(Special Correspondence of The Globe.) Lord Lansdowne, as the cable has informed Lord Language, as the cases has informed to unhappily engaged in a serious conflict with he Queen's County tenants. The struggle with he week assumed a most acute form, and a serious country that week assumed a most acute form, and a serious country to the week assumed a most acute form, and a serious country to the cases. heres of evictions have becup, which are at-series of au amount of attention here, less incling an amount of attention here, less say than that which was best wed upon the say than that which was best wed upon the say than the same at Glenbeigh, or upon the sand in property. The Times is giving the matter special prominence. But all who know the strong Unionit and landlord bias which influences its discussion of all Ireal topics. thow the attonic chicago and annalogo bias which influence a its discussion of all Irish topics and its treatment of all Irish needs, naturally and the weather with well-grounded suspicion have thought it right, therefore, to obtain for

M.P., the sincerity whose labors on behalf of the Irish people his wheel labors on definity of the tish people his hin-rest optonent never questions, and whose light to speak on the subject is equally ac-knowledged, kindly complied at once with my request for information.

"This," said Mr. Dillon, as he began an inresing conversation on that topic, "is a very bid case. Lord Lans Jowne offered a 20 per cent. reduction upon the judicial rents to his ent. remarks of his Kerry property. Now Kerry, a von know, is disturbed. In Queen's County, I shall presently show, there is no disorder that yet. The Queen's County tenants asked enatever. The Queen's County tenants asked for the same terms as the Kerry tenants."

In a memorial addressed to His Lordship's agent (Mr. Townsend Trench) it was pointed out, I may mention, that last year was the harlest yet experienced by the farmers, that no allowance for a fall in prices had been made when the jud cial rents were fixed, and that it was not a question of unwillingness to pay but mability in some cases, and that in all cases, sun if a I beral reduction should be made. there would be a sense of being severely pinched this winter.

"The agent," continued Mr. Dillon, "flatly refused to give them any reduction whatever. A imther appeal was made, but with the same nealt. The tenants then adopt d the plan of campaign, and in accordance with this resolation lodged their rents, minus the abatement, in the hands of the trustees. The agent thereupon offe ed a 20 per cent, reduction to fth large tenants who were original terrain of the defendant control of the object in cholders under judicial tents. The object in making this offer being, if possible, to induce them to do ert the poorer tenants and so break to the combination. Among these larger thanks was Nr. Kibride. The offer was refirst int ejectment derees were obtained. Eset was given to these degrees this week, and protein tovicted was Mr. Kilbride. Now, le Kilbri ic refused to pay for two reasons :-Fist of a 1 because his rent is a uninously high set, and second y because he would not desert depoter to ands."

"BER LORD LANSDOWNE'S RENTS EXCESSIVE?" Et. D1 en entertains no doubt whatever on the point. "Mr. Kilbride's rent is £760, and 6mints vi uat on is only £464, and throughout Leister the rents which have been recently helliage been refued considerably below the taluation. Thus a summary of rents fixed brile e maission in the province during the less four months shows the following results:—

lasked Mr. Dillon whom did he blame for these proceedings, Lord Landowne times of or his agent? His reply was:—"We are in the dark on this point. Mr. Trench, the agent, arread about rumors a fortnight rgo that fif-teen per cent. reduction would be given. We were rounselled about this and did not discour-age the proposal as a compromise. We advised the tenants to close at 17. per cent. abatement on the judicial rent. But Mr. Trench came to tonder, and, as we are informed, he had an interview with the Irish Secretary, Mr. Ralfour, and after his return no question of a compromise would be entertained, and the evictions were begun immediately. The agent is the son of the author of the "Realities of Irish Li'e." Bo h he and his father have been famous ex-terminators, and in the case of the Queen's County property an immense number of families were swept off in the famine years."

BOCIAL ORDER IN MERRY.

"In Kerry, as I have said," continued Mr. Dilon, "there have been disturbances. In Quen's County there is none. The assizes came off this day, and the County Inspector reported to the judge that the county was, the most peace-able county in Ireland. The Grand Jury called him up before the meandreproached in a tracking machine to a county lay. him for making such a report. And yet, there spen the Grand Jury pa set a resolution recording their conviction f the necessity of neares to suppress social disorder, and walter apon the Government to discharge this denote.

such were the chief points touched upon by Mr. Indon. I may further mention that the eviction of Mr. Kilbride has been followed by that of Mr. J. W. Dunne, the largest tenant on the property, who reads over 1,200 acres and has paid over £1,300 a year rent. To-day and next week the same treatment will be extended to other and smaller tenants. I may also say that I have had the opportunity very large sums sunk in their holdings, would not voluntarily make such enormous sacrifies as Smyth said that as this was the first time that not voluntarily make such enormous merines as their eviction involves, were they not convinced of the justice of their case and of the urgent necessity of standing by the poorer tenants. IRELAND'S VOW BY DENIS FLORENCE M'CARTHY.

Come, liberty, comet we are ripe for thy coming-Come freshen the heart where thy rival has trod-Come, richest and purest—come purest and fairest— Come, daughter of science—come, gift of the God!

Long, long have we sighed for thee, coyest of maidens-Long, long have we worshipped thee, queen of the brave!

Steadily sought for thee, readily fought for thee, Purpled the scaffold and glutted the grave

On went the fight through the cycle of ages, Never our battle cry deasing the while. Forward, ye valiant ones! onward, battalioned ones! Strike for your Briz, your own darling tele!

Fill in the ranks are we struggling with eagerness, Still in the battle for freedom are we! Words may avail in it-sword if ther fail in it-What matters the weapon if only we're free?

Oh! we are pledged in the face of the universe. Never to falter and never to swerve; Toil for it, bleed for it, if there be need for it. Stretch every sinew and strain every nerve.

Fraitors and cowards our name shall be ever. If for a moment we turn from the chase; For ages exhibited, scoffed at and gibbeted. As emblems of all that was servile and base.

Irishmen: Trishmen! think what is liberty. Fountain of all that is valued and dear; Peace and security, knowledge and purity, Hope for hereafter and happiness here.

Nourish it, treasure it deep in your inner heart-Think of it ever by night and by day; Pray for it! sigh for it! work for it! die for it! What is this life and dear freedom away?

List! scarce a sound can be heard in our thorough fares— Look! scarce a ship can be seen on our streams; Heart-crushed and desolate, spell-bound, irresolute, Ireland but lives in the bygone of dreams!

Nerving our souls for the fortunate hours, Life's choicest blessings, love's fondest careasings, l'esco, home and happiness—all shall be ours !

THE UNITED STATES DISCUSS THE QUESTION OF RETALIATION.

A Canadian Cruiser Fires the First Shot on an American tishing V-ssel Found Within the Three Mile Limit.

Washington, April 7.- The Cabinet meet no to-day remained in session over three hours. The maeting was devot d almost entirely to consideration of international questions, the most importent relating to the Canadian fisheries, the policy of Great Britain in regard to the island of Hayti and the seal fisheries of Alaska. In regard to the fisheries question it is understood that information has been received to the effect that England surtains the position taken by the Canadian authorities and is in no wise disposed to make the concessions requested by this Government. This question was con idered by the Cabinet with a view to the advisability of suitable action by the Pre-sident under the provisions of the retaliatory act.

In deciding twenty cases. At the same sitting they made a reduction varying from 30 to 50 per cent. In rents upon the estate of Capt. Corbie, the largest landowner in the county. ING THE LAWS OF THE CATHOLIC CRURCH. JERSEY CITY, April 5 .- Some time ago Miss Toner, a prominent young lady of St. Paul's Church here, was morried by a Protestant minister to James Protestant, a Protestant. The couple lived happily together, but Mrs. Pritchard's con-cience beg at to trouble her, and she decided to ask the advice of her old and she decided to ask the advice of her old paster, Father Smyth. He explained to her that in the eves of the Church she had com-mitted a grave fault, and that, according to a law framed at the late council of Politimore, she would be obliged to make a public reparation before the congregation. This seemed a rather hundliaring penance to Mrs. Pritcherd, but she said she was so troubled in mind that she would make the apology. The law of the council declares that the person off-inding against it shall make a verbal apology, but leaves it discretionary with pastors to modify the law according to the necessities of individual of discussing the question with several other the law according to the necessities of individual cases.
