SYNOD OF HURON.

Members of the Standing Committee and Delegates to the Provincial Synod.

Sabbath Observance - Church Union-Canonical Amendments-Closing Scenes of the Synod. In the discussion on Canon No. 21 and mendments, Rev. John Gemley, although a member of the Sub-Committee, was opposed to the change from ten years to five. He thought alterations in the Canon should be made with caution, and was opposed to the printhe Sunday schools should train their own teachers. His Sunday school used the International series of lessons. He urged the great want of an appropriate hymn book for use of the schools.

Rev. G. C. McKenzie spoke in regard to a convention he had attended at Buffalo, where the feeling was in favor of doing away with the leaflets, etc., and return to the Bible, the Ten Commandments and first principles. If they did get the lesson, helps, etc., an effort should be made to get them uniform, not as at present indiscriminately from half a dozen different publishing houses. He spoke of the total failure of the Committee to find a new hymn book. The church hymn book was the right thing. The object was to train hildren for the church not to set up the Sunday school as different from the church. The Committee should now be relieved. Their arduous labors of the past entitled them to a rest.

Rev. F. Harding said the whole discussion was out of order, as his Lordship had ruled it out of order.

Rev. Mr. Softly asked to have that rule of order laid on the table, too, (Laughter.)

The discussion then dropped.

The rules were suspended, and Rev. Mr. Downie moved a vote of thinks to the friends whose hospitality the members had enjoyed. Carried.
