I have not got very many more 1847 Roger Bros. knives and forks left, but would like to clear them out. You might just as well be the winner as anyone else. I do not need to tell you what the goods are like, as you have seen them advertised for years, only you buy them from me cheaper than any other place in Canada. E. J. MacIntyre, leading jeweler and optician.

The great horse sale advertised by D. R. McCrae, of Wallaceburg, took place on Tuesday and Wednesday this week. Between 40 and 50 head of highly bred horses were put under the hammer by Dr. Russ, of Detroit, and most of them were sold at prices ranging from one to two hundred dollars a head, which, considering that most of them were two-year-olds and three-year-olds, was very good. They were an excellent lot of clear, sound, well conditioned youngsters and extremely promising. A few of the choicest were bought by gentlemen in this city.

FIREWORKS AND PARADE

Outward and Visible Signs of Mr. Borden's Popularity At Home.

Halifax Accords a Great Reception to the Leader of the Opposition Who Arrived For Nomination Day—15,000 People Turned Out to Honor the Great Public Ownership Leader—Buildings Were Decorated and Illuminated.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 27.—R. L. Borden arrived last night in the city to be present at the nomination today. When the train pulled into the station shortly after 8 o'clock, that building and the streets leading to it were crowded. Thousands of people had gathered there to welcome him. The weather was threatening, a little rain having already fallen, and a procession was hurriedly formed, but this only seemed to fan the excitement, as a few minutes afterwards, when the procession had started, the cheering which had been going on since the train arrived, swelled to an uproar which lasted many minutes. Fireworks were set off and the fire made the scene as light as day. Over a hundred cannons were in the procession, which went over a three mile route.

The fireworks were added to by the searchlights of H.M.S. Ariadne, the flagship on this station, which were kept playing over the city and across the sky.

In Mr. Borden's barouche were Mrs. Borden, J. C. O'Mullin, his running mate, and Mrs. O'Mullin. All along the route, the crowds were so dense, and it is estimated that fully 15,000 people turned out to do honor to the great leader.

Buildings were decorated and illuminated, and fireworks were sent up from business houses and hotels. Hundreds of visitors are already in the city from all parts of the province to attend the great meeting to-night.

Mr. Wilfrid For Two Seats.

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be the Liberal candidate in Wright County. After much persuasion by the head men in the party, the three Liberal aspirants have agreed to bury the hatchet and retire to give way to their leader. The contest in Wright County at the election will be a hot one, as Sir Wilfrid is backed by a strong organization. He is also backed by the Hon. J. A. Goyette as candidate, at least so the chairman decided. F. Barrette also claimed to have the support of the convention.

E. B. Devlin, backed by his brother, C. H. Devlin, the man from (fairway), announced at the convention that he was in the field to stay and he straightway began an energetic canvass. Hon. Raymond Prefontaine and others tried to pour oil on the troubled waters, but the three were too hot. But everything is now settled.

E. B. Devlin stated yesterday afternoon that he had retired from the contest in Wright County at the request of his personal request, and that Sir Wilfrid would be nominated to-day. "I did not retire for Mr. Prefontaine or anybody else," said Mr. Devlin. "I would not retire in favor of anybody else. This is all I have to announce."

A further statement may be made at the nomination to-day by Mr. Devlin. The other candidates, Messrs. Barrette and Goyette, had agreed to retire in favor of the Premier, provided Mr. Devlin did so. Sir Wilfrid also stands for Quebec East.

When Trouble Will Begin.

Montreal, Oct. 27.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be nominated to-day as the Liberal candidate in Wright County. The matter was settled yesterday at the Windsor, where the Premier and Charles Devlin were in conference. Those, however, who understand the situation, declare the trouble will begin again as soon as the county is re-opened, for it is not to be supposed that in case of his return for Wright the Premier will sit for that long.

TEAMSTER AND MURDERER.

Cold-Blooded Deed At An Early Hour Wednesday in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Oct. 27.—A brutal murder was committed in the city a few days before 2 o'clock yesterday morning. Robert W. Taylor, a teamster, who lived in the west end of the city, entered all the rooms of the inmates of his house with a lamp and a bloody axe in his hand and told them he had murdered his "old woman."

On investigation the inmates found Mrs. Taylor lying on a couch in her room, fully dressed, with her head split open and quite dead.

The murderer, who was sober and apparently in his senses, smoking his pipe, wanted to explain the nature of the wound. He then asked for a glass of whiskey. He had been in the house all day and had not been drinking more than his usual amount. When handcuffs were put on him he remarked that he was quite comfortable. He formerly belonged to Cameron, Ont. His wife's maiden name was Rathbun. She came from Deseronto, Ont. As far as known there was no motive whatever for the crime.

The coroner stated that he did not believe the man was insane, notwithstanding his unaccountable crime and apparently inexplicable conduct.

Sent Up For Trial.

Ingersoll, Oct. 27.—In the police court yesterday afternoon, Mrs. William Lee was given her preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering her husband. After the evidence of three witnesses had been taken, which was much the same as that given at the inquest, the magistrate sent the prisoner up for trial at the spring assizes. The prosecution was conducted by Crown Attorney Ball of Woodstock, and J. L. Patterson, Ingersoll, defended.

THAMESVILLE MARRIAGE

A charming church wedding took place yesterday in Thamesville, in the Methodist Church at high noon, when Miss Annie Lavina Smith, daughter of Mr. J. W. Smith of that town, was united in marriage to Dr. Alex. Johnston McKenzie, of Port Huron. The bride was gowned in white silk, trimmed with chiffon and purple lace with bridal veil caught with white carnations. The bridesmaids were Miss Mae Smith, sister of the bride, and Miss Jessica Hamby, of the London Conservatory of Music. Miss Smith was attired in a dress of old rose shot with white, with lace impements, and wore a white Gainsborough hat, while Miss Hamby's gown was of pink satin, trimmed with chiffon, with picture hat. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and ferns, and the bridesmaids pink carnations. Chas. Leonard, of Detroit, was the groomsmen.
