BIRTHS.

At Coteau, Landing, C. E., on Saturday the 2nd inst., the wife of the Rev. J. Mountain, of a daugther.

On the 31st ult., at Manvers, by the Rev. William Logan, Mr. Henry Tims, to Miss Mary Crawford. DIED.

In Hamilton, of Hooping-cough, on the 31st ult., Eliza Maria, infant daughter of the Rev. J. G. Geddes. aged three months.

At her residence, in the township of Thorold, County of Welland, on the 3rd inst., Mary, wife of Mr. Henry C. Ball, aged 55 years. In Mrs. Ball, her family have lost a faithful wife, a tender and affectionate mother; whilst a large circle of friends and neighbours mourn for the loss of one who was always ready for every good work. The tears of the poor are the best testimony to her worth. Her funeral was attended by a highly respectable assemblage of friends, who had known and valued her; and a very excellent and appropriate sermon was delivered on the occasion by the Rev. Wm. Leeming. Rector of Chippawa, who adverted in an admirable manner to the encouragement and support he had ever received from Mrs. Ball. and other friends, long since mouldering in their graves, when, thirty years ago, he first commenced the formation of what is now the parish of Thoroldto her regular attendance and devout behaviour in the House of God-and to the care and attention she bestowed upon her large family of children, and her anxiety to "bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." No one took greater interest than Mrs. Bull in the erection of St Peter's Church, Thorold. Her husband and herself gave the site for it, and when funds came in slowly for its erection, Mr. Ball joined two other zealous members of the congregation, in being bound in equal proportions to pay the contractor the whole of the balance that might be due to him. She always pronounced this little church, seen from her door beautifully nestled in its quiet romantic situation, the most pleasing sight she could behold this side the grave. Of a delicate constitution, and possessed of excellent abilities, she was always fond of reading , and whilst this rendered her an interesting companion during comparative health, it proved eminently serviceable to her during her last illness; for she was then precluded by the nature of her disease from receiving the visits of her spiritual pastor, and availing herself of those services which she so highly prized; and had, therefore, to depend upon that ample store of scriptural knowledge which she had laid up, whilst able to acquire it, and which placed ever before her the Lord Jesus Christ, the only ground of her confidence toward God .- Com.
