

Morning Courier.

The meeting of the Protestant inhabitants of Montreal which took place yesterday on the subject of the slanders of MARIA MOEK...

The following head-bill was posted, in different parts of the City, at an early hour yesterday morning. It is one among the varied manifestations of public opinion, and which we throw in for the benefit of our friends at New York...

Resolved, That we do solemnly protest against the circulation and sale of any newspaper which contains any article calculated to injure the public peace...

Resolved, That we do solemnly protest against the publication of any article which contains any insinuation calculated to injure the public peace...

The following amendment to the first Resolution was offered; in favour of which a minority of four only appeared...

We cannot pretend to divine the motives of a contemporary journal for its opposition to the meeting, and its objects, as it seems to own utter disbelief of the falsehoods of Maria Moek's publications...

The Gazette gives the following as the arrangements for the Steamboat on Lake Ontario, for the ensuing season, so far as they have yet been made known...

The Hon. John Hamilton, in addition to the Great Britain, and the Captain of the Brigantine, with a change of Captain...

We are reluctantly compelled to postpone the publication of the proceedings of the Montreal Property Protecting Fire Company until to-morrow...
