

It is Easy Now to have Home-Made Bread

THE Quaker Flour recipes show how easy it is to make bread at home. They are the recipes of home bread makers who use Quaker Flour.

Home bread making with Quaker Flour is always easy and always a success, because Quaker Flour is high in quality and rigidly uniform. It always bakes the same. Send a postcard for our folder of recipes for home-made bread making. It will be sent free.

Correspondence of Gasoline Bill.

His Wife Takes a Domestic Science Course.

(By L. Glenn Earl.)

Dear Ed,—
'Twas just the other day
My friend, the doctor, chanced to say,
(Because my appetite was poor
And he was looking for a cure),
That he was certain as could be
The 'grub' I ate did not agree
With one in such a weakly state
As I have somehow been of late.
I pondered o'er his sage advice
And lived two days on prunes and rice;

I shunned the juicy sirloin steak,
The raisin pie and fancy cake,
And I was in a blank despair
Until I heard the wife declare
That she would learn new ways and means

Of stewing meats and baking beans;
And I am very glad to say
She joined the 'Class' that very day,
While I sat back with pipe and book
And wondered if she'd learn to cook
The things that filled my heart with joy

When I was just a hungry boy
And watched where grandma hid the cake
And other things she used to make.

Well, wife with notebook new and neat
Wrote yards of 'dope' 'bout what to eat

When we were camping at the lake
And all the kids had 'tummy ache';
She learned how many 'calories'
Lay dormant in a pound of cheese,
Of 'vitamines' both 'A' and 'B',
And other things quite new to me,
She talked to me of 'temperatures',
'Consistency' and double 'kewers',
She mentioned 'hydrocarbons',
And mixing things by 'bulk' and 'weights'.

All 'guess-work' has been cast away,
The 'measuring-cup' has come to stay,
Our oven door now has a 'clock'
Below its nickel-plated lock.

Dear Ed.—I've never seen before
Our pantry like a grocery store
With jars of 'corn' and 'hand-picked' peas

And several brands of fancy teas;
And biscuits pressed in such a way
That they resemble bales of hay;
The pretty labels on each can
Delight the eye of hungry man;
I learn that wheat is puffed by steam,
And that 'evaporated cream'

Is warranted to have the trick
Of giving coffee quite a 'kick'.
My knowledge has increased tenfold
By reading all the things that's told
In 'ads.' of pickled beans and beets,
And other kinds of marvelous 'eats'.
I'm so enthused that I delight
To haunt the grocery stores at night;
Two pairs of shoes I've wrecked complete

A-lugging up new things to eat;
I tell you, if that book holds out,
I'll die of poverty or gout.

No longer am I late to tea,
I hasten homeward just to see
What brand new dish there is in sight

To aid my lagging appetite.
And best of all, I'm proud to state,
I've gained ten pounds in actual weight;

No day of labor now is feared,
The gray hairs all have disappeared;
My 'dome of thought' works overtime,
A-hustling for the needful dime;
The hours fly by on winged feet
As I dream of the wondrous things to eat.

And this a better place I've found
Since wife has started to compound
New brands of 'eats' to tantalize
And fill me with a glad surprise.

I tell you, Ed, the bashful maid
Who buys her 'trousseau' ready-made,
Can ill-afford to overlook
These lessons on the way to cook;
For I can truthfully declare
The way to hold his 'love' and care
Is not by using rouge and paint
Or posing as a little saint,
But by the old and ancient plan
Of feeding well the hungry man.

And here I think I should confess
That I am full of thankfulness
That wife has studied from a book
And learned the modern way to cook.

NEWBORO

Newboro, March 13.—Mrs. W. Steadman is spending a few days in Brockville with Mrs. H. McLean.

Mrs. George Bawden, who has been seriously ill with la grippe, is convalescing slowly under the care of Mrs. R. G. Bawden, of Toronto.

Miss L. B. Gallagher, Ottawa, spent the week-end with her parents.

Mrs. John Price is very ill at her home near here. Her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Earl, of Elgin, is with her.

The Ladies' Aid is holding a social evening in the basement of the Methodist church on March 17. The musical part of the programme is in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

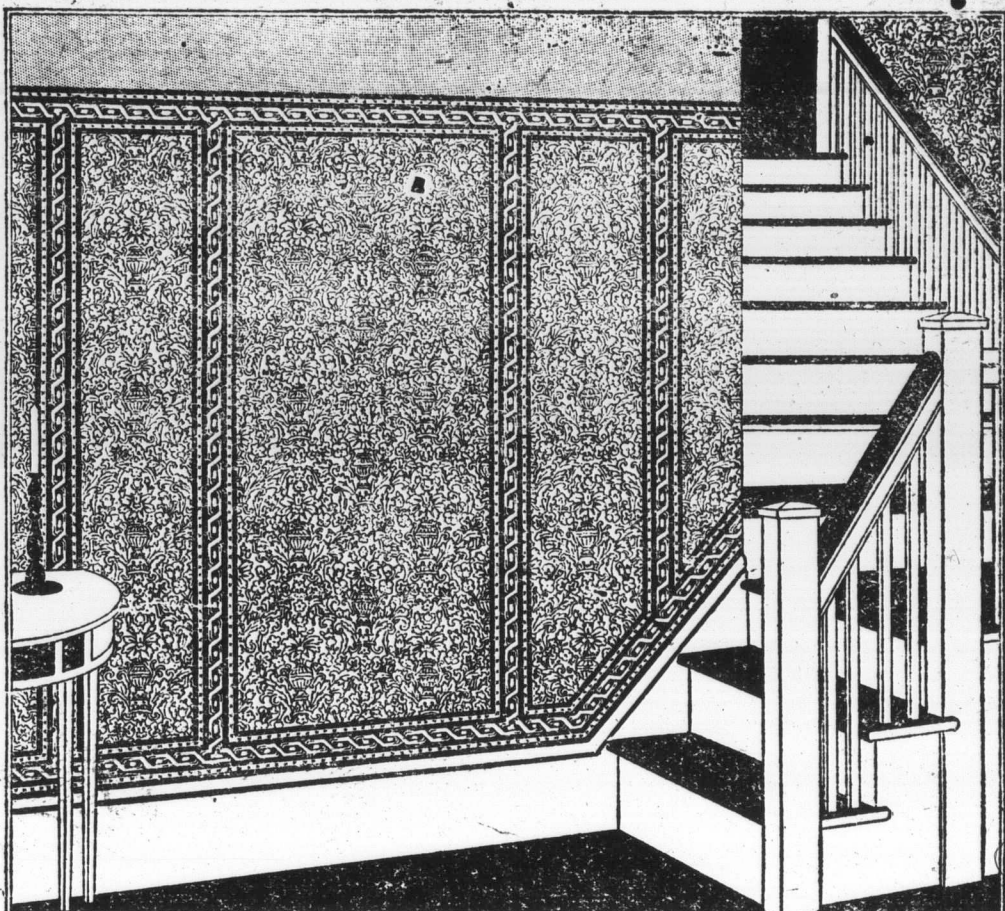

Mrs. A. Stevenson, who spent the past winter with her sister, Mrs. John McCann, has returned to Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Barr, who have spent the past two years in this vicinity, have decided to remove to Bob's Lake. Their many friends regret their departure.

The marriage is announced of Miss Izet Ashenurst, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ashenurst, Toronto, and Dr. W. C. Leggett, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Leggett of this place. Dr. and Mrs. Leggett will reside in Toronto, where the groom has a handsome bungalow on Jackmann avenue.

Among the newcomers in March are noticed Frank Garrett and family, also William Mallett and family.

Captain and Mrs. Ned Fleming were called to Kingston on Saturday by the death of Mrs. George Fleming of that place. Mrs. Fleming was formerly Miss Margaret MacDonald and spent her youth on the farm now occupied by Mr. McCarthy.
