There were two thousand spec tators, men in uniform or evening dress and women in black, but they hedral. Guarda were still watching with halberds and drawn swords be-side the dead Pope in the chapel of the Holy Sacrament, and around them was a radiance of yellow candle light. There was also a misty light in the chapel of the choir, and ninetyfive gilded lamps were purning a-round the marble balustrade of the nfession of St. Peter. In solemi tiliness the approach of the long was swaited. It was a mournful file ing slowly into the basilies, but mor ancholy than the sombre ves ments was the sorrowful, sighing, tike "Miserere," echoing far and wide with unearthly and weird pa-
