By the appointment of a successor to the late Archbishop Duhamel, the University of Ottawa has, ipso facto, a new Chancellor in the person of Most Rev. C. H. Gauthier, of Kingston, Ont. The Review hastens to voice the sentiments of the University by expressing to His Grace its profound joy, veneration and filial devotion. Archbishop Gauthier will come among us as no stranger, for his visits to this institution have been numerous and appreciated, and he has ever shown himself one of its truest friends.
