We direct the attention of our readers to the very large number of new advertisements in this issue. Our advertising patronage is now so great that we shall not be able to permanently enlarge the Reporter to 32 columns. This week we secure space for reading matter by means of a large supplement.

LOCAL NEWS.
 The municipal nominations will take place on the 26th.
 Newest and latest styles of Xmas cards at A. Parish & Son's.
 We are compelled to hold over until next week a quantity of local news, correspondence, etc.
 The report of the result of the High School examinations is crowded out of this issue, but will appear in our next.

Mr. James Mitchell, of Frankfort, slipped and fell in his hay loft the other day, and received rather severe injuries.
 All the stores will be closed on Monday, the 26th, which will be generally observed as a holiday in Farmersville.

A meeting of the Conservative association of Rear of Yonge and Escott will be held in the town hall here on the evening of the 23rd inst.
 The Masons of Farmersville will have an oyster supper at the Armstrong House, at the close of the installation of the officers of the Lodge, on the 27th inst.

A tea meeting will be held in connection with the Methodist church at Newboro, on the evening of January 2nd. The proceeds will go to the Sunday school of the church.

A meeting of Reformers will be held at Phillipsville on Friday evening, Dec. 23rd, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the approaching municipal election.

The Rev. Father Walsh, who was at one time the popular parish priest of Bellevue, is now in Brockville, taking charge of the parish of Rev. Don Gauthier, who is on a visit to Tynes.

John Adeson, a farmer living near Westport, died on the 6th inst. from the effects of an accident by which he struck his knee on a nail. Deceased was 57 years of age and possessed the respect and confidence of all who knew him.

On Tuesday, the 27th inst., Mr. Wm. Young will offer for sale by auction, at his residence, near Seely's Bay, a valuable lot of farm stock, implements, machinery, etc. The sale will begin at 1 o'clock. C. E. Slier, auctioneer.

During the past few days the Gamble House ample rooms have been occupied by Mr. F. L. Kincaid, of Brockville, who brought out the balance of his stock of fancy goods, etc. when he closed business in Brockville. Mr. Wm. Stevens is now in charge, and is selling goods very cheap.

During the early part of a scrimmage occurred between two youths from the classic region of Charleston. It was said to be the outcome of an old feud, and resulted in one of them getting a clean knock out in one round, with a black eye as a reminder. Our police force were absent, as usual, or the belligerents would very likely have fetched up in the cooler.

There was great excitement at Easton's Corners on Sunday, over the arrest of three men implicated in the recent incendiary fires in that neighborhood. The names of the prisoners are Joseph Ryland, Hugh Macdonald, and Wm. Lee. A gentleman who called upon us last night says the men have admitted their guilt, and that another is guilty and will probably be arrested.

It is said that dull times are not known by the agents for the great publishing house of George Stinson & Co., of Portland, Maine. The reason of this exceptional success is found in the fact that they always give the public that which is keenly appreciated and at prices that all can afford. At present we understand, their agents are doing wonderfully well on several new lines. They need many more agents in all parts of the country. Those who need profitable work should apply at once.

Complaints are becoming very frequent that a large number of the village cows are allowed to roam around the streets, both day and night, destroying trees and leaving the sidewalks in a filthy condition. Where is the "chief" with his seventeen cudgels, some of which are said to have been presented by the "bloys" for the express purpose of assisting in gathering the town besides within the precincts of the village pound? Also, where is the small "bloys" who acted as deputy? We can only echo the inquiry by asking, "Where are they?"

Phil. Willse received on Monday an addition to his already large stock of gold and silver watches, push boxes and fancy Christmas goods. Phil. claims to have the largest and best selected stock of goods suitable for Christmas presents to be found in the back country. Call and see them, as obliging clerks will be pleased to show the goods whether you purchase or not.
 We are pleased to direct attention to the advertisement of one of Brockville's most enterprising dry goods merchants; we refer to Mr. Thos. Brady, who has had an experience of twenty-seven years in the business. Mr. Brady has been noted for his peculiar style of advertising, and we believe it is his intention to make his advertisements interesting in this paper.
 The property advertised for sale in our columns, under the head of "Mortgage Sale," is the farm lately occupied by Mr. J. W. Hogboom, situated on the main road from Farmersville to Delta—about midway between the two villages. The property is in good order and would make a desirable investment. Although the property is described as containing 65 acres, its actual extent is 100 acres.
