SENAIOR MACDONALD and A. C. Macdonald, M. P., arrived from Ottawa on their Easter holidays, Friday evening.

A SEVEN YEAR OLD lad named Arling was accidentally blown in the eye by a cow Saturday afternoon. It is feared that the sight of the organ will be permanently impaired.

OWING to the great amount of space occupied by our report of the Legislative proceedings, we feel sure our readers will pardon us for the absence of some other matters which we would like to publish.

THE mid-week excursion steamer Wm. Harrison from Charlottetown to St. John's, N. Y., via the St. Lawrence and Lakes, put in here for coal and water, Monday. She left again on her voyage, this morning.

THE Oldfellows of this city close their Natal Day proceedings on Tuesday, the 20th inst., with a grand concert in the Lyceum in the evening. The programme is an excellent one and the entertainment promises to be one of the best.

THE steamer Premier arrived here from Halifax via Sorelle and other ports of call, on Sunday. The Premier's owners have chartered the steamer Weymouth and placed her on the route between Halifax and Canso at which port she will make ornate visits with the Premier.

THE Ancient Order of Hibernians Social in their rooms, O'Connell Building, Queen Street, Monday night, was a most enjoyable affair. Over fifty couples were present, and tripped the night fantastic from shortly after eight o'clock until 1:30.

THE Easter Market, on Saturday, was largely attended, and the display of dressed meat the cause of much favorable comment. The great attraction was Blaine Bros. display of several animals turned out as beautiful as dressed as when in the live state.

A sad drowning accident occurred at Savage Harbor, Thursday, by which the 12-year-old son of Mr. Patrick Feehan, of Rocky Point, lost his life.

ATTENTION is directed to the reward of $50 advertised in another column and offered by Mr. Horace Haszard, of this city, for such information as will lead to the discovery and conviction of the party who fired shot at the Lyceum Factory at McAskill River, Lot 42, early Monday morning. Work was to have commenced at the factory that day. It is evident that the fire was the work of an incendiary, and some think it not impossible to have been perpetrated by some evasive person. The people of the vicinity should endeavor to report on the incendiary, as the shutting down of such an important industry by fire would be attended with many untoward pecuniary results.

THE ceremonies of Holy Week and Easter were fully carried out in St. Dunstan's Cathedral. The office of Lent was sung on the afternoons of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, at 4 o'clock, by His Lordship, the Bishop, the priests of the Cathedral, the choir and members of the Guild of Holy Mass was celebrated on Thursday at 8 o'clock by the Bishop, assisted by Rev. Dr. Morrison, as high priest, Fathers M. L. Llan and Reid as deacon and subdeacon, and Father McAskey as master of ceremonies. The officiating clergy were the same as on Thursday.
