Since Spinning Wheel Days

Ireland has been famous for the quality and beauty of its Linens.

At the Exhibition, in the Manufacturers' Building, stands a White Case containing an old-fashioned Spinning Wheel surrounded by a beautiful display of the Famous "Shamrock" Brand Linens. This display belongs to us, and will be on sale here after the Exhibition. Meanwhile, the overflow balance of this display, for which we could find no room at the Exhibition, is being shown here, together with a vast collection of these and similar goods, which we constantly carry in stock.

THOUSANDS ENJOY GRANDSTAND SHOW

Fireworks Were More Spectacular Than Have Been Seen in Recent Years.

PADDOCK CROWDED

Throngs Enjoy Display of Aerial Wonders—Directors' Forethought Appreciated.

The grand stand came into its own last evening. Not a seat was left unoccupied in the whole structure, and enthusiasm greeted every act on the boards in front. The paddock in front also was filled with a shifting mass of spectators, crowding close to the rails. So keen did the interest wax in some moments of the motor polo play that persons were perforce restrained from clambering on the rails. The atmosphere was splendidly adapted for the entertainment, a moderation having set in during the day.

The fire display on the second night was more brilliant and skillfully carried out, and this part of the program will hereafter be more complete. One commendable feature in regard to this part of the day is the evident intention of the directors to have everything finished up at an early hour. By 9.55 the last fireworks were exploding and the exodus had begun. Again the grand stand crowd was delighted with the splendor and historic accuracy of the scene in Imperial Rome which Hand and Company have provided for Toronto's big show this year. It is hard for the average spectator to conceive what a mass of trainwork is woven into the preparation of a panorama which aims to reproduce the civilization of another age. Every detail, and they are numbered by the thousands, are worked out by the skilled corps who work under the guidance of John Henderson in London.

The height of the display when the city is given to the flames, centres about the entrance of Nero, which is rendered even more spectacular by contrast with the more or less quiet street scene which precedes the emperor's arrival. The hub of expectation and the thrill which runs thru the stand at the consummation of this scene demonstrated better than words that the spirit of reverence and admiration for past greatness has not utterly died away.

MONKEY HELPS A FAMILY.

Trained to Throw Fuel From a Coal Car on Siding.

BOISE, Idaho.—One clever family in the city discovered a way of reducing the high cost of living but were caught at it after a few months' operation. This family, Italians, lived near the railroad track where the coal trains always stopped for a short time en route to the coal yards. The family owned a pet monkey who was trained to run up on the cars while the train waited and throw coal on the ground. Later the family would go out with sacks and pick up the fuel. This was done for some time during the early spring months when the weather was warm and the monkey was not so fat. The monkey had been so well trained that it refused to take cognizance of the officer's reprimand, and he was killed.

THE TORONTO WORLD

The Right Hon. R. L. Borden, Mrs. Borden and Mr. and Mrs. George Perley spent the afternoon at the Exhibition taking tea in the committee room of the Women's Building on the balcony, where there was a very delightful breeze. The party afterwards went to the Administration Building for supper, going on to the grand stand, where they occupied the president's box. Altho Mr. and Mrs. Borden and Mr. and Mrs. Perley had several invitations to luncheon, they took it quietly in the suite at the King Edward. They left last night in their private car for Ottawa.

Locheil and the Lady Hermione Cameron are occupying the red suite at the Queen's Hotel.

Mrs. R. L. Borden has graciously consented to patronize the Fashion and Horse Show, opening in the Arena on Sept. 20.

Much regret is expressed at the untimely death of Mr. Edmund Morris, the clever artist, who has left a lasting memorial to the people of the province in the portraits of Indians made by him for the Ontario Government. His genial welcome to his friends at the Exhibition will be terribly missed this season.

Mrs. Sam Hughes and Miss Allen Hughes, who accompanied the minister of militia to England in the Royal George, will travel for some time, and will probably remain in France for the winter.

Lord and Lady Hindlip have arrived in Montreal from England.

Major-General Cotton is visiting his son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Cotton, in Vancouver.

Dr. Erich Pistor, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Vienna, and delegate to the Exhibition, left last night en route to California and is expected to return to Austria. The Austrian exhibit in the Process Building is well worth a visit and is most beautifully arranged. It is the first time there has been an Austrian exhibit in Toronto.

Mrs. Norrey Worthington is entertaining at bridge at the Niagara Golf Club today.

Mrs. Bayard and her children have returned from the Queen's Royal, Niagara.

Mrs. James Cantile gave a bridge party at the Hunt Club, in Winnipeg, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Cowan.

Miss Blanche Miles is visiting Mrs. Coutlee in Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hedley are in town from Vancouver for the marriage of Miss William Baldwin in September.

Col. Burland has arrived in Ottawa from Metis. Today he will entertain 200 of the D. R. A. military men at luncheon on the 27th.

Mrs. George and Mrs. Paddy Baskerville have returned to Ottawa from a tour of duty, where they spent the summer.

The Hon. Justice and Mrs. Teetzel have returned to Port Arthur from the Island. Harry Beck left for the west by the same train.

BROTHERHOOD PREDOMINATES ON SOCIETY DAY AT THE FAIR

Tributes Paid to Memories of Men Who Made the Exhibition Possible—York Pioneers Promised New Building.

The spirit of brotherhood predominated at the Exhibition yesterday. To the several thousand members of friendly societies went the honor of designating the occasion as "Society Day," but to the many other thousands who swelled the attendance delivered a throng of proportions were delivered all the privileges which the day could bring forth. There was one counter-slogan, "Good Luck" for all, and the companionship of the mutual enjoyment and edification gleamed in all eyes.

Warm days are a standing order with the directors. They cannot come too frequently, for they draw the people like a magnet. The brilliant sunshine of yesterday, too, set the boothkeepers in wonderful good-humor. Every drink and every edible on the grounds is especially calculated to satisfy the cravings of a heated customer, and the ceaseless din of voices yesterday proclaimed that a real crowd was standing up to patronize them.

Associations embracing many and different interests and claiming kinship with all parts of the world assembled in imposing strength and toured the buildings in companies. Along the bay front gaily-adorned tents bore signs of welcome and the individual devices of the organization.

Among the societies figuring prominently at the noon luncheon of the directors were:

The Ontario Society of Architects, the British Welcome League, the Knights of Macabees, the Humane Society, the Royal Templars of Temperance, the Chosen Friends, the St. Andrew's Society, St. George's Society, the Masonic Order, the Children's Aid Society, the Ancient Order of Foresters, the Canadian Order of Oddfellows, the Ancient Order of United Workmen, the Canadian Order of Woodmen of the World, the Grand Orange Lodge, the Sons of England, the Ontario Retail Merchants' Association, the Independent Order of Foresters, the Empire Club and the York Celtic Corp.

A Happy Hour.

The luncheon hour proved a happy mixture of optimism and realism. Several of those whose heads have grown gray in the interests of the exhibition, spoke with gratitude of the progress they had seen growing under their eyes and rejoiced in the new spirit of life and prosperity. A touch of pathos was evident in the reference to those, many of whom are

FIRST LOST CHILD FOUND BY POLICE

Young Lad Picked Up by Policeman on Exhibition Grounds.

Helpless and homeless, little Harry Burch, aged about 7, 327 West Queen street, was picked up by the police just outside the Exhibition grounds yesterday afternoon, about five o'clock. This makes the first lost child case the police have had to deal with at this year's Exhibition.

Harry's playmates of Harry's had visited the Exhibition on Monday day, and on Tuesday, Harry's father, who was in the grounds, decided he would have a preliminary view of the proceedings before Children's Day, on which occasion the lad invariably visited the show in company with his parents. He didn't have the necessary nickel with which to pay his car fare, but, undaunted, he put his tiny legs to the task of walking the mile and a half to the Fair Grounds.

By dint of diligent enquiry of passers-by he reached the grounds yesterday afternoon, but he was lost to the police. Harry's father, by telephoning to No. 1 Station, learned of the whereabouts of the lad and came and took him home, about 6.30.

DIGS UP CLIP OF MEMENTOES.

Girls' Club Fulfills Agreement Made Five Years Ago.

ANDERSON, Ind.—Ten young women of this city, as members of the Kiota Club, placed in a jar Aug. 16, 1908, mementoes of the club and of the city, which was buried at the home of Miss Cora C. Cory, of a farm near the city, with the agreement that the jar should be uncovered and the contents reviewed five years hence.

All of the Kiota members except one, who died two years ago, had a reunion at the home of Miss Cory and the jar was opened.

Several little articles of value were given to the "Kiota baby," the little daughter of Mrs. Brooks Miller, the Kiota club member who died.

GZOWSKI CUPS

Forty-Third D.C.O.R. Also Captures British Challenge Shield—Compliment Paid Pte. Hawkins.

OTTAWA, Aug. 26.—(Can. Press.)—"On your behalf, I wish to extend to Private Hawkins the congratulations of the riflemen of Canada on his winning the King's prize. Not only is it a matter of great satisfaction that Private Hawkins succeeded in carrying off that coveted prize, but also it has been particularly pleasing to see what with becoming modesty he received the honor."

Col. Sherman, C.M.G., president of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association tonight, in the above manner expressed the appreciation of the riflemen at the honor secured by one of their members. The meeting went on record as praising conditions at the present time, and it was expressed that this was to be the last meeting of the old Rockcliffe ranges. Minor suggestions were made by several riflemen as to the conduct of the meet.

Ottawa Gets Gzowski Cup. The team from the 43rd D.C.O.R., Ottawa, carried off the Gzowski Cup, the great skirmishing match of the meet today, and also annexed the British Challenge Shield, which is given to the team making the highest combined scores in the Gzowski and Dundonald matches.

Rain, which threatened all day, really never got started, and conditions were ideal for the riflemen. Scores were consequently high.

Considerable interest centred in the distance judging competition in the target rise. The competitors drop to the ground and fire at them. The target disappears and the competitors continue their march towards the close range, repeating their firing. The men retreat, firing at the targets whenever they appear. The winners were:
