THE GREAT GAZETTEER LIPPINCOTT'S

Pronouncing Gazetteer of the World. GEOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY CONTAINING a greater amount of mat-I ter than any other single volume in the English Languago.

Edited by J. THOMAS M.D., & T. BALDWIN, Assisted by several other gentlemen.

The above work (upon which over five years of continued labor and receased, with a large outlay of money, has been expended) has not been published merely to supply the deficiencies of existing Gazetteers, but to furnish a Geometrical Birtonary which should be as continued the content of the conte cies of existing Gratetteers, but to furnish a vector graphical Dictionary which should be as comprehensive in its design, as perfect in its arrangement, and as complete and accurate in its execution as the best dictionary of the English

Among the many claims to superiority which this work has over all others of the kind are the following:

1st It is a PRONOUNCING GAZETTEER. a tenture as essential to the completeness of a Geographical Dictionary, as to a Dictionary of the English Language.

2nd It contains above 20,000 more Geographical names than any other Guzetteer of the World. And the notices of all important places will also be found far more full and satisfactory than in any other similar work.

3rd In regard to Accuracy and Recentucas of Information it will be found inco operably superior to every other.

The "PRONOUNCING GAZETEER, or GEOGRAPHICAL DIOTIONARY," contains shove

2100 pages.
Price-In strong leather binding, $6; buifbound Morocco, $74.

The Theology which we wish to impart is aptby and honestly expressed in the first motion which we placed at the head of our publication, "Quad semper, quad ulique, quad ab annibus, creditum est, teneamus, "Let us hold fast that, which always, which every where, which by all has been believed," for that only is the faith of the Catholic Church. While the temper and spirit in which we desire to convey these cruths, is with equal simplicity and correctness indicated by our second morto, In necessariis Unitas, in dubiis liberatas, in munibus caritas "In mecessary things unity, in doubtful things liberty, in all things charity."

A large proportion of each number will be filled with original matter the form of thost tracts, dialogues, and tales; w'ich, with an ecdotes scraps of information and other selections, all strictly tending to illustrate somple language, as to render our little publica-tion a welcome visitor in the farm house and the cottage, and a source of pleasure, as well as profit to both young and old. For the young especi-ally, some portinof our space will always be set apart; and we centure to suggest to clergy men apart; and we centure to suggest to clergy men and superintendents of Sunday Schools, the ad-vantage of encouraging their elderly scholars to avail the uselves of the reduced terms offered to those who subscribe for a number of copies. They vill thus be furnishing the young person committed to their charge with a supply of reading, at once sound in its teaching and attractive in character, and at the same time be lightening their own labor.

We beg particluarly to call attention to our terms of publication, from which it will be seen that eight copies will be forwarded to one address for fifteen shillings, currency, a year, and fifteen copies for £1 five shillings. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT E GRAND EXTERNAL REMEDY. By the aid of a microscope, we see: millions I little openings on the sarface of our bodies. Through these this Ointment, when rubbed on the skin, is carried to any organ or inward part.
Disenses of the Kidneys, disorders of the Liver, affections of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Asthmas, Coughs and Colds, are by its means effectually cared. Every housewife knows that salt passes freely through bone or ment of any thickness. This healing Ointment far more readily penetrates through any bone or fleshy part of the living body, curing the most dangerous inward complaints, that cannot be reached by other means.

ERYSIP-LAS, RHEUMATISM AND SCORBUTIO HUMOURS. No remedy has ever done so much for the No renedy has ever done so much for the cure of disease of the Skin, what ver form they may assume, as the Ointment: Scurry; Sore Heads, Scrofula, or Erysipelas, cannot long withstand its influence. The inventor, has travelled over many parts of the globe, visiting the principal hospitals, dispensing this Ointment, giving advice as to its application, and has thus been the means of restoring countless numbers to
