FORM OF BEQUEST.

"I leave and bequeath the sum of,—(the amount to be written in words, not figures)—to theFund of the Presbyterian Church in Canada,—(here state either Eastern or Western Section)—and I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being, of the saidFund, shall be a good and sufficient discharge to my Estate and Executors.

More helpful than all wisdom is one draught of a simple human pity that will not forsake us.—George Eliot.

Do not act as if you had ten thousand years to throw away. Be good for something while you live, and it is in your power.—Marcus Aurelius.

In all things throughout the world the men who look for the crooked will see the crooked, and the men who look for the straight will see the straight.—Ruskin.

Of all the ugly weeds that grow in the heart, selfishness is the most thrifty, and bears much fruit of evil. But it is a weed that will die of starvation when we learn to "love our neighbor as ourself."

No wave on the great ocean of time, when once it has floated past us, can be recalled. All we can do is to watch the new form and motion of the next, and launch upon it to try, in the manner our best judgment may suggest, our strength and skill.—Gladstone.

Contentment is happiness. A quiet mind makes one richer than a crown.—Thomas Nelson Page.

A revived interest in the Sabbath-school is greatly needed. The young are the hope of the Church and of the Nation, and their religious instruction and spiritual culture are of prime importance. We cannot afford to suffer a decline in either direction.—Presbyterian.
