Turkey Denies Responsibility For Hostilities Lack of Coal Causes Capture of the German Cruisers

COSTS $189,000
TO PLACE 1,000
MEN IN FIELD

Estimates of Local Battalion
Indicate War's Enormous Expense.

THE DAILY COST IS $1,466

Pay Sheets Will Total $1,100
For Each of 60 Days of Camp.

AVERAGE EQUIPMENT $100

Rifles, Uniforms and Outfit of Each Man Represent That Amount.

That the daily cost of maintaining the camp of 1,000 men, which is to make up the Eighteenth Battalion in the second Canadian overseas contin-gent, will be in the neighborhood of $1,466, was the estimate volunteered in military circles today. This estimate is based on the supposition that the Eighteenth Battalion will be in camp in London for the next 60 days.

On this basis, therefore, the cost per man per day per man is 26 cents, and for 1,000 men $260 per day. Add to this other incidental expenses of the camp, such as coal and light, and the actual cost of living expenses will be $200 per day for the entire camp.
For the 60 days then this item will be $12,000.

$60,000 in Pay Alone.

Not including the allowance allowance the government pays each man $1.10 per day, and for 1,000 men this is $1,100 per day, and for 60 days it is $66,000.

The pay of officers is estimated in the neighborhood of $5,000 for the duration of the camp, and this item added to the pay of the men which is placed at $66,000, and the cost of living expenses of the camp which is $12,000, brings the total up to $83,000.

Expensive Equipment.

These figures, of course, do not include the cost of outfitting the men with uniforms, rifles, ammunition, shoes, clothing, etc. A soldier's outfit, such as is given each one of the men in the Eighteenth Battalion, is at the estimated cost, over $100 each. Figuring it at the round number of $100 this would bring the men's equipment up to $100,000.

This sum, added to their pay and the cost of living at the camp, brings us a figure which is a reasonable estimate of the cost of placing 1,000 men under arms and equipped to fight.

The camp of 1,000 men outfitting and for 60 days costs in the neighborhood of $120,000.

MINE EXPLOSION IS

are known to have been killed and several injured as a result of an explosion today in the Colson coal mines near

TURKISH WARSHIPS' RAID WITHOUT OFFICIAL CONSENT

Minister of Finance Tells French Ambassador It Was Probably Made Under Influence of German Officers and Crew of Ships.

[Canadian Press.]
Washington, Oct. 31.—The Turkish minister of finance informed the French ambassador at Constantinople yesterday that the raid of Turkish warships on Russian seaports took place without the knowledge of the Ottoman Government, and presumably under the influence of German officers and crew. This information was conveyed in a dispatch today from Ambassador Morgenthau to the American Government.

TRAIN WRECKING AS HALLOWE'EN PRANK

Boys Rip Up Crossing Planks and Throw Them Over Rails.

DISCOVERED IN TIME

Obstruction Removed by Citizen Who Discovered Attempt To Wreck Train.

Boys, bent on the celebration of Halloween, will do well not to emulate the act of some youths in the northeast of a city, who last night pulled planks from between the tracks at Colborne street and placed the planks on a freight track.

A citizen and his daughter fortunately discovered the planks and removed them. Just a moment after a fast express from the east came through, and while it did not run on the tracks upon which the planks had been placed, it served to impress the danger of the frivolous prank. The boys were evidently intent upon sending a train off the tracks, if possible, and quite probably would have accomplished it had not the obstruction been discovered.

While a certain latitude is allowed on this night of nights for youth, it would be well for the boys to confine themselves to fun which is not destructive. As a result of the incident at the Colborne street, the police have been notified and will be on the alert to apprehend any whose conduct goes beyond the bounds of safety.
