DIGBY, Dec. 4.—R. G. Monroe called on the prisoner at her cell Saturday night and said "I have some news for you." Hope Young replied "a new trial granted?" Monroe replied "Yes."

The prisoner said she had every confidence in her solicitor and knew a new trial would be granted. She expressed her gratification and said that if Mr. Monroe had not undertaken to intercede for her for a mere nothing, she would, no doubt, have been hanged on December 20th.

The amount contributed has been far short of what was expected. The heaviest donation received was from a gentleman in Gardiner. Maine, the prisoner dwelt as some length on the uphill fight Monroe had experienced and the great advantage the prosecutor had over her from the start.
