 Dear Miss Nugent—
 We, the pupils of the Superior School, wish to take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation of your faithful work during your stay amongst us.
 For five years as Principal of the High School you have been most assiduous in your labours for our advancement, not only in the ordinary school studies and higher examination, but also along the lines of singing and drilling exercises. We regret that you are so soon to sever your connection with us.
 In view of these facts please accept this small token of our love and esteem; also our sincerest wishes for success in your future and chosen vocation.

The Spanish Cavalier

AT THE NICKEL THEATRE.
 The Nickel Theatre was attended by immense audiences yesterday, in the afternoon and evening the building was filled to overflowing. The first bill was a story of the raising, and final end of the battleship Maine. It was one of the best films ever seen there. The next was the famous story "The Spanish Cavalier," named after the song which is known the world over. It was closely followed and thundered. "All on account of Checkers" and "A Game for Two" were very fine comedies. Misses Gardner and Geurin were much enjoyed in their roles. They finish their engagement here this week.

Prospero Arrives.

POOR FISHERY.
 The S. S. Prospero, Capt. A. Kean, returned from Northern ports yesterday having reached her terminus, Battle Harbour. Going into this port and also at Twillingate, ice was met. She brought a full freight and as passengers—Messrs. Walters, A. H. Walters, Rev. Dall, W. Oakley, J. W. Parsons, H. Blackmore, W. J. Rowe, E. Conway, A. Tilley, A. Roberts, R. S. Morgan, R. W. Ritcey, A. Rowsell, A. Nofall, J. A. Meadon, J. W. Hodge, W. Grant, W. Gardner, L. J. March, C. March, G. S. Day; Misses Winsor, Walsh, Batstone, Kean, Miffilia (2), Escott, Strong; and 30 second class.
 The Prospero reports that the ice on the coast is interrupting fishery operations. Altogether the fishing voyage northward is poor.

Adventure Back.

The s.s. Adventure, Capt. Couch, arrived in port yesterday afternoon from Philadelphia, after a fine run of four days. She brought 1,000 tons of hard coal to Harvey & Co. After unloading her cargo, the Adventure will be put in readiness for her cruise to Hudson Bay waters. It is expected the ship will sail from here in a fortnight's time.

The Holiday.

Notwithstanding the threatening weather yesterday, the streets were practically deserted as hundreds of people spent the holiday out of town. The S.U.F. excursion to Bay Roberts and the Shamrock excursion to Bell Island were well attended. Besides scores of parties trouted the different suburban ponds and streams and returned with good catches.

Rifle Club Meets.

Quite a number attended the rifle matches at the South Side range yesterday. The weather was damp and foggy and not at all conducive to good shooting. On a score of 85 points Mr. E. Maenab won the Mc Loughlan medal, and the G. S. Ayre handicap trophy fell to Mr. Geo. T. Carty with 83 points. The weather prevented the holding of the afternoon matches.

GOOD FISHING.—There is a good sign of fish at Torbay. Yesterday cod was exceptionally plentiful and the fishermen did well. One man Thorne, had thirty quintals.

Photographs of the Landing of H. R. H. Prince Albert Frederick at the King's Wharf are on exhibition and for sale at PARSONS' ART STORE, Water Street, one door east Royal Stores.
