Personal.

Mr. Cornell, of Moore & Co., wholesale crochery, etc., Winnipeg, went east on a business trip last week.

J. Burridge, manager at Winnipeg for E. & C. Gurney & Co., returned last week from a visit to Hamilton, Ont.

E. F. Hutchings, wholesale harness, saddler, etc. Winnipeg, returned from an extended eastern trip last week. In Eastern Canada he found a great many preparing to move to Manitoba.

Insurance Briefs.

The Urban Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Portage la Prairie, Man., held its first annual meeting recently. The report submitted showed that notwithstanding the fact that the company has only been fully organized and in a position to accept business about three months, applications for $100,000 have been received. The company is purely a local institution. The following board of directors were elected:—Judge Ryan, Hon. Joseph Martin, Mayor Garland, Alex. McLean, R. H. Pratt, M. Blake and J. J.
McRobie.

Ross & Yerex, Vancouver, have obtained the agency for the Province of British Columbia for the New York Life Insurance Co.

A PARTY of 150 Belgians leave Montreal for Manitoba this week. They are going to settle at St. Alphonse, in Lorne county, where they will form a colony.

CHARLES MILLER, Henry Reifel and Jacob Reifel, heretofore carrying on business as brewers, at Vancouver, B.C., under the style of San Francisco Brewery Company, have assigned for the benefit of their creditors.

THE first number of the Pilot Mound Sentinel came to hand last week, thus adding another to the local papers of Southern Manitoba. The Sentinel will be published weekly by Murdock & Murdock, late publishers of the Birtle Obser- ver. Messrs. Murdock have moved their printing plant from Birtle to Pilot Mound, and hence the Observer is now no more, the Sentinel taking its place. The Observer was one of the best local papers in Manitoba, and it may be expected that the publishers will not lose any of their ability and enterprise by their move to a new field.
