The Great Straddle-Where Money Could have Been Made in Wheat -- Messrs. Blake and Saurier Will Attend the Board of Trade Banquet.

Monday Evening, Nov. 26.
The wheat drop in Chicago to-day continued with November, December and January until the proper premium of December over May has been regulard. A few weeks ago December was setting at a premium over May, "What a straddle! To have sold December and bought May. There was 5 to 7 cents profit in it on to day's market. But dealers were afraid to sell December because it was the manipulated for Ontario, it is still too high for export and millers are waiting to buy at $1. There is very little business, but quotations outside are $1 to, $1.05. Manipuba is also dull as ditch-water.

The Medicine for Live and Kitney Complaint.—Mr. Victor Augor, Ottawa, writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending to the general public Parmeice's Pilts, as a cure for Liver and Kidney Complaint. I have doctored for the last three years with leading physicians, and have taken many medicines which were recommended to me without relief, but after taking eight of Parmeice's Pilts I was quite relieved, and now I feel as free from the disease as before I was troubled."

The ratepayers will be pleased to know that a few of the heavy reductions made by the Court of Revision will come before the Judge, and that large advances have been made over the assessment before the reductions were made, and it is very plain that they do not work for the ratepayers interest. The Train That They Leaged for Never Came. Editor World: For the last two weeks an Editor World: For the last two weeks an advertisement has appeared in the daily papers announcing that a suburban train would leave Mimico. On and after the 12th of November' at 8.25 a.m., and a new time-table issued by the Grand Trunk informs the public that the same train will pass through Parkdale at 8.40 a.m. Would it be too much to ask the Grand Trunk authorities what has become of this train? Some 20 or 30 of us are down at the Parkdale station every morning in the hope of being able to take advantage of the change in the timetable but it does not seem to have been given effect yet. There is a later train (not shown on the time-table) with generally comes in about 9 o'clock, but most of the Parkdalians who patronize this line in the mornina are business men who expect to be at their offices by 9, and would the efore prefer the earlier train if Mr. Wragge could conveniently put if on. If he is not prepared to do so, it would greatly accommodate the Parkdale passengers if he would put the later train on the time-table, and arrange for its appearance at a definite time.

Parkdale, Nov. 26.

The G. N. W. Messengers.

Editor World: The Telegram's comments on the delivery of the despatches re the O'Connor-Teemer boat race of last Saturday in this day's Teemer boat race of last Saturday in this day's issue are most unjust and uncalled for. The Great Northwestern Telegraph Company employs competent and reliable men to deliver messages. Boys are also employed to run for messages for despatch, but on special occasions such as that in question both are utilized. On Saturday, however, the boys were the despatch nessengers of the race bulletins except on two occasions when the boys had not returned. It is trajust and unfair for The Telegram to impute to the messengers of the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company the term of hoary headed old men," as they are mostly strong and robust lads and only two of them over 40 years of age. If these men were not competent and able to do the work required of them their services would soon be dispensed with by the company. A MESSENGER G.N.W. Toronto, Nov. 26.

TAILLESS DRESS COATS. Prior The Counter And Furnisher.

Despite ridicule and hostility, the curtailed dress coat has fought its way into a vacant niche in the gentlemane, wardroke, and may tritely but truly be described as filling a longfelt want. In England the new garment has been a long to the counter of the felt want. In England the new garment has beenn know for some time past as the "Cowes coat," and in this country it has taken the aristocratic title of the "Tuxedo."

Perhaps the thousands who follow in fashion's wake will become more easily reconciled to the adoption of the "Tuxedo" when it is understood that it is not intended to displace the availlow-fail as the request when it is understood that it is not intended to displace the swallow-tail as the regnant garment of full evening dress. On the contrary, its acceptation tends to make the office of the awallow-tail one of enhanced formality, by relieving that much-worn garment of a great deal of the quasi-formal every-day wear and tear to which it has been subjected of late years by the mane stringent rules of society. To the balls, cotillons receptions and weddings, where the preparations have been on a sumaptuous scale, of course, the swallow-tail is yet to be worn; with the swallow-tail the high silk hat will continue to be the proper accompanying tile, and the prevalent necktie will be of white lawn.

and the prevalent necktie will be of whi lawn.

In the ammer the Tuxedo cost may in worn at the informal both hops. A plan satin necktie is considered fines correct with this cost, and a low hat as absolutely required; a black or white low-cut vessus of tional. A high silk hat with a Tuxedo co would be the rankest kind of a selectar Neither may the short cost be worn before p. m., any more than the awallow-tail. Sue a breach should provoke social ostracism.

In those months of the year when it is to warm to wear a top cost of any description the "Cower" cost will be a blessing to the men in town, who, when the diamer hour
