City Editor of the Globe Leaves After Three Years.

IS GOING TO LONDON

Will Take Charge of Morning Edition of The Advertiser.

For the purpose of paying a last tribute and bidding good-bye to A. A. Macintosh, their departing city editor, officers and members of the entire staff of The Globe, met in the local room in The Globe building yesterday afternoon. Mr. Macintosh, after three years of service on The Globe, has resigned his position to accept the editorship of The London Advertiser. As a token of the esteem in which he was held by the entire staff, the departing editor was presented with a suitably engraved gold watch by Hon. Mr. Jeffery.

With Hon. Senator Robert Jeffery presiding there were also present: J. Mackay, business manager; Dr. J. A. Macdonald, managing editor; Stewart Lyon, associate editor, and all the members of the various editorial and editorial and reporting staff.

"The Globe is losing one of its most valuable men," said Senator Jeffery, in presenting the watch. "Our hearty good will goes with him to The London Advertiser, and we hope he will always regard himself as a member of The Globe family."

A "Stron Man."

Dr. J. A. Macdonald alluded to the fact that The Globe was losing one of its strong men. The city editor, he had always felt, was possessed of all the cardinal virtues of a newspaperman. His patience, and the manner in which he had steered the course of the staff along the lines of efficiency and harmony was worthy of the highest commendation.

Stewart Lyon alluded to the departing editor as a most competent leader. Under the direction of Mr. Macintosh, he said, The London Advertiser must immediately become a real force in the newspaper world.

Mr. Macintosh, when he came to reply to the many tributes paid to his person and newspaper ability, was greeted with a tremendous cheer by the assembled staff. He left The Globe with the greatest of regret he said, and bespoke for his successor, Mr. O. Hammond, the hearty co-operation of the whole staff.

Inspection Figures.

Dr. Struthers' monthly report on the public school medical inspection showed 1136 children suffering from various ailments. Two hundred and forty-four had to be excluded from school attendance, 133 suffering from contagious diseases 39 who had been exposed to contagion, and 12 inspected cases.

Fifteen Thousand Dollar Cheque Finds Its Way to Collection Plate of Church.

HAILEYBURY, Dec. 26.—The Christmas spirit had its effect on Dr. R. E. Allen of Leon, Mexico, when at the special services held yesterday morning in the local Baptist church, he deposited a marked cheque for $15,000 on the collection plate. When the elders first saw the offering they thought it was possibly a mistake, but a note attached stated that the money was to be used for a new church and parsonage. The gift solves the question for the congregation of a new church and will be made to commence building operations in the spring.

SOCIETY
CONDUCTED BY MRS EDMUND PHILLIPS

His honor the Lieutenant-governor will hold a reception on New Year's Day from 4:30 to 5 o'clock at Government House.

Lady Gibson is giving a dance at Government House on Tuesday, Jan. 12.

Mrs. Edward Y. Eaton gave one of the most delightful dances of the season last night in Columbus Hall, where she introduced her two charming daughters, who divided honors of the belle of the ball. The large hall was exquisitely arranged with palms, ferns and flowers.

Comfortable sitting-out places being in each corner, in addition to the large upstairs rooms, which were decorated with pink or red flowers and lights to match; at midnight supper being served at innumerable small tables, arranged with bouquets of roses, pink in the large room downstairs and crimson roses upstairs.

Eaton looked lovely in her Persian gown of orchid velvet, the bodice and drapery of exquisite point de gaze, the bottom of the skirt edged in her white fox, a white oversleeve with diamonds and pearls; Miss Majorie Eaton, white satin and lace with tunic of turquoise velvet and ermine; Miss Alice Eaton wore a gown of green and white brocade velvet over white satin and lace.

Mr. J. C. Eaton, Mrs. Eaton, royal blue, its orchestra played all the latest music from a most artistically arranged platform, filled with palms, box-trees, azaleas and Christmas trees, the stairs and passages being carpeted with eastern rugs and bordered with pine trees. In fact the whole arrangement of the building was far ahead of what it has been at any other ball. A few of the 400 present were:
