finger and miraculously trans- agraph. al Anthem." Three cheers for the mitted to us unchanged down the boys who are leaving and three centuries. Second, that all that is to illustrate the position of those these places, while Russia cedes to Enclose the position of those these places while Russia cedes to the position of those these places while Russia cedes to the places the position of those these places while Russia cedes to the places the position of those these places are placed the position of those these places are placed the position of the rust of the places the places are placed the places are placed the places are placed the cheers for those who have gone embraced therein is as applicable to who, combating the tenets of Ezra Finland the western part of Mur brought a most interesting meet- matters of today as it was to the and Nehemiah, that Jehovah was mansk and an outlet to the sea. conditions existing at the time the exclusively the god of the Hebrews, books were written books were written. Starting with these two funda-Allisonville, Ont., May 30, 1918. mental principles we see today, as and of all men, even of the oppressor Good wife, here I fain would linger. tell 'em I'm not feeling right ing in a small town, is "converted." | most exquisite of characters, Ruth, got the ague and the gouttop of the Spanish onion locker, from. The new ticket collectors at City, a distance of about 200 miles It is with much pleasure and pride He begins to read the Bible, be-

just prepare a nice white lie, a kilt. and as ever a fat motoring sw into the tow sharp glance ed the falling It is a startl and we got The building of Mary hole Jesus to the had struck A not to the an acute ang While we soldiers came ty and tired. cer to halt h would sing that they we the real Lau sing. Whe Then the

ioyment of

gan the au

about 200;

more than

him on his

It was a way that le

of a father

it was. A l

road the ca

over the sh

lette. Here

little cross

of some unk

written was

hope-hungry

at home.

ridge, and

the first ro

the cross of

to read what

knelt down.

grave and

shook with

When th

he rose and

could have

would be t

laddie just

for what he

and human

terness or

On the

gested gentl

an hour m

impossible.

British.

But Lau

That was

The fathe

place.

He spoke

bered the pleasure.

the man in charge of the water main Sumley is the second on the right.' shore of the St. Lawrence river, and your departure to assume the stern endeavoring to twist the text into all Jews who had married outside For no calls for me this evening at the top of the road ran a hose Their blue uniforms and peak caps followed the river front to a point a duties of war; and pride in the fact prophecies that apply to the present their race to separate from wife and even Jolks may say they'll die. through a side door and washed the look very neat. They find the long short distance east of the Eastern that our Canadian boys are staunch day. Meanwhile his wife takes children, or be cut off from fellow-This is the place and its environs hours on their feet trying at first, Hospital where it circled and flew and loyal and deemed worthy to as- boarders to support the family. Not ship with the chosen people. dogs out into the street. that I call my little home. In the event of the meal being al- but they do it cheerfully as their over the town, while Capt. Fair- sist the Motherland in her strife for a man in the community dares to Likewise, the book of Job was so from this, my bonny castle, or lowed to be used for making biscuits part toward winning the great war." bairn looked for a good landing peace and liberty. tell the man he is a fool-he is de- another such tale, written to explain this night I will not roam. place and finally came to a stop in We are also proud because in your voting himself to holy work. the defeat of Josiah. The priests Booth's field, Schofield Hill, where veins flows the same red blood of

For Attacks on Germany

when international law meant the machine stayed last night under our Canadian pioneers, who not only South Africa he was informed that to put their trust in the Lord of something, when the rules of war- military guard and was inspected by braved the rigors and hardships of the Boer, living in isolated existence Hosts alone, and not to wait for the fare meant something, when non-hundreds of local citizens anxious to a wild and wooded country and with his flocks and herds, subsisting horsemen and the charjots of Ninecombatants and women and children get a view of the strange visitor. made war against the giants of the on meat exclusively, never saw a veh, then on the march to oppose the were left unmolested by invading The birdmen left Camp Borden at forest, but nobly marched to battle newspaper or any other book but the Egyptian raid. So Josiah did exactarmies. But to talk of international one o'clock and flew eastward over to defend their new but rudely con-Bible, which he read constantly. Iy as the priests had urged, marched CONTINUOUS AIR RAIDS WILL law to Germans since that date, as Seugog Lake, near Lindsay and then structed homes against a foreign in- Placing himself in the position of out with his little army, and it was Sir Frederick Smith, the British At- struck due south for Cobourg and vader. Many of these fell in battle the Hebrews when they invaded Can knocked into smithereens and him-LOWER MORALE OF PEOtorney General has said, is like read- along the shore of Lake Ontario to and are sleeping their last sleep aan, he took upon himself the blood- self killed. So the people came to PLE, SAYS ABMY ing the criminal code in the thieves' Deseronto, where a stop of 30 min- at Queenston Heights or at Lundy's thirsty commands to exterminate the priests and asked an explanation JOURNAL utes was made to replenish the sup- Lane, but the memory of their brave the native inhabitants, men, women of their unfulfilled promises; and kitchen.

"The Allies have got to carry the ply of gasoline. deeds and danntless spirit is an in- and children, even the cattle; and the book of Job demonstates their Navy Journal urges that French, from now on with unceasing effort river shore was followed and the It is this same blood and same loyal- in his treatment of the blacks. That ty. Read it again, with this key, British and American airmen be or- and increasing force. The experi- flight from Kingston to Brockville ty and courage that have made the the British Government intervened and see what a difference it makes. dered to bomb German cities con- ences of London and Paris make it was done in exactly 25 minutes; name of Canada's brave soldiers re- and would not let him exterminate Strip from your eyes the scales of tinuously and that in carrying out plain that it takes many air raids from Gananoque in 15 minutes. spected by the Allies and dreaded by the natives, was the origin of that superstition. Look with calm, unthese raids the part of the United and many bombs to do much actual The machine in use by the local their foes. implacable hatred the Boer mani- prejudiced mind on what you read, States must be to "back them with damage. We know, and Germany aviators is a Curtis instruction ma- In your going forth to help in the fested against the English, for did using your knowledge and your rea-all the forces we can bring to bear, does also, that the effect of these chine which behaved well during the defense of the Empire. we feel as they not prevent him from obeying son, and see what a wonderfully inboth in men, machines and ammuni- raids on the morale of the English journey down, a rather rough one, sured that your early training in the commands of God? teresting book it is. Cut out the and the French is directly contrary as the clouds were lying low, the the quiet of Canadian country homes The Bible is truly inspiring. It silly miracles, tacked on to impress tion."

"It is one thing," says The Army to what was hoped for. But the air was misty, and they were con-will ever exert a beneficial influence is inspired with the gospel of love, the vulgar, who demanded that the and Navy Journal, "for Zeppelins German civilian morale is of a very finually dodging storms. At Deser-over you, You have grown from It teaches the lesson of altruism, so Great Teacher should do "stunts" and airplanes to bomb the 'fortress- different character from that of the onto they ran into a heavy rain childhood te manhood among us, exquisitely, so truly, that one may instead of listening to the words of es' of London and Paris, as the Ger- Briton and the Gaul, and it can be storm but emerged none the worse and we look upon you as our very even without stultification accept divine wisdom that fell from His own boys, whom we shall greatly the claim that it is of divine origin lips. Realize that Jesus as well as man official reports always call the lowered by continuous air raids. In for the inconvenience. capitals of Britain and France. But fact, this will be the chief achieve- They will remain until Monday miss. But we feel assured, that for the conditions of human Moses was sometimes mistaken. But it is quite another thing when the ment of successful bombing expedi- morning when a start will be made with you we can trust the defence of thought and ethical development in do not fall away into a petty critic-English, French and American air- tions. about five o'clock for Camp Borden. our homes and country and feel that the days of Jesus were scarcely al, carping attitude, that seeks only men drop bombs from the heavens "Our part must be to back these Capt. Fairbairn has had extensive you will not fail to keep up the tra- those that would warrant the origin for flaws. Recognize the divinity tr

on the people of the kaiser. For this raids up with all the forces we can service with the Royal Air Forces in brings the war home to them in the bring to bear both in men, machines France. He enlisted with the 59th way they have been led to believe and ammunition. That the offensive Battalion and transferred in a few to present to you these slight tokens us admit the possibility then of a ing kindness, the charity for illcould never be done. Retaliation for qualities of individual aircraft have days to the 80th Belleville Battalion of affection and regard. May they divine interposition thus far, and doers, the recognition of human inthe air raids on England has been a been greatly exaggerated has been Just before that unit went overseas ever remind you of the folks at home putting aside the ridiculous notion firmities. He manifested. Then you mooted question in Great Britain, demonstrated time and time again he was transferred to the 109th Bat- whose kindest regards, best wishes of a plenary word-inspiration, look will learn to look on the Bible as the for Britons are given to honorable in air raids over the sea as well a talion and crossed to England in and earnest prayers will ever follow dispassionately at the Book most priceless heritage of man from warfare and only very recently had striking instance of this last point July, 1916 .- Brockville Recorder & you. right. We find it is full of conflicting the mentality of the old world-and been awakened to the fact that being the British attack on the Goe- Times. they must accept methods of warfare ben as recently described. Moreover hitherto deemed barbarous. Even climatic conditions count enormous-yet English sailors save German sub- 1y for or against air craft as was Clocks in R marine prisoners at sea and have not shown at the beginning of the Ger-A (Wall adopted the savage cruelty of the U- man offensive on March 21, when boat commander toward the crew of low-lying fogs blinded the British Moscow, June the Black Prince. But it is apparent airmen completely, although they alty per Wirele that so far as air raids over Ger- were superior in numbers. If inter-ining May 31, clock man cities is concerned the honor- national law and honorable rules of sia were advanced able attitude of Great Britain and warfare are ever to mean anything to save light and fuel. France has been forced into the in the world again that lesson must background. Savages must be fought be taught to the people of Germany. In the centre of the battlefront as savages. And we have joined And one of the quickest and most and especially between Soissons and our allies in these air raids in good certain methods of teaching them the Marne, the French have had disthis lesson is by air raids. There tinctly the better of it since Saturseason "Time was, before August, 1914, are still some people in the world, day morning.

| ussia | bye" but only "God speed" and "bon voyage", hoping to welcome you home to the unfinished furrow, | clumsily, and re the commentator |
|---|---|---|
| (British Admir- ss Press.)Begin- ts throughout Rus- | when " the fiery fight is heard no more" in that bright glad dawning of the world's peace, "when swords shall be beaten into plow-shares and spears into pruning-hooks." Signed on behalf of your neigh- | Jewish system. no sign of a kno for a future life | in this world. Up the doctrine of a EVEN LICENSES FOR IMPORTS bors and friends. life after death is not recognized; J. W. Boyd, and we read in the New Testament. W. H. Morton, that the most highly intellectual of Merrit Adams state of slege has been ed in Moscow.

How the wind the windows rattle. When the present writer was in had persistently called on the people and the snow piles round the door. So we'll sit in blissful quiet, since the weary day's work's o'er. Slip my slippers on my tootsies, let me put them up just so. As I rest in solid comfort while you read to me. or sew: Well-since you insist upon it I will read some tale with care. While you're finishing' that 'leventh sweater for the boys who're 'over there." Shall it be prose or poetry, or some lines on freedom's cause. How we'll rid the earth of tyrants strangers to all human laws? Hark! that blanked phone is ringing; answer it, say something. dear. (I knew she couldn't, for lowly-like "Y-e-s," she says. "he's here.") Grouchy-like I up and saunter phone-ward, cussing in an undertone. Wondering whether 'twas a bless ing, the invention of the phone. Hello". I camouflage my voice real throaty, as if I had the grip, hat's that-Susie Trotter-awful bad-I must make a country She's numb-can't speak-first she laughs and then she'll cry; All their neighbors gathered in and

Raivola in the province of Viborg think perhaps she'll die. Listen! Give her a cup o' warm mus tard water and she'll be all And now we shall not say "Good- statements. Genesis consists of this appreciation will not lead to And, say, put on her chest a mustard plaster-make it good and works, put together human sacrifices of one's own chilstrong. Good night. eadily separated by dren, or to the perpetration of im-'Ha, ha!" I chuckle, grabbing a r. There is to the measurable cruelties on our fellow stogie and searching for a light, 'A little skill will thwart the will of

The Decalog shows Germans Rule Finland folks who'd rob your rest at night." There it goes again! no. I'll go, my dear, you can't prevaricate. "Hello, Sallie Perkins-something she ate-and gas-why the deuce she calls so late?

the Jews, the Sadducees, weld that Stockholm, June 2.-How little She's doctoring with a specialist who death closed all. As was to be ex. independence remains to Finland won't make calls at night. pected, the other sect, the Pharisees, and how completely Germanization And if she called me in emergency with him 'twould be all right!" who held that there was a future of Finland has been effected are in-

MUST BE APPROVED

BY THEM

r sufficient evidence men, in the name of God.

levelopment of the

in his eve. be brave; all the oth will sing though my went again Scottish tr His There w again the s home and near and the deeper,

my would mined men back to ti