and John Mutrie, M.P.P., responded.
Mr. Rogers expressed great pleasure at being present at a banquet under the auspices of men interested in stock raising. To be present with his fellow agriculturists was a greater honor to him than attending pink teas at Ottawa. He congratulated the club on the success of their show, and the plorted the fact that practical business men and agriculturists did not fill the benches of the House of Commons instead of professional men. Before closing Mr. Rodgers expressed confidence in the future of Canada, and hoped to see more practical men at the head of the country's affairs.
Mr. Mutrie felt it an honor to be present at the banquet of the pioneer Fat Stock Club of Canada, and he expressed pride in being able to repre-pressed pride in being able to represent so grand a constituency as South Wellington and the Royal City. He saw no reason why the Ontario Government could not double the grant to the Guelph show, since the city was a centre for agriculture and the seat of so excellent an institution as the On-

The name of Mr. James Totton, a prominent farmer of Bruce, was also coupled with this toast. Mr. Tolton said the site for the O.A.O. was selected at Guelph because it was the general opinion that Wellington was the banner agricultural county of the Dominion. He spoke of the yearly pilgrimages by farmers to the O.A.O. and the benefits derived therefrom.

PRESENTATIONS. President Milts presented the Holiday Cup to Mr. H. Smith, of Exeter. The president extended his warmest congratulations to the winner in so keen a competition and said that afor years of study he was convinced hat the elements of success did not depend so much on natural advantages as upon skill und industry.
