POST OFFICE SERVICE IN VICTORIA, B.C.

Inq. (Mr. McInnes, B.C.), as to whether government is going to do away with provisional allowance of ten dollars per month to the post office clerks and letter carriers in Victoria, etc. : unsatisfactory condition of affairs existing, $10 allowance withheld for five months, men go on strike, discharged, intercession of His Ex. and men reinstated, recommends a fixed salary, 146-7. Reply (Sir Mackenzie Bowell) not the intention of the government to do away with provisional allowance, when that decision is come to a scale of salary commensurate with positions will be adopted, 147.

M. (Mr. McInnes, B.C.) for copies of all correspondence and telegrams that have passed between the Postmaster General, etc., and the British Columbia Board of Trade, etc., relative to the "provisional allowance" and the withholding of the same from the post office clerks and letter carriers of Victoria, B.C., 272 ; remarks (Mr. Mc.
