"THE LAW AND THE DOCTOR."

Amid the multiplicity of his daily duties, the physician has but scant time to cultivate more than a passing acquaintance with the collateral branches of his profession: the average practitioner, therefore, knows but little of the legal aspect of his relations to the body politic, or his rights and privileges, or his liabilities and responsibilities to his patients and the community at large. While pursuing the "even tenor" of his professional way, the doctor may suddenly be confronted with a summons and complaint in an action for malpractice, or may be called as an expert witness in a similar suit against a colleague. While it is not our intention to urge the physician to become his own lawyer, we believe that he should acquaint himself with the fundamental principles of medical jurisprudence, so that he may be reasonably well prepared to defend his own or his brother physician's rights and privileges on the witness stand. With a view of placing such information at the immediate disposal of the doctor, The Arlington Chemical Co. has arranged to issue under the title "The Law and the Doctor," two 48-page booklets which shall present in condensed form and succinct style, an epitome of the essentially important features of (1)" The Civil Liability of the Physician for Malpractice" and (2) "The Physician as a Witness." These exceedingly practical monographs have been expressly prepared by an eminent member of the New York Bar, who is well recognized by the legal profession as an expert in this special branch of practice. The first of these reference text manuals is now ready for distribution, and after a reasonable interval will be followed by a second monograph.

"HOME NURSING."

We have recently received a book entitled "Home Nursing," published by Davis & Lawrence Cc., Ltd., Montreal This publication contains practical instructions for the performance of all offices pertaining to the sick. It tells what to do in case of accidents, treats with nearly all the diseases to which human flesh is heir, as well as containing many recipes for preparing solid and liquid food for the sick. No home should be without a copy of it. It is a very attractive book of about 50 pages, and can be obtained on application to the publishers, Davis & Lawrence Co., Ltd., Monireal, enclosing to them 5c. in stamps to cover the expense of mailing, etc.
