AMUSEMENTS

"TOO MANY COOKS."

A play with an idea comes to the Grand on Tuesday next, and to those who follow theatrical affairs this fact should be interesting. But what is more important is that the play itself is said to be quite the best comedy which has been offered on the English speaking stage in a long, long time, and was received with such unmistakable pleasure and laughter in New York, that it remained there for one solid year.

"Too Many Cooks" is the title of the play or comedy, and, best of all, it will be presented by no less a brilliant aggregation of players than Albert Brown and his clever all English fellow players who have quite stolen our hearts away by their wonderfully artistic performances of "The White Feather". The story has to do with one, Alfred Bennett and his fiancée Alice Cook, who are building a suburban home. When building operations began, Bennett's close friend, Andrews, offered advice. So did Ella, Alice's dearest chum. But more, and more of it, Alice's whole family and their appendages—and there are just nine of these cooks in all—took a trip out to the suburbs to decide how the house ought to be planned and arranged.

More distractions come. Bennett's uncle, for whom he worked and from whom some day he expected a legacy, took a run out to look at the house. He was in a generous frame of mind. He decided then and there that he would pay the bills and come to live with his nephew and niece. Gradually the meddling from all directions gets in its deadly work. From petty tiffs the young lovers began to quarrel. Then come recriminations. At last they fall out altogether. In the end they drive out the busybody relatives and settle down in golden bonds to live happy ever after.

Brantford theatre goers know just what to expect from an organization of such brilliant talent as that in the "White Feather" Company, so we shall again have the extreme pleasure of welcoming Albert Brown, whose performance of Brent, still clings to the memory like the ivy to the oak. This time Mr. Brown will be seen in the role of the home builder, and in which he is said to be as thoroughly at home as in the British secret agent. His talented associates will also present in congenial roles. If you miss seeing "Too Many Cooks" you will live to regret it and it will serve you right.

AT THE BRANT.

The bill at the Brant next week promises to be a winner in both vaudeville and pictures and picked houses are sure to be the order at each performance.

For the first half of the week the management have secured Menlo

Moore's big scenic production, "Live Wires," with a cast of seven star juvenile performers. The reports from Buffalo, Detroit and Cleveland on this act are all great. Harry Coleman, comedy ventriloquist, will also present

"DON'T YOU THINK SHE'S PRETTY, UNCLE?"

A very funny scene in "Too Many Cooks," the sparkling comedy which will be seen at the Grand on Tuesday evening next, March 7. Albert Brown, the hero of "The White Feather" will play the leading roll.

sent an original offering for the first time here. The Paramount feature will be Maclay Arbuckle in "The Reformed Candidate," and as a special added feature, the latest serial success, "The Red Circle," featuring the always popular Ruth Roland, and Frank Mayo, will be shown. This popular serial will be shown in fifteen episodes, and will always be shown before the vaudeville, the Paramount feature being kept in its regular place on the programme, closing the bill.

OLD HOMESTEAD.

After more than thirty years of continuous and unparalleled popularity as a play, during which period it circled the globe three times and was presented to twenty million people, Denmark Thompson's immortal rural classic, "The Old Homestead," has been converted into a "Paramount Picture" by the Famous Players Film Company, thus truly immortalizing what may justly be termed the greatest single triumph of the American stage. It was the irresistible simplicity of the human play, and its tender story which bases its appeal upon real heart-interest and upon its depiction of every-day characters that everyone recognizes, that have made its popularity endure for more than three decades. It was this fundamental wealth of universal interest that caused "The Old Homestead" to become the foremost dramatic classic of our time and makes the photoplay adaptation of the lovable play one of the most important screen events in all the annals of motion pictures. At the Brant, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
