three straight games. Unable to get even with the Deneau aggregation on the diamond, the St. Thomas management has stooped to the low-down trick of reporting the London club to Secretary Farrell, of the National Association of Minor Leagues, and as a consequence the local management will have to answer to this organization for being one man above the limit for the short space of one week.

This morning the London club received word from Secretary Farrell asking for an explanation. President Fitzgerald also called up President that he asked James P. whether the Stevely and wanted to know why London was over the limit. And all this in spite of the fact that at the present Thomas and a couple of other clubs time there are at least three or four going beyond. President Fitzgerald's
