

LOWEST PRICES in the city... Electric F... tures. All pur... chases put u... FREE. See th... out in thi... ad.

Monday gains for Monday and Monday, no matter what

The Finest Gas Range in the World

The New Idea

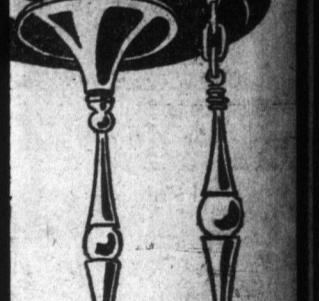

This Range

New Idea, all enamel finely rustproof. Easy to like cut. Free. Special 28.00

OF PIECES

Bed Room

parlor

39.30

of the new semi-direct lining-room; three-light for the bedrooms; nick-month made carpets or over excellent bed or living room designs carried in stock. This size, 3 ft. 3 in. by 10 ft. by Sale Price 7.00

39.50

Summed Oak DAVENPORT

rich golden or fumed oak wardrobe Box Davenport upholstered with fulling seat, and back deep tufted and covered in the best quality of brown or black rexine leather. This a high-class $38.00 Davenport. Very spe-27.00 5.00 Cash, $1.00 Weekly

First Streets

FOR RENT—Photograph Gallery, 74-76 Adelaide Street West, near Yonge, 100 months well equipped for business. Excellent light. TANNER & GATES, Realty Brokers. Finance-Cities Bldg., 25-27 Adelaide St. W. Main 5993.

PROBS—Fine and decidedly warm thunderstorms on Tuesday

The Toronto World

FOURTEEN PAGES—MONDAY MORNING JULY 6 1914—FOURTEEN PAGES

FOR RENT—Office or Mercantile Space on second floor of 101 King Street West. Good elevator service. About 1600 square feet. Very low rental to desirable tenant. TANNER & GATES, Realty Brokers. Finance-Cities Bldg., 25-27 Adelaide St. W. Main 5993.

VOL. XXXIV.—No. 12,290

ARMED ORANGEMEN MARCHED THRU THE STREETS OF BELFAST TO CHEERING OF GREAT CROWD

First Demonstration by Armed Volunteers in City Caused Great Excitement—Rifles With Bayonets Fixed Were Handed Down From Hiding Places in Haylofts.

LONDON, Sunday, July 5.—Following Sir George Richardson's order permitting volunteers to carry arms, 800 men of the 2nd Battalion, South Belfast Regiment, marched thru the main street yesterday in full uniform, carrying their rifles, with the band playing and colors flying. It was the first time armed volunteers have been seen in Belfast streets, and great crowds cheered the men.

At the same time, nearly 1000 men of the West Belfast Regiment were maneuvering on Black Mountains. Arms were stored in haylofts, rifles with bayonets fixed being handed down two at a time to the waiting troops while police officers stood by and counted the number of rifles issued.

ROYAL FUNERAL CAUSED FRICTION

Titled Friends Who Were Not Invited Not Slow to Voice Protests.

VIENNA, July 5.—The restricted number invited to the funeral service over the late Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his wife, in the imperial court chapel yesterday, also attributed solely to the limited accommodation, gave great umbrage to many titled friends of the couple, who were not invited.

As a protest against their exclusion about 120 members of the noblest families in Austria and Hungary, some of them being privy councillors and court chamberlains, and nearly all holding court offices, decided to march in the funeral procession from the Hofburg to the railroad station. This coming to the ears of Prince Montenuovo, chamberlain of the emperor and court, he hastily summoned a ministerial council to decide upon what action should be taken to prevent a demonstration, but the council, when informed that the nobles concerned would resist their office if interfered with, decided to do nothing.

MAD MAN FLEES FROM ASYLUM

One of Most Dangerous Inmates of Queen Street Institution is at Large.

Daniel Forbes, considered one of the most dangerous inmates of the West Queen street asylum, made a daring escape from that institution on the night of July 3 last by making a rope out of his bed sheets and sliding down twenty feet from his bedroom to the ground. When the day guard came on duty Saturday he found the open window and bed sheets as mute testimony of the madman's escape. He has not been seen or heard of since. The authorities are afraid he may do some harm before he is located.

ROTHSCHILD'S SARDANAPLE WINS PRESIDENT'S PRIZE

PARIS, July 5.—The Prix du President de la Republique was run today at Maisons-Laffitte and won by Baron Maurice de Rothschild's Sardanaple, which last Sunday captured the Grand Prix de Paris, the turf classic of France.

SIR JAMES HAS ANOTHER REPLY TO CRITICS

Clergymen Warranted in Taking Part in Election Nine Years Ago When Genuine Moral Issue Existed—Situation in Recent Campaign Vastly Different.

Sir James Whitney is evidently reluctant to allow his pupil critics to have the last word in the controversy. He has made the following statement to the press:

"The 'demagogic' clerics and their friends are not satisfied, it seems. Very well, this is a free country—no thanks to them—and it is to be hoped that satisfaction will come sooner or later. Today I will deal with one point in their defence, and perhaps I will take the matter up again later.

"It seems that my manners are bad—at least that is the opinion of Rev. J. A. Macdonald, who has within the last few days blossomed out as an ardent elegiarium. However, let that pass for the moment. Note the contrast, however, between this man's language and the venom which it indicates, and the tone and language of Rev. Dr. Carman, whose sincerity and honesty of purpose no one can question.

"As I have already said, there is no stone to be cast at the great majority of the clergymen of the province on account of anything they did or said—the offenders are not many in number, relatively speaking.

1905 and 1914. "It is suggested that previous to 1905 I called for the help of the clergy, and that it is inconsistent of me to object to their action now. Let us see. Ballots had been switched, burned and otherwise destroyed. Government maladministration of the liquor law had been undisguised, and general demoralization had been abroad with reference to the conduct of elections. There was no question of opinion; the facts were known and had been proved in open day.

(Continued on Page 7, Column 5.)

Missing Toronto Woman

MRS. WALTERS of 134 Claremont street who disappeared with her ten months old baby a week ago.

MEXICANS NOT EAGER TO VOTE

In Capital Apathy Seemed Prevalent—Huerta Appeared Favorite for Presidency.

MEXICO CITY, July 5.—Elections for president, vice-president, deputies and senators were held today in that portion of the republic controlled by the Huerta government. In Mexico City there was an almost complete abstention from voting, and indifference was manifested everywhere.

CUT HIS THROAT IN AN ACCIDENT

Seized With Fit While Shaving, Angus Fletcher Badly Hurt, But Will Recover.

What was reports as a case of attempted suicide, turned out to be an accident. Angus Fletcher, who is a carpenter, living at 151 Westmoreland avenue, was found Saturday lying on the floor with a razor gash in his throat. While shaving before going out with his mother, he was seized with a convulsive fit, something to which he is occasionally subject. The razor in his twitching fingers cut him as he fell. Ordinarily he is a healthy young man, being muscular and industrious, and with no reason to be expected in a wide circle of friends, are much distraught over the first report.

At the hospital Fletcher was reported out of danger.

ALL CREW JOINED IN FIGHT WITH CITY TOUGHS

When Ordered to Stop Playing Craps by Mate, Three Passengers on Dalhousie City Commenced to Give Him Beating—Two Arrested.

Because the mate on the steamer Dalhousie City broke up a crap game in which half a dozen men were engaged Saturday night, three of them assaulted him and a fight followed, in which practically the whole crew of the steamer, including the captain, were engaged, during part of which time the crowded steamer is said to have steamed unguided across the lake.

The steamer was making her late trip from St. Catharines to Toronto, and carried a number of passengers who had gone over to witness the lacrosse game between the Toronto Riverdales and St. Kittis team. On the return trip crap game was started, and upon the mate remonstrating he was promptly told to mind his own business. High words followed, and the mate finally threatened to put the men in irons, when three of them jumped on him and beat him. With half a dozen men of the crew at his back he returned to the crew and getting the reinforcements the crew were getting the worst of the battle and then the captain came down from his place and assisted. Finally two of the mate's assailants, Robert McQuiggan and Alfred Feltmate, both of Toronto, were overpowered and locked up and the rest dispersed. Both captives broke out of their cabin prison again, however, and, securing more followers, the fight commenced anew. The next time the men were overpowered they were put in stronger quarters, and a wireless message sent to Toronto for police assistance when the boat docked. At the dock Detective Guthrie and four men took the prisoners to No. 1 station, where they are charged with assault.

LONDON MAN FELL DEAD WAS DRIVING MOTOR CAR

LONDON, Ont. July 5.—Mortoring into the city from Hyde Park tonight, John Shoptand, 85, retired building contractor living at 321 Dufferin avenue, fell dead in his car of heart failure. Shoptand was driving the machine at the time and some persons were with him. The automobile swerved and crashed into a horse and buggy ahead, not one being injured, however.

ATHABASCA NOW IS SAFE IN PORT

Tow Cable Broke While on Way Down With Keewatin and More Delay Ensued.

With the crippled C. P. R. steamship Athabasca in tow, the Keewatin of the same line arrived at Port McNichol from Fort William yesterday at 7 p.m., nine hours and a half late. As a result the C. P. R. boat train, due at noon, did not arrive in Toronto till 10.15 p.m. A few hours after the Athabasca, which had broken a piston a few miles from Detour, Mich., had been taken in tow by the Keewatin, the cable connecting the two ships broke owing to the heavy cargo of grain on the disabled ship making her a "heavy tow," and several hours were lost in making fast a fresh hawser.

Neither vessel had many passengers, the Athabasca having about 125, while 90 persons was all that the Keewatin carried.

Silks for the Twelfth. Silk Hats for the 12th. I'm ported silks $5, $6 and $7. We always sell a good many silk hats around the twelfth, and we want to remind you that we are again this year catering to the popular demand. Dineen's, 149 Yonge street.

ULSTER WILL "GO ON TO FINISH" VOLUNTEERS READY FOR ACTION CARSON DEFLIANTLY DECLARES

Disorders Certain in Ireland Whether King Signs Home Rule Bill or Not, He Asserts—Ulstermen Want Neither Makeshift Government Nor Temporary Exclusion.

LONDON, Sunday, July 5.—Sir Edward Carson declared at Herne Hill yesterday his determination to "go on to a finish" in the Ulster matter. "The people did not sufficiently realize," said he, "that home rule had been passed, and could be passed into law on presentation to the King."

He presumed that the ministers, as straightforward, honest men, would tell the King the position, that if he signed the bill there would be serious commotion in the north of Ireland, and if he did not sign it there would be civil commotion in the south and west.

"Ulstermen," said Sir Edward, "have been making ready for two years, and they are now ready. They want no makeshift government, no six years' limit, no county limit. The sands are running out. I am being pressed forward and I am prepared to go forward. I go to Ulster next week and I hope still to have tokens of peace. If not, we must rely only on ourselves, and we will. I will not shrink from it."

ULSTER WILL NOT BE COERCED. Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, July 4.—Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, addressing a gathering of Unionists in South London tonight declared that Ulster would reject any proposals made by the government placing a time limit of any sort on her exclusion from home rule.

"If ever we go into the Irish Parliament," he said, "we shall go in not at the point of the bayonet, but of our own free will."

TRANSPORT SHIP TAKEN BY TURKS

Passengers on Greek Vessel Said to Have Been Drowned by Their Captors.

ATHENS, July 4.—The Athens press publish despatches from Chios, an island in the Aegean, that a Turkish destroyer on July 3, bombarded and captured a Greek sailing ship, which was transporting refugees to Chios. The same destroyer proceeded to Gouni Islet and bombarded and destroyed a monastery.

YOUNG TORONTO MAN DROWNED WHILE SWIMMING IN CANAL

George Good of Steamer Kenora Was Apparently Seized With Cramps While Bathing at Cornwall—Parents Live at 44 Taylor St.

George Good, 20, whose home was at 44 Taylor street, this city, was drowned in the Cornwall Canal. He and a companion, both seamen aboard the steamer Kenora, were enjoying a swim while they waited for their vessel to pass the locks, and were endeavoring to swim across the canal when the young man was apparently seized with cramps, threw up his hands and sank. Aid was immediately summoned and grappling for the body commenced. It was recovered and sent to the home of his mother, 44 Taylor street, this city.

Just a few days ago he had sent his mother some souvenirs of his trip, and the news of his sudden death was a great shock to her. He is survived by his father, mother, three sisters and four brothers. Interment takes place at Bradford, Ont., after a private funeral service at his home Monday.

Three Bodies Recovered

QUEBEC, July 5.—Three bodies were recovered from the sunken Empress today. One was identified as that of an Italian miner named Chari Kangas. The other two bodies could not be identified.

JOSEPH MARTIN QUILTS ENGLAND

Will Reside Permanently in Canada, But Hold Seat Till Next Election.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. LONDON, July 5.—Joe Martin announced today that he sails on the Aquitania on Saturday next to reside permanently in Canada. He will remain member for East St. Pancras, however, until the general election.

A certain amount of friction has existed for some time between Mr. Martin and his political chiefs, and a section of his supporters in his constituency over the independent attitude he adopted over certain questions, notably when he voted against the government on the Marconi revelations. Lately he offered to resign his seat and fight on his own account, but he received intimation from the chief government whip that in such case another official Liberal candidate would not be brought out against him.

WOMAN CAUGHT BOLD BURGLAR

Mrs. Carndoff, Finding Man Entering by Window, Grab Him, Held on and Screamed.

Mrs. Carndoff, 111 Pauline avenue, made a plucky catch of a burglar in her house at midnight Saturday when she caught him by the coat tail and held him until assistance arrived. Gigano, 341 Bellwoods avenue, whom she had employed about the house a month previous, is the man whom she captured while he was sneaking thru the upper hall in his stocking feet. Mrs. Carndoff heard a noise in the corridor, and when she opened her door the man was right before her. Hardly knowing what she did, she seized him and screamed, and in spite of his desperate struggles held him until the arrival of her husband.

PAPAL DECORATION CONFERRED ON THOMAS LONG OF TORONTO

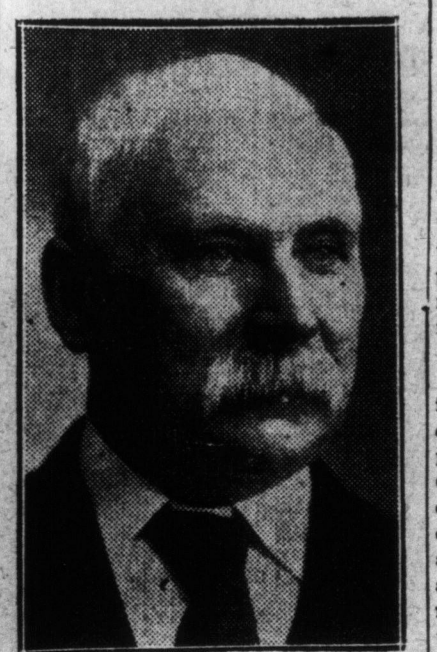

Honored by Pope

Shipbuilder is Created Knight of the Order of St. Gregory the Great, a Lay Order—Mr. Long is Prominently Identified With Shipbuilding Interests at Collingwood.

Rome, July 5.—Thomas Long of Toronto has been created a Knight of the Order of St. Gregory the Great by the Pope. This is a lay order and the recipients are honored for extreme friendship to the church.

Thomas Long, whose city residence is 513 Jarvis street, is vice-president of the Collingwood Shipbuilding Company, president of the London and Canada Loan Company and a director of the Consumers' Gas Company, Merchants' Bank, Excelsior Life Company, and other companies. He is also an active member of the executive committee of the College Heights Association.

Mr. Long is a prominent member of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Sheburne street, and takes an active interest in all works of charity.

THOMAS LONG, who has been made a Knight of the Order of St. Gregory.