

THE HERALD

Of late Sir Oliver Mowat, Sir Richard Cartwright and other Ontario Grit leaders have been assiduously demonstrating how desirable their policy is to that of the Patrons of Industry.

Every true son of Ireland will wish John Morley success in his undertaking for the annexation of the state of that country.

How comes it that the Patriot does not include in its journal the names of the date when our local legislature has been called for the despatch of business?

The Patriot almost everywhere with indignation over the late opening of the session at the Dominion capital.

Mr. Blair plainly told them he would not support the amendment of the franchise act giving them the right to vote.

Year after year the world is becoming more and more democratic. Among the effete institutions, which at the present day are the greatest betes noir of the iconoclasts, are government houses.

Young Melniss has been tried and sentenced for his crime. The person, who without a thought of the fatal consequences of the act, brought the death with him.

The British Parliament re-assembled Monday. The speech from the throne set aside all speculation as to the policy to be pursued by the government.

His Honor Justice Ferguson, is expected to arrive here tomorrow or Friday. He comes via the Stanley.

Baron Tweedmouth, more generally known as Right Hon. Edward Majoribanks, recently patronage secretary of the treasury and liberal whip, will in future have a seat in the cabinet and the office of attorney general.

The Examiner seems to think that the circumstances connected with the present vacancy in the Senate and that of three years ago are different.

Disputed Christianity.

Str.—In my preceding letter I referred chiefly to the Church as represented in the Roman Catholic hierarchy.

As the matter in question was mainly one of historical research, it might seem difficult to justify the treatment.
