At Brooklyn-

baron who was formerly a comrade of my father. The telegram advised me of his sudden illness, and that he had scmething important to disclose to me. I bade my gentlemen, save one, proceed to Bleiberg. My aide and I entered the carriage which was to convey us to the castle. We never reached it. On the road we fell into an ambush, a wealth. I will lay waste this duchy of hers, though in the end the Emperor crush me. Let us be off."

They stumbled on through the forest.
So confused was Maurice that he for-needed both courage and extreme phy-he woman by starving myself, poor too, lay down. Five minutes passed The sentinel rose, and convinced that his ears had tricked him, resumed his

"You have been a soldier?" he asked

"Yes. Perhaps we had better strike

"Silence!" he suddenly whispered, sinking and dragging the prince with ool that I was!"

STANDARD WORLD

[Copyrighted by the Bobbs-Merrill Company, Indianapolis.]

A hundred yards in advance of them stood a sentinel, his body bent forward and a hand to his ear. Presently he. "Will drain a bitter cup. Madame is playing with him." And the king; is he dead?" "He is dying." Maurice's wonder grew. What part had this strange young man in this comedy, which was lonely patrol. He disappeared toward the west, while the fugitives made off the west while the fugitives made off the west while the fugitives made off the west while the fugitive was the west while the fugitive was the west while the west while the west was the west rapidly developing into a tragedy?
"And her highness—her royal highness?" eagerly clutching Maurice by the arm: "and she?"

the west, while the fugitives made on in an easterly direction. Maurice was a soldier again. Every two or three hundred yards he knelt and pressed

"She does not murmur, though both his ear to the cold, damp earth and her pride and her heart are sore. She has scarcely a dozen friends. Her paralytic father is the theme of ribald jest; and now they laugh at her because the one man who perhaps could out for the mountains. The sentry line cannot extend as far as this." have saved the throne has deserted her like a coward. Hang him, I say!"

"What do they say?" The tones were "They say he is enamoured of a between the partly dismantled trees. peasant girl, and dallies with her, forgetting his sacred vows, his promised ever reach it? There was only one and despairing cry. . . . He was again seized with the vertigo, and swayed against the tree. For a mo-dashing his hand from his eyes; "I am weak and half-starved. It would be better for all concerned if I blew out my brains. The 20th, the 20th!" he repeated, dully. "Curse her!" he burst forth; "as there's a God above us, I'll return to the have revenge a Ye I'll return to the work of the contain Jockey desire; and in all probability the last of the question is heard. Ball is said to be a fast and strong player, and a quiet, unassuming chap.

They followed the river. The roar of it deadened all other sounds. For the contain Jockey desire; and in all probability the last of the question is heard. Ball is said to be a fast and strong player, and a quiet, unassuming chap.

They followed the river. The roar of it deadened all other sounds. For the results of the popularity of the Ontario Jockey desire; and in all probability the last of the question is heard. Ball is said to be a fast and strong player, and a quiet, unassuming chap.

They followed the river. The roar of it deadened all other sounds. For the popularity of the Ontario Jockey desire; and in all probability the last of the question is heard. Ball is said to be a fast and strong player, and quiet, unassuming chap.

They followed the river. The roar of it deadened all other sounds. For the popularity of the Ontario Jockey meetings that they meetings that they meetings that they meetings that they are the secretary has been desire; and in all probability the last of the question is heard. Ball is said to be a fast and strong player, and quiet, unassuming chap.

COLLEGE GAME WENT forth; "as there's a God above us, I'll have revenge. Aye, I'll return to the chateau, Madame, that I will, but at the head of 10,000 men! . . . The 20th! She will never forgive me; she will think I, too, deserted her!" He broke down again.

Of it deadened all other sounds. For a mile they plodded on, silent, watchful and meditative. The prince thought of his love; Maurice tried to forget his. For him the romance had come to an end, its logical end; and it was now only a question of getting back to the

"An army!" cried Maurice.
"Aye, and 10,000 men! Come," taking maining there. He recalled a line he Maurice by the arm: "come, they may had read somewhere; a deep love, be seeking us. To the frontier. Every gashes into the soul as a come is how. hour is precious. To a telegraph office! We shall see if I dally with peasant girls, if I forsafe the woman L love!" Maurice retreated a step. silver moonshine became tinged with red.

"I am Prince Frederick, and I love her highness. I would sacrifice a thousand kingdoms to spare her a moment's I have always loved her." "What a woman!" Maurice mured, as the scheme of Madame's flashed through his mind. "What a woman! And she had the audacity to kidnap you, too!"
"And by the most dishonorable de-final arrangements. At Ehrenstein I Mothers Are Helped THEIR HEALTH RESTORED Happiness of Thousands of Homes Due vice. I and my suite of gentlemen coming to Bleiberg to make the to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's Advice. A devoted mother seems to listen to every call of duty excepting the supreme one that tells her to guard her health, and before she realizes it some derangement of the female organs has manifested itself, and nervousness and irritability take the place of happi-

she no doubt is suffering with backache, headache, bearing-down pains or displacement, making life a burden. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for this condition. It strengthens the female organs and permanently cures all disorders such as this letter describes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham ing mother of five children, I have had experience with the general troubles of my sex. I was lacerated when one of my my sex. I was lacerated when one of my children was born, and from that hour I date all of my afflictions. I found that within a few months my health was impaired, I had female weakness and serious infiammation and frequent flowing spells. I became weak and dizzy, but kept on my feet, dragging through my work without life or pleasure. A neighbor who had heen helped by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound insisted that I take at least one bottle. I did so, and felt so much better that I kept on the treatment, and it made me a strong and well woman. The few dollars I spent for the medicine cannot begin to pay what it was worth to me "—Mrs. Anna McKay, 326 Spadina Ave., Toronto, Ont.

Mrs. Pinkhan advises sick women ree. Address, Lynn, Mass.

received a telegram which requested the to visit till the following train a baron who was formerly a comprate of TWO SHUT-OUTS IN NATIONAL Toronto and Montreal were among Newark terday, Toronto securing its second consecutive victory over the champions, and Montreal evening. contrivance of Madame's, I was brought to the chateau. Whatever happened to Hofer, my aide, I do not know. Doubtless he is dead. But Madame shall pay, both in pride and without an error, but Toronto batted much better. Extra innings were at the Rocklynthe preceding day. Buffalo played without an error, but Toronto batted much better. Extra innings were re-got his usual caution. The supreme confidence of this woman and the flawlessness of her schemes dazed him. So far she had stopped at nothing; where would she end? A Napoleon in petti-coats, she was about to appall the confederation. She had suppressed a prince who was heir to a kingdom riple in power and size to the king-om which she coveted. Madame the power, else her plans were madness.

As for the prince, he had but one thought: to reach Bleiberg. The confinement, together with mental suffer-At Philadelphia-ing, anxiety and forced inaction, began to tell on him. Twice he tripped and fell, and Maurice had to return to assist him to his feet. How ever could they cross the mountains, a feat which sical endurance?
"I am so weak," said the prince, "so pitiably weak! I thought to frighten

THE NATIONAL. THE EASTERN. And they went on again. Maurice was beginning to feel the effect of his wine-bibbing; he had a splitting head-> Playing Ball -But Ball Will Play.

The executive of the City League held a special meeting last night at the City Hotel to discuss the signing of a colored player named Ball, by McClayur. The Bookets objected to play-But now they could see the drab clarys. The Rockets objected to play-peaks of the mountains which loomed ing against Ball on the score of his ing against Ball on the score of his color, and a collapse of the league seemed imminent. The subject was thoroughly discussed, at the meeting, getting his sacred vows, his promised aid, and perhaps even this, his wedaid, and perhaps even this, his wedif they attempted to cross the mounobjections. It was claimed that beobjections. It was claimed that being day."

"God help him!" was the startling if they attempted to cross the mountains in a deserted place, they might tains in a deserted place, they might cause they were playing under National cause they were pl the contrary, it is asserted that there is no rule to that effect, it being mere-

COLLEGE GAME WENT EIGHTEEN INNINGS

Princeton, N. J., May 11.-The most Princeton with a single run after 18 innings of exciting fielding.

upon the body and remains there dur-Con Doyle, one of Princeton's less "Look!" cried the prince. He pointed for the entire contest, equivalent to two Maurice came out of his dream and games, and twirled in splendid form. McRae, of Amherst, shared the pitchlooked. Some distance west of the pass, perhaps half a mile from where ing honors and allowed only or they stood, Maurice saw the twinkle on balls. The contest was really a of a hundred campfires. It was Ma-fielders' battle, and only three men reached third base, including Reid, who

"What does this mean?" asked the scored the winning tally. The game was played in championship form and was marked by four "It means that the duchess is on the sensational double plays. answered Maurice. "And how are we played more finished ball and Princeto make the pass, which is probable filled with soldiers? If only we could ton simply won out on their determin-find a boat! Ah, what would your highness call this?" He pointed to a The score: thread-like line of bare earth which 000000000000000000000001-1 10 5 "A sheep or cattle path," said the Batteries-McRae and Dahaney; D. "Then the river is perhaps fordable here!" exclaimed Maurice jubilantly.

Doyle and Cooney. INFERNO PICKED AS

Toronto, May 11.-As a result critics and railbirds agreed that of today's trials at Woodbine the Saturday, would be as follows:

3-Mr. Dyment's Will King.

2-Mr. Hendrie's Heather Jock.

And Half Seas Over, Caper-

Inferno set all doubt at rest as to his ability to hold his speed for the Plate distance when he galloped the mile and a quarter with his head in the air in 2:16 flat, the first mile in 1:50 and the ferno ran like a racehorse and could have beaten the mark considerably if he had been let down. He is unquestionably a high-class colt, and his looks do

Heather Jock also worked well,

He started off with Lorne Reel and Jeannie Dick, but they soon dropped out, Land's End broke in at the six-furlong chute, and the Plater was first past the wire, going the Plate distance in 1:05, 1:1914, 1:34, 1:4734, 2:0134.

++++++++++++++++++

LEAGUE DISBANDS.

The Wholesale Manufacturers League of last year has formally disbanded. The disputed Beck trophy will be handed over by the McClary

HIGHLANDERS GET GANZEL.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 11. - John

his fight against the New York Ameri-

NO GAMES IN AMERICAN.

2:16.

team to the donor

The fractional time: 261/2

not belie his running ability.

last quarter in 26 seconds. Incailzie and Tony Hart as the 1-Mr. Seagram's Inferno.

contenders for fourth place.

He walked to the water's edge, studied the black whirling mass, shrugged and stepped in. The prince came after him, unhesitatingly. Both shivered. The water was intensely cold. But the bed was shallow, and the river never mounted above the However, in midstream it waist. rushed strongly and wildly along, and all but carried them off their feet. They arrived in safety at the opposite shore, weak and cold in body, but warm in spirit. They lay on the grass for several moments, breathing heavily. They might now gain the pass by lambering up the mountain and picking their way down from the other side. It was not possible that Ma-dame's troopers had entered into the

"At any rate, we'll try it; if it gets too deep, we'll come back." ing the whole life.

toward the west.

dame's army in bivouac.

vended riverward.

eve of striking a blow for her crown," rince, after a close inspection.

"I am giving out," the prince con-fessed reluctantly. "Let us make as much headway as we can while I last." They stood up. Now the moon fell upon them both; and they viewed each ther with no little curiosity. What the prince saw pleased him, for he possessed a good eye. What Maurice saw was a frank, manly countenance, youthful, almost boyish. The prince lid not look to be more than three and twenty, if that; but there was a man's determination in his jaw. This jaw pleased Maurice, for it confided to him that Madame had now something that would cause her worry.

dren, and her condition ruins the child's disposition and reacts upon herself.

The mother should not be blamed, as she no doubt is confined as the condition ruins the child's him, helpless to prevent it confined as the co and curse. You will see nothing but unfavorable side of me for the next dozen hours.' "I'm not altogether amiable myself," replied Maurice with a short laugh, "Let us get out of the moonlight," he added: "we are somewhat conspicuous, and besides, we should keep moving: this cold is paralyzing. Is your high-ness equal to the climbing?" "Equal or not, lead the way. If I

And the weary march began again; over boulders, through tangles of tough shrubbery up steep inclines, around precipices, sometimes enveloped in mists, yet still they kept on. Often the prince fell over ragged stones, but he picked himself up without assistance; though he swore some, Maurice thought none the less of him for that bit of human weakness. The cold was offers to release either Chase or Andernumbing, and neither felt the cuts and bruises.

[To be Continued.]

TWENTY-ONE LEFT FOR PLATE RACE

Won, Lost

IN THE NATIONAL.

Big Event—Horses Arrive Daily at Woodbine.

Toronto, May 11.-The following declar-

Alex. C. Andrew-Eveleigh, Hon. A. Beck-Chateaubriand. L. G. Bennett-Collision. Robert Davies—Scotch Cap. Robert Davies—Fair and Gay. Robert Davies-Penny Whistle.

D. Evans—Conspiracy.

James Hurley—Tyrstone.

James Meagher—Valaquette.

J. O'Neill—Wallace G.

A. M. Orpen—Teston.

A. H. Roberts—Safe Haven.

swayed against the tree. For a moment he forgot Maurice, covered his face with his unengaged hand, and sobbed.

Maurice was helpless; he could offer no consolation. This grief he could not understand. He stooped and picked up his revolver and waited.

"I am weak," said the other man, dashing his hand from his eyes; "I am weak and half-starved. It would be better for all concerned if I blew out the man, better for all concerned if I blew out the man, ment the forgot Maurice, covered his nand out, might the ups and downs and windings in and out, might the contrary, it is asserted that there is no rule to that effect, it being merely an unwritten law on account of southern prejudice.

In all mateur ball, the color line is not tightly drawn, and even Harvard plays a colored man on its team, because he is the best. It was decided in impassable.

"We shall have to risk the pass," said Maurice, gloomily: "though heaven better for all concerned if I blew out toward the mountains, and after is nor rule to that effect, it being merely an unwritten law on account of southern prejudice.

In all amateur ball, the color line is not tightly drawn, and even Harvard plays a colored man on its team, because he is the best. It was decided that there is nor rule to that effect, it being merely an unwritten law on account of southern prejudice.

In all amateur ball, the color line is not tightly drawn, and even Harvard plays a colored man on its team, because he is the best. It was decided that there is nor rule to that effect, it being merely an unwritten law on account of southern prejudice.

In all amateur ball, the color line is not tightly drawn, and even Harvard plays a colored man on its team, because he is the best. It was decided that there is nor rule to that effect, it being merely an unwritten law on account of southern prejudice.

This will take to risk the pass, said the color line is not tightly drawn, and even Harvard plays a colored man on its team, because he is the best. It was decided that there countered in the

BECK ENTRIES WIN AT MONTREAL SHOW

Montreal, May 11 .- There was a beautiemarkable baseball game in Princeton ful scene last evening at the Arena, when annals was played yesterday afternoon with Amherst, and finally won by half borse show, and experts and leaders nual horse show, and experts and leaders of fashion declare that the incident will surpass all previous records. His Exceldistinguished pitchers held the box lency's remarks were very brief, dwellling chiefly upon the progress which had taken place in Canada,

Out of the 27 horses entered in the Corinthian class, judged this evening, 27 appeared in the ring this morning at the Arena to qualify. When the judges were finished it was found that the following named horses had been selected: Pat. br. g., 15.3, 9 years, exhibited by R. A. Allan, Montreal; The Duchess, roan m., 16, 5 years, exhibited by Arch. Allan, Montreal; Donation, ch. m., 16, 6 years, exhibited by H. B. Macdougall, Montreal; Listowel, br. g., 15.3, 5 years, exhibited by Watson Ogilvie, Montreal; Myrtle, br. m., 16, aged, exhibited by B. McLenton Montreal; Markey by Watson Ogilvie, Montreal; Myrtle, br. m., 16, aged, exhibited by B. McLennan, Montreal; Merryfield, b. m., 15.3½, 4 years, exhibited by Hon. Adam Beck, London; Lady Mandal, b. m., 15.3, 6 years, exhibited by Mrs. Adam Beck, London; Falkirk, b. g., 15.3½, aged, exhibited by Mrs. Adam Beck, London; Westminster Belle, ch. m., 15.1, aged, exhibited by Mrs. Adam Beck, London; Lady Eileen, b. m., 15.3, 5 years, exhibited by Mrs. Adam Beck, London; Lady Eileen, b. m., 15.3, 5 years, exhibited by Mrs. Adam Beck, London; Lady Eileen, b. m., 15.3, 5 years, exhibited by Gordon J. Henderson, Hamilton; Cloth of Gold, ch. g., 16, 5 years, exhibited by Gordon J. Henderson, Hamilton; Cloth of Gold, ch. g., 16, 5 years, exhibited by Alfred Rogers, Hamilton; Gold Dust, ch. g., 15.2, 4 years, exhibited by Alfred Rogers, Hamilton; Roxland, ch. g., 16, 4 years, exhibited by Alfred Rogers, Hamilton; Roxana, ch. m., 16, 4 years, exhibited by Alfred Rogers, Hamilton; Pounkirk, b. g., 15.3, aged, exhibited by Joseph Kilgour, Toronto; Diana, b. m., 15.3, 5 years, exhibited by Joseph Kilgour, Toronto; Harkwyn, br. g., 15.0½, 4 years, exhibited by Joseph Kilgour, Toronto.

The western winners were: Gordon Henderson, Hamilton, first and second; Hon. Adam Beck, London, first; J. Kilgour, Toronto, first; G. Wilson, Paris, first; William Hendrie, Hamilton, first and second. the placed horses in the King's Plate, to be run a week from FOOTBALL. SOLDIERS DEFEATED. The Collegiate students and the Barracks boys played the third match of their series on Wednesday afternoon. The soldiers were outclassed, and the schoolboys played rings around them. All on the Collegiate team played well, while Wallace, Beales and Gilbert were prominent among the soldiers. J. W. Couse refereed. The final score was 4

THE RING. KICKED THE REFEREE, Sacramento, May 10.—The fight between Fred Snailham and Dick Hyland ended in a row in which Referee Jack Dennelly was kicked in the stomach by one of Hyland's seconds, knocking the wind out of him and rendering him insensible for a moment. Donnelly gave the decision in favor of Snailham at the close of 20 neatly-fought rounds. There was a general mix-up, and for a moment it looked as if a serious row might ensue, but the police were quickquelled the disturbance. HANLON-CORBETT BOUT. San Francisco, Cal., May 10.-Aleck Ganzel, first baseman and principal owner of the Grand Rapids Central League Club, has decided to give up Greggains, of the San Francisco Athletic Club, has secured the June fight permit and will be able to pull match between Eddie Hanlon can League Club, and report in New York early next week. When his club into training today, as the date fixed closes the series of games with Wheel- for the fight is June 2.

ecrappers, and by the vigorous use

ing, which opened today, he says that OFFER TO FITZ AND HART. he will leave it to join Griffith, who Philadelphia, Pa., May 10. - Marvin Hart, the heavyweight pugilist, left for his home in Louisville today. Before leaving he made the declaration No games were played in the Ameri-can League yesterday on account of Fitzsimmons on July 4 in the west. A sign-painter doesn't think much of a portrait painter's ability as an artist.

If his children listen eagerly for his footsteps, he cannot be such a bad fellow.

HARD AND SOFT CORNS cannot with stand Holloway's Corn Cure; it is effectival every time. Get a bottle at once low.

Bargains. Women's Shirtwaist Suits.

Women's Black, Brown and Navy Blue Shirtwaist Suits, made of Mohair Luster and Russell Cord, pleated skirts, trimmed waists. Values up to $7.50. Clearance price......$4.85

Women's Spring Coats.

Black and Fawn English Cloth Coats. tight back, semi-box, fly front, leg-'omutton sleeves. Were $8.50 and $9 00. Saturday $5.00

India Lawn, 8½c Yard.

As it was very wet Wednesday, very many customers did not get here to participate in the Lawn bargain. Twenty pieces were on sale, and not more than twelve pieces were sold. To the eight pieces over we will add seven more, and offer fifteen full pieces of fine India Lawn of the best 15c quality at 8½c vard. This will be for tomorrow

$1.25 Parasols at 69c.

5 dozen Ladies' Black Parasols, guaranteed fast black silk and wool coverings. These are slightly damaged—a pin hole or two-steel rod, polished bone handles. Worth $1.25, Saturday......69c

All-Over Laces.

A very few remnants of All-Over Laces and Embroideries. To clear tomorrow, Carpets, Made and Laid, 49c.

HICHAPMAN ENESO.

Saturday

Fine English Tapestry Carpets, in choice designs; colors are in fawn, oak, green and red, comprising short and full rolls of 55c and 60c goods at, made and

Men's Night Shirts.

10 dozen Men's Flannelette Night Shirts, made with pockets, pearl button, assort-

Men's and Boys' Caps.

15 dozen Men's and Boys' Tweed Golf Caps, sizes from 61/2 to 71/4. Ranging in price from 25c to 35c each. Saturday 15c Men's Cashmere and Merino Half Hose, fine quality and seamless. 2 pairs for 25c

New Fancy Hose.

For Women and Misses. The Latest Imported Novelties.

Women's Tan Lace Hose, fast color, at...25c Embroidered Cashmere Hose, embroidered in silk, at50c Plain Black Cotton Hose, seamless, two

Black Cotton Hose, with natural wool and balbriggan feet, at.....25c

Baby Ribbon Snap.

Satin Baby Ribbon, nile, pink, yellow, red, mauve, cream, white, black. Regular 35c bolt, at.....

J. H. CHAPMAN & CO 126, 128, 1282 Dundas Street, TERMS CASH. PHONE 791.

LONDON JOCKEYS AT THE WOODBINE

Five of Them Secure Licenses ‡ and May Appear in Some of the Races.

At a meeting of the board of the Ontario Jockey Club, the following officials were appointed for the coming meeting: Judge, Alfred S. Post; assistant judge, Francis Nelson; steward, H. O. Tallmadge; starter, W. M. Murray; clerk of scales and patrol judge, Frederick W. Gergardy; timers, R. W. Davies, Fred Deane.

Licenses to train and ride at Woodbine Park were granted as follows:: Trainers - Edwin Whyte, Robert Bunkall, Charles Phair, M. Donovan, Wm. Tyler, J. W. Barbour, G. C. Mattocks, James Meagher, Edward Whelan, A. E. Gates. C. Wise, John Dyment, John Wright, J. S. Flynn, Thos. Cowan, John Nixon, H. S. Wilson Bostonian and Blg Fish Struggled (London), W. Shields, James Johnston, James Jenkins, James Malin (London), John O'Neill, sen., Allan Bulcroft, John Graver. J. A. Sykes, John Slocum, F. J. Kittleman, T. E. Auld, John Cherry, James Clay, W. H. Mosby, B. T. Littlefield. Jockeys-C. Jamieson (London), H. Kingston, John Taylor, G. C. Mattocks, Peter Hagen, Henry H. Fricker, George Finch (London), Benny Oliver, John Crogan, P. Gallagher, James L. Walsh, Wm. Gee, John Malin (London), Shields, W. Slocum Albert Crawford, Philip Donovan, D. Armstrong, A. Bulcroft, Albert Songer, George F. Flint, C. R. Wilson, Mike Miles, Wm. ly on top of the struggling mass of Bowsen

anything big. Charley Jamieson is a

ORIENTS WILL HOLD A WHIST CONGRESS.

The Thanksgiving Whist Conince, and many, no doubt, will I come to the congress.

THE TURF. YESTERDAY'S WINNERS. At Belmont Park—Zeala, 7 to 5; Jacobite, 11 to 10; Witch Hazel, 20 to 1; Jennie McCabel, 20 to 1; Veribest, 5 to 1; Wizard, der of the day, when it was on exhibitions. tion at the office of the Point Shirley At Louisville—Miss Jordan, 13 to 10; Two Bills, 8 to 1; Lozell, 13 to 1; Beautiful Bess, even: Savond, 20 to 1; Florence

FOUGHT GIANT COD

for Thirty Minutes.

Winthrop Beach on a recent afternoon plumage of the gossipy little English a lone man and a monster codfish sparrow, the cooper hawk, the chicken fought and raced and tripped and splashed for half an hour, and it was the strangest duel ever waged on the rock-bound New England coast. Time and time again the determined the plumage of any other bird will man wrapped his muscular arms about the fish in an endeavor to secure a strangle hold, and time and time again Game Bill, which Gov. Folk signed, the cod merrily wriggled away. At times the fish became vicious and Sperry, Harry E. Simpson, W. Mur-ray, W. H. Pryce (London), H. Mc-Cann, H. S. Wilson (London), and Gus fish, but still wet and sore, he fought The London jockeys who will have until, after 30 long, wet and exciting mounts at the Woodbine are for the minutes, the man was victor and dragmost part having their first chance at anything big. Charley Jamieson is a The skill of rod and reel, of casting rider well known here, and many are and playing was missing from this con-surprised to see him back in the sal-dle. He is the "jock" who once rode Sage's Yellowjacket, but for some time ever gamer. Thrashing about in the he had not been heard from. George shallow waters of the flats, the man Finch is a boy who is being given a and the fish dodged this way and that, chance by George Hendrie after sev- leaping and struggling together, rollyears' apprenticeship in the lat- ing over and over in the water each ter's Hamilton stables. Johnny Malin, determined and vigorous and plucky. son of James Malin, the trainer, will have his first mount, and Billy Pryce street, Winthrop, saw from Great Head will likely ride the Barnes entry, Pottersburg. "Hughy" Wilson, who is from London, will send Pepper's jumpers over the rails. He is one of the best steeplechase riders in the country.

waters on the bar. The fish had been tide, and was struggling to work his way into deeper water. Mrs. Duquet called her husband and he hurried to There is an awful lot of fun in foling yourself into believing you are having it when you aren't, the beach and waded out.

There is an awful lot of fun in foling yourself into believing you are size. He was expecting to find a young having it when you aren't, porpoise or something of that class, Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's."

stand and gaze at the struggling fish fer a while. Finally seeing endless frys and bakes and stews and chowders in the fish, he carelessly took hold of the cod's tail and started inshore with him. He started, but that was all. cod curved his lithe, scintillating body, gress, which is to be held in this city will be conducted by the Orient Club. The Union Club shallow water. Again and again the usually has held the congress, man sought to hold the fish, but was but the Orient Club, with the unable, and after being knocked down Union's consent, will assume responsibility for it this year.

Preparations are being made for when he had the cod well inshore, he the greatest event ever held in on a shore and secured a piece of sack-Ontario. The officials are corresponding with many of the leading whist players of the Province, and many, no doubt will inshore and upon the sands of the beach, where the struggle was over. The cod weighed 65 pounds, being nearly twice as large as any cod ever before caught off Winthrop. Mrs. Elmer Chickering, wife of the Boston photographer, was one of the few witnesses of the strange fight. The cod der of the day, when it was on exhibi-

> Packing Company. GOOD FOR KANSAS

The Song Birds' Feathers Are Now Barred Frem Fon ets.

Kansas City, Mo., May 12 .- On and after June 16, milliners may display and Boston, May 12. - On the flats at sell and women may wear only the hawk, the great borned owl, the crow. the anatidae, and the railidae, including the mud-hen. The list is a long mean a fine and a term in jail, or both, This is all the result of the Walmsley and which Walmsley himself confesses he does not know how it got through the Senate, where they are supposed to kill such bills. The Walmsley game measure was drawn up absolutely to protect all Misscuri game and birds for a term of years, but while he was at it the vegetarian statesman from the Eighth Ward fixed the bill so as a put a damper on the killing of plumage birds in other States by prescribing feathers in bonnets.

Get acquainted with any preacher and you will find it his ambition to "reach" the men. Platonic love is supposed to have been invented by his Satanic Majesty.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. has been used for over FIFTY YEARS by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEETHING, with PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES the CHILD, SOFTENS the GUMS, ALLAYS