Maines' Ruling In Crichlow Case

Mint League Prexy Makes Ban Johnson Version of Penalizing Look Like a Joke

President Maines, of the Mint League, writing to the sporting department of The Free Press, states that he intends keeping Player Crichlow out of the game for the remainder of the season, but that he will reinstate him if he is sold or traded to another club.

When President Heard was told about this it proved to be his first intimation, stating that he had received a bulletin from Maines which briefly conveyed the ruling in the matter early in July to the effect that Crichlow was suspended indefinitely and that a fine of $100 must be paid to the league on or before July 17.

It seems that Maines has taken it upon himself to make a rule that players who attack umpires be expelled from the league for the remainder of the season, without first securing the authority from the league directors.

The injustice to the London Club and Player Crichlow in this case is most playing now that Ben Johnson, president of the American League, ruled in the Sialer case, Sialer will get into the game with St. Louis after a week's suspension for two attacks on Umpire Hildebrand last Saturday, in which the arbitrator was knocked unconscious.

Sialer was fined $50 and a comparison between the league he plays in and the salary he draws with that of Crichlow, makes Maines' conception of penalizing a player most unreasonable.

GALT DECLINES MONDAY GAME.

BRANTFORD, July 29.—Galt has postponed the O. A. L. A. game scheduled with Brantford at Galt on Monday next, and the locals will play at home against the Mohawks' team from the Six Nations reserve.
