

- The main public features of Canada House include a cinema; a multi-purpose room and an auditorium, each with a 60-seat capacity; an art gallery and an exhibition room; the Canada House Library and a reading room; an audio room, which will showcase Canadian recording artists at three CD listening posts; and the Bell Canada Information Exchange, a state-of-the-art electronic resource centre offering public access to the Internet, e-mail services, information kiosks and a CD-ROM library.