Negro Money King Is Rescued

have provided half the funds which have just saved Perry.

The tale of Perry's rise to wealth and power is swift.

He got out of the cotton fields in Texas and went to Cincinnati as a young man. He says: "I got there broke and I came near to freezing to death before I found a place to sleep. But I got a job in a Turkish bath."

Soon afterward his father set him to thinking of life insurance for colored people, the project which Booker T. Washington had in mind when he died.

"After two years of hard labour, spending largely one day in a town and travelling at night in the Jim Crow cars we had $8,500 in cash."

With that, in 1915 he started the standard Life Insurance Company at Atlanta, the first of the old line legal reserve insurance companies operated by Negroes in the United States. It is regarded as the strongest link in a chain of 35 negro companies with a total of $500,000,000 worth of insurance in force on the lives of 1,100,000 Negroes.

With the insurance company as a keynote Perry branched out in other undertakings that served his own race. The black board of directors multiplied and the Negro race was proudly displaying its business capacity in chain grocery systems, laundries, organizing building associations and land development schemes around Atlanta when the difficulty came.

All these things took money and Perry discovered a few months ago that he had tied up too much in the land development schemes. In the emergency, he went to the money-lenders and pledged a controlling block of the insurance company stock.

What happened to him has happened to many a man with a white skin, one of the rescuers said today. And the same man frankly admitted that it was not allowed to happen to Perry for the honor of the Negro race.

COLORED BOXERS VICTORIOUS

Chester, Pa., Dec.—(By The Associated Negro Press)—Joe Williams, Philadelphia, won all the way from At Holtzman, white, in the wind-up of 10 rounds at the New Cheetah A.C., show here Monday night.

Kid Brown, a local boy, was awarded the decision over Dick Buck, white, in the eight-round semi-final.

In another bout in Philadelphia, George Godfray, the colored giant, was credited with a knockout over Joe White, white, of Alabama, in the first round of the 10-round wind-up at the opening of the Adelphia club here, Monday night.

White stopped suddenly, went to his knees in the first round and then claimed a foul which was not allowed after he was examined by the club doctor. A hard punch to the breadbasket at the beginning of the fight was too much for White, and he could not recover from it. Godfray fought clean as long as the fight lasted.
