Correspondence. Spicy News Items Gathered by

Gazette Correspondents. Johnson.

bean supper in the public hall at Cody's, or can beat it we would like to hear from and likewise a Band concert. The affair them. was well patronized as there were representatives from several different parishes of the county. The young ladies of the Sewing Circle were congratulated by secure the services of the Narrows Fife fever complicated with pneumonia, dairy production was introduced. The country homeste cattle to such an extent that the cows cross ones were badly blocked but are shrunkited in milk and lesh The hor retires broken out to day production and poultry raising were at-

Jan. 28.-Mr. E. J. Wright who has ing his parents Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Farris lation of nature's laws and as contaminat-

Wiggins for carrying the mails from the Narrows to Chipman. Mr. Wiggins has been very punctual in his engagements during the many years past in which he held the position as mail driver.

Next Tuesday the mail will be conveyed by train to Chipman station daily, but the people not living in the immediate vicinity will not be much better off than before and the populous districts like those of Briggs Corner and the Forks

Wiggins for carrying the mails from the Narrows to Chipman. Mr. Wiggins has been very punctual in his engagements during the many years past in which he held the position as mail driver.

Next Tuesday the mail will be conveyed by train to Chipman station daily, but the people not living in the immediate vicinity will not be much better off than before and the populous districts like those of Briggs Corner and the Forks

the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James H.

White and Mrs. I. N. Parker snow shoed from the Parsonage at Young's Cove to Jan. 24.—This week was a gay one for Mr. J. H. Reese's residence a distance of Johnston. On the evening of Jan. 19th, three miles and a half in one hour and a the Sewing Circle of this place held quarter. If there are any other two their semi-annual sale and also had a lady snow shoers who have ever beat this and Drum Band, wose efficiency and ability needs no spole y as they knew their business are standed to a. The struggle for life and if he had not been flects great credit on the young people of goes with out saying that he would have no longer considered a household necesthat there was a fly, generally known as wound up the worst snow storm we have the Texan Horn Fly, that tormented the had this winter. The roads especially the good deal of time and money lost and lars of the Municipal Council are not yet been visiting friends at McDonald's Point tion of the country are beginning to be through this place on Wednesday buying than that which satisfied the preceding poultry, eggs, etc. for the St. John mar generation. Disease is no longer looked wet.

returned to Portland Maine this week.

Mr. I. J. Flower of McDonald's Corner has the ground and surprise and church warden and surprise and prohably amusement of the congregation to find knives, forks, plates and cold chicken, as well as bread and wine."

Damy Orchard daughter of John Orchard da

at W. H. Gunter's

The daily mail will begin on Tuesday

Ist and kir G. Farris and Son are the contractors to carry the mail from Station to Jemeeg. Charles Gunter is mail driver from White's Cove and Robertson's Foint.

In 31—The weather has been very the state of the county has been the county has been well which is 160 feet deep vields a great the leaping silver foam.

"Above this intense blue the sky is transparently, superbly pale, and the stars are hurrying to light their lamps. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, as in the days when the world was young."—H. A Taine, in Journeys the provided in the stars are hurrying to light their lamps. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul, nor a plant, nor any sign of the hand of man. There is not a living soul is the plant of the hand of man. There is not a living soul is not a living soul is not a living soul is not a livin will which is 160 feet deep yields a great supply of water and works eminently satisfactory. Mr. Wireless is not supply of water and works eminently Hill to admonish them from the pulpit,

throat,
And life's sad stress and burden are forgot.
O, mother, genesitic mother! When I shall have lived my little human space
So take me to your nourice lap again
And spread your homely apron o'er my pulpits with Rev. Mr. Snell of Havelock. Mr. Snell was a student of the Rev. C.

MOTHER EARTH.

Spurgeon of London.

This morning the mercury was 40

-Marguerite Merington. WOMAN'S PHOGRESS IN JAPAN.

As sleep, not dying, to my thought it seems, With dreamless waking in the dream of whole affair was a grand success and reflects great credit on the young people of this place.

On the evening of the 20th we were visited by "the Minister of Agriculture with a delegacion of gentlemen who represented different branches of agriculture, and with them were our two represented tifferent branches of agriculture, and with them were our two representatives Hon. L. P. Farris and Mr. Carpenter. The meeting was opened they inlined the specific points of the specific poin different process of making butter; was thoroughly thrashed out to the "satismostion of the different speakers, but the cost of its production was left alone in its glory. The question of profitable over and the amount of butter a cost should produce to make he a predicable over and the different was everlooked in the program. The beef question and likewise the production of suitable fodder and care of stack. He aroued that it was a necessity to grow there is the first requirements of good farming. That being an impossibility in our section face that face that we can get a good catch of seed in the spring yet it winter kills the first winter, that has been my experience. I would kee hear from the fame subject. The cold wave the first of the week wound up the worst anow storm we have Damy Orchard daughter of John Orchard daughter of John Orchard Esq. who has been ill so long we regret to say is not expected to recover.

Diphtheria has broken out at Wm. H. Springer's and the daughter of Fred Springer is down with it.

Sidney Stewart who has been laid up with a bad cold is some better.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Farris left this afternoon for Newcastle to visit friends

Miss Bertie McLauchlin is dressmaking

The Sea.

The Sea.

"It is the sea which ennobles everything. Between the line and the surf there was but the ancient foreshore, correct who freed that the listener, if a stranger, imagines himself there was but the ancient foreshore, correct who freed that the listener, if a stranger, imagines himself there was but the ancient foreshore, correct who freed with prickly tamarisks and mauve-colored heath, with yellow sand conspicution of well boring was first practised. There is a well of this kind in Paris, 1925 feet deep and affords four million gallons of the beauty of the Angelus bird is deep and sombre blue. It is align and as white as snow, besides the blue as any grape on this cluster which hangs in the cooling breeze. The deep and sombre blue. It is conical in shape and about four inches that a surface of the ground for more than a century. We have not attained to such magnificent results in this province but

Jan. 26.—This place on the 24th experienced the worst storm of the season about 16 inches of snow falling and in consequence the roads are all blocked and before and the bopulous districts like those of Briggs Corner and the Forks will not rest satisfied until they have the benefit of a daily mail.

Rev. Mr. Gross occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church here last Sabbath and consequence the roads are all blocked and consequence the roads are al

WAITING FOR SOMETHING TO HAP

He grubbed away on a patch of ground, "Walting for something to happen;" fear after year the same old found, "Waiting for something to happen."
The moments he had to spare he spent In "waiting for something to happen; His hair grew gray, his shoulders bent, ing at Briggs' Corner for Mr. Lloyd and has a number of like contracts on hand in the same vicinity.

REVIVED MEMORY.

"Topknot, come down," which he evolved from Matthew xxiv., 17, "Let him which is on the housetop come down." Of course, nothing but the exceeding quaint ness of the preacher could have excused such a liberty with the sense and sound of the acred text.

To day is the last day for Mr. James Wiggins for carrying the mails from the Narrows to Chipman. Mr. Wiggins has been very punctual in his engagements.

THE

The Queens County Gazette will be issued from the office of Jas. A. Stewart,

Main Street, Gagetown, N. B.

EVERY

In time for Despatch by the earliest mails of the day. The Subscription price will be when suddenly a flood of light illumin the ed that dark corner of his memory where hung the picture of that small edition of himself losing or "putting away" the ring. He sprang to his fest with an excited cry: "The ring! The ring! I slipped it down the crack in the window casing. The one that looks out on the orchard!"

Upon investigation the ring was brought from its long hiding place, which was the exact spot the old man had described.—Buffalo Express.

THE GAZETTE

THE GAZETTE

is equipped with good press, new type nd a complete stock of material. We keep on hand a large and well assorted stock of all kinds of Stationery. We are in a position to do all kinds Job Printing, such as

Letter Heads, Note Heads, Bill Heads,

Statements, Envelopes,

Business Cards, Visiting Cards, Pamphlets

Dodgers.

Posters,

Circulars, Labels, Tickets,

Books,

Etc., Etc. MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO. Address all communications to

Jas. A. Stewart,

Publisher, w YOR

Gagetown, N.