

2. Privileges and immunities are granted to experts in the interests of the Agency and not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves. The President of the Agency shall have the right and the duty to waive the immunity of any expert in any case where, in his opinion, the immunity would impede the course of justice and it can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the Agency.

ARTICLE VI

Abuse of Privileges

1. If the Government of Canada considers that an abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement has occurred, consultation shall take place between the Government and the Agency in order to determine whether such an abuse has occurred, and, if so, to endeavour to prevent its repetition.

2. The Government of Canada may not require representatives of the Members, or officials and experts, to leave Canada on account of an activity carried out by them in their official capacity. However, in the case of the abuse of privileges of residence by these persons resulting from activities outside their official functions, the Government of Canada may require any such person to leave provided that:

- (a) the representatives of Members and the Senior Officials designated in Article IV, section 3 shall be required to leave Canada in accordance with the diplomatic procedure applicable to diplomatic envoys accredited to Canada;
- (b) the other officials shall be required to leave Canada after the Agency has been informed by the Secretary of State for External Affairs.

ARTICLE VII

Settlement of Disputes

1. The Agency shall make provision for an appropriate mode of settlement of:

- (a) disputes arising out of contracts or other disputes of a private character to which the Agency is a party;
- (b) disputes involving any official of the Agency if his immunity has not been waived in accordance with the provisions of Article IV, Section 7.

2. Any dispute between the Agency and the Government of Canada concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement or any supplementary agreement which is not settled by negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement, shall be referred to a tribunal of three arbitrators for final decision. One arbitrator shall be designated by the President of the Agency, and another by the Secretary of State for External Affairs of Canada. The two arbitrators shall appoint a third arbitrator.
