George Stewart Also Climbing Ladder of Success in Film Land

ONE OF THE FAMOUS ANTI-CLIMAXING MEN FOR MILLIONAIRE HARRIS CHAPLIN IN HER LATEST.

George Stewart, brother of the famous and talented Anita, is also climbing the ladder of success in the picture world. He has the important role of his screen "Old Dad," playing as Millie Harris Chaplin's leading man in her first National starring picture, which will be shown at the Theatre to-night.

As a star, George has the reputation of being a career artist. He has been in the picture business since 1914, and has played only minor parts in cinema pictures. George Stewart's growth and progress, however, under the observation of Director Ingram, who decided that he was an ideal lead for Mrs. Stewart, has not been missed out by the declarations of those who have seen a preview of "Old Dad," which they declare not only represents the best work yet seen by Mrs. Chaplin, but also the best work yet seen by George Stewart as an actor of his own ability.

Members of Mrs. Chaplin's cast are John Sullins, John Sullins, Irving Cummings, John Sullins, Edwin Brown, Loyola, John Sullins, and John Sullins.

Prince Rupert Pulp is DISPOSED OF BY AUCTION.

The assets of the Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Co. recently placed on the auction block at Vancouver, were bid in by the Prince Rupert Holding Co. for $300,000. They were the only bidders, and are the owners of first mortgage debenture bonds of the Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Company.

A $500,000 lumber mill at Prince Rupert and valuable timber limits in Northern British Columbia have been "knocked down" to the holding company to meet a first mortgage, debenture indebtedness of $770,000.

MISS MAJOR IN A TOE DANCE--WILLIAM S. HART, IN O'MALLEY OF THE MOUNTED.

The Canadian Mounted Police are noted for their doggedness. It is a trite saying that they never give up once they are on a trail and that the fugitive might as well surrender for he hasn't a chance of escape. This forms the story of O'Malley of the Mounted, in which this great Western actor plays the leading part, and in which he is assisted by a role of well known stars, headed by Eva Novak. Such a story cannot fail to compel the interest of the public which delights in deeds of heroism and romantic adventure in the wilderness country. Add to this the complete Western "rodeo" or congress of wild riders, ropers and experts of the wild regions, and you have a combination that is irresistible. With this big picture, Miss Major, will give an exhibition of Toe Dancing, and as this lady has already demonstrated her ability as a dancer, in this exhibition she will no doubt add new laurels to her reputation. Don't fail to see her to-night for as it is so trying it will be the first and only time she will perform this class of dancing during her engagement.

AN AWKWARD SUGGESTION.

"I say, who is that man who has just come into the restaurant?" asked the young man of his fair companion. "I see he nodded to you. Do you know him?"

"Yes," she said. "I know him quite well."

"Shall I ask him to join us?"

"Oh, dear," murmured the girl. "This is so sudden."

"What do you mean?" demanded he in surprise.

"Why Dick, that's our minister."

Green's Harbor Notes.

We extend a hearty welcome to our new incumbent, Rev. S. A. Dawson, who officiated at St. Matthew's Church on Sunday last.

Miss M. Maddock, B.A., of Carbonara, is at present visiting Green's Harbor, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cram.

We are very sorry indeed to record the removal of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Brown and family to St. John's. Having spent so many years here, their going is a real loss to the community.

Glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. B. Reid, who have been visiting relatives here for the past month. They leave enroute to Canada on to-morrow's train.

Miss M. Green returned from the General Hospital on Monday (30th). We trust that she will soon be quite well again.

Hallowe'en night was the occasion of a delightful little party, given by Mrs. F. Harrum to several young folks. We were glad to see that Miss M. Sharpe from Blaketown made one of the number.

The C.E. children gave a concert in their schoolroom on the night of Nov. 16th. Despite the fact that the weather was disagreeable, the room was crowded, and the affair was voted a high success. The children did remarkably well and their teacher, Miss E. G. Sharpe is to be congratulated.--COR.
