Burial Place of Antiochus Discovered.

WAS COUSIN OF KING HEROD WHO CARRIED OUT THE SLAUGHTER OF INFANTS.

Philadelphia, Oct. 16.—The burial place of Herod's first cousin, Antiochus, has been found by explorers of the Museum of the University of Pennsylvania, at Beth Shan, in Palestine, according to an announcement made at the museum by Dr. George Byron Gordon, the director. Antiochus, in all probability, was one of the men charged by Herod with directing the slaughter of the children of Bethlehem, as narrated by St. Matthew, in the vain effort to kill the Christ child, who had been described to Herod by the wise men as the "King of the Jews."

No discovery made by archaeologists since a start was made a century ago on the exploration of buried cities in the Near East, has aroused so much interest among followers of Christianity. It is the nearest approach so far made to the finding of contemporary records of Christ and of the events leading up to the founding of the Christian religion.

Information of the discovery came to the museum from Dr. Clarence Stanley Fisher, director of excavations at Beth Shan, who has just concluded the second half year of operations there. In a letter to Dr. Gordon some time ago he announced that a hard stone sarcophagus was found in one of the Roman tombs at the site. On it was an inscription in Greek.

Traces of Philistines.

Of almost equal importance is the announcement that Dr. Fisher had found in deeper layer of excavation the first known sarcophagus of the Philistines. It will be recalled by readers of the Bible that the Philistines defeated King Saul on Mount Gilboa, which overshadowed the ancient fortress city, and, cutting off his head, nailed his body to the city walls.

Historians have been puzzled to account for the Philistines here, as contemporary records of them were few and far between. The hope is now entertained that somewhere in the ruins may be found perhaps their own version of the great battle story told in first Samuel.

Archaeologists consider the Philistines of even greater importance than the sarcophagus of Antiochus or the stone of King Seti I of Egypt, the latter found in the first year of work at Beth Shan. The coffins were made of clay and differ from any heretofore found. Each bore the likeness of a human face modelled into clay at the head of the coffin.

Levels of six cities have been found so far at Beth Shan, and it is known there are more below. The site is said to have been occupied for a longer continuous period than any other place of human habitation. It was also the most fought over spot in the world, since it commands the gateway between Mesopotamia and Egypt and was necessary to the conquest of Palestine. Crusaders fortified the hill, and General Allenby took it from the Turks in the world war.

Dye Old Skirt Coat, Dress in Diamond Dyes

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint her worn, shabby dresses, skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, draperies, hangings, everything, even if she has never dyed before. Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is sure because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to spot, fade, streak, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods.

Short jackets are well represented among fall suits. They are shown with embroidered pockets and trimmings of fur.

Lamaline Notes.

The Schr. General Jacobs, Capt. Williams, is at present loading codfish for a Mediterranean port from Messrs. S. Harris Ltd.

Mr. Thomas Spencer-of-Fortune has been in town the past week looking after the sale of a cargo of coal for his firm and incidentally renewing old acquaintances.

Capt. John Young, Schr. Latona, is here at present with part of a cargo of coal. These are the first two cargoes of coal landed here this season and were badly needed.

Partridge are reported plentiful this season on the local grounds, and good "bags" are being brought home.

Thursday at 8 p.m. in the S.U.F. Hall there was a presentation of bugles to the local company of the Church Lads Brigade, in the presence of the parents of the lads of the company. It was the first event of its kind in the history of the town. The donors were Messrs. F. King and K. M. Batten, and Mr. C. C. Pitman, J.P. Mr. Pitman in a neat little speech on behalf of the ladies and himself, made the presentation. The company chaplain responded on behalf of the donors for their kind thoughtfulness and interest. The company has now four honorary members, (many more are welcome), the other being Mr. John Foote who so generously donated a side drum some time ago. After the presentation, Instructor H. King put the lads through some drill so that the parents might see what progress their boys are making. Great credit is due Mr. King for the pains he has taken to bring about the commendable results shown. The lads did well! After dismissing the company, two of the beigel colored cloth uses embroidered officers, Rev. H. Kirby and K. M. Batten addressed the parents, pointing out the problems, wants and difficulties as well as the joys and successes of the company. An appeal was made to the parents for their entire support and co-operation. Mr. Daniel Hillier also spoke on behalf of the Brigade Bible class of which he is the capable teacher. No doubt the function left its impression and will result in even greater interest towards a monument of such untold good. Let us hope the day is drawing when it will be generally realized that the highest field of Christian service lies amongst the young people of our Island home.

Light Saving. CONTAINING MUCH WISDOM. Goodness is extremely trying; that's why it's so much easier to be the other thing. Many a woman doesn't know what trouble is till she has married the man of her choice. A woman may be shocked if you make love to her, but she is disappointed if you don't. A man who marries a widow must expect her to be the captain—he is only her second mate. A woman is glad to be twenty, ashamed to be forty, sorry to be sixty, and proud to be eighty. Many a man has fallen in love with a peach, only to discover that Fate has handed him a lemon. To marry at all, a man requires inspiration; to marry well, aspiration; to marry foolishly, desperation. It is always the worst men who marry the nice women, and they are too bad to realize their luck. To dream of a castle in Spain only makes one discontented with the suburban villa residence of reality. The only difference between grass widow and a real one is that the first is in clover and the other in weeds. A man may have heart enough to love two women at the same time, but he ought to have brains enough not to try it.
