

COLONIAL CHURCH AND SCHOOL SOCIETY.—In a letter recently received from the above named Society, the following occurs:—

"I am directed to convey to the Committee and the various friends, at Halifax, who so promptly and liberally responded to the appeal for aid, the thanks of the committee, for their sensible and substantial sympathy, and I was instructed to request that you will express in the warmest manner their gratitude to each, and particularly to the family of the late Honble. Mr. Cogswell."

It is perhaps necessary to state that the above refers to a sum of money subscribed over and above the usual subscription to the Society in Halifax, as a special fund, to help it through a financial difficulty, caused by the present war affecting its usual income.

The names of the donors, and the sums respectively given by them, is as follows:—

Our obituary this week, notices the death of an excellent woman, Mrs. Henderson, of Digby.—Mrs. H. was of a very charitable disposition, and her departure will be severely felt in Digby, by the poor of that place, and by the many with whom she lived in companionship and friendly affection.—Among these latter is Miss Totten, whose praise is in the Churches, with whom she had resided for thirty-four years, and whose grief at the separation there is only one who can assuage. Mrs. Henderson, it will be remembered, during the last summer, gave through the Rector of Digby, Twenty-five Pounds to King's College endowment; and at her death she bequeathed Ten Pounds to the Sunday School at Digby, and another Ten Pounds to the Diocesan Church Society. She is gone to her rest, and her works do follow her.

The Rev. Mr. Ruddle takes this method of thankfully acknowledging additional contributions for the repair of the Church at Sherbrooke, viz. —

Holloway's Pills, an undoubted Remedy for Asthma, Mr. Ellis Wilson, of Fredericton, N. B. had for five years very severe attacks of asthma, which deprived him of bodily rest night and day; the cough at times almost choked him, and caused him continually to spit blood, he was never safe either eating or drinking, and his family were distressed beyond measure to see him gradually reduced to almost a skeleton. Holloway's Pills, in his case, were as usual efficacious. This gentleman used them for eleven weeks, and they effected a perfect cure. He feels himself stronger now than he has been for the last fifteen years.

LETTERS RECEIVED.

Rev. J. M. Campbell—regret the mistake in addressing the bundle, and hope the Yarmouth Post Office and Mr. Bridgetown one, have rectified the error. We have taken measures to rectify the transmission of the N. N. but the numbers will in future be sent from hence, and hope to attend to these matters so as to leave no cause of complaint. Rev. R. Avery—directions attended to. Rev. C. Elliott—when it suits your convenience. T. Deakins & Co.—make a positive sale, and close the consignment. Rev. H. L. Owen—directions attended to. Rev. Mr. Payne—directions attended to.
