

- Liverpool, Lord, see Jenkinson.
- Loecceus on contraband articles, 113-14; on confiscation of contraband, 222.
- London, Declaration of, see Declaration of London.
- London, Naval Conference of, 7, 16, 165.
- Lorimer on the international status of the neutral trader, 93.
- Louis XIV's Marine Ordinance of 1681, 110, 222.
- Lushington, Manual of Naval Prize Law, 14; on doctrine of continuous voyage, 155.
- Maccabeus, treaty of, with the Romans, 22.
- Machiavelli on neutrality, 30.
- Mailboats, visit and search of, 202.
- Manual of Naval Prize Law, 14.
- Maritime Codes, 32.
- Marquardsen on the confiscation of the non-contraband part of the cargo, 243.
- Martens, F. de, on the doctrine of continuous voyage, 157.
- Martens, G. F. de, on state neutrality, 56; on confiscation of contraband, 224.
- Martinus Navarrus, first writer on contraband of war, 13.
- Massé on conditional contraband, 127.
- Middle Ages, absence of modern idea of neutrality in, 29; belligerent interference with neutral trade during, 30; attitude of neutral traders towards belligerent prohibitions, 31; absence of law of naval warfare, 32; treaty stipulations during, 32-3.
- Molloy on articles of contraband, 113-14; on confiscation of contraband, 222; on condemnation of vessel and non-contraband part of cargo, 233.
- Naples, attitude of, towards contraband trade of subjects, 70.
- National codes of prize law, 14.
- Naval Conference of London, 7, 16, 165.
- Naval Prize Bill, 16, 17, 219.
- Naval War Code of the United States, 8, 14, 242.
- Neutral or enemy character, criteria of, 6.
- Neutral port, vessel calling at, already laden with contraband, 71; admission of prizes into, 207.
- Neutral state, responsibility of, for contraband trade of subjects, see Responsibility of neutral state; when lawful to prohibit contraband trade to its subjects, 87; must not itself assist either belligerent, 57; effect of breach of this duty, 10, 60.
- Neutral territory, sale of war supplies on, 52-4; German protest in 1914-15, 83; attitude of United States, 84; building and equipping war vessels in, for a belligerent, 63, 65-6.
- Neutral trade, effect of war on, 1, 5.
- Neutral traders, nature of international duties of, 3; international status of, 50, 89-95; direct relation of, with the belligerents, 50, 92.
- Neutrality, basic principles of, 20; absence of notion of, in Middle Ages, 29; advance in idea of, in eighteenth century, 55; imperfect, 56; proclamations of, 63, 79-80.
- Neutrals, unrestricted action of, in Middle Ages, 29; limited by treaty stipulations, 32.
- Occasional contraband, 126.
- Oppenheim on the international status of the neutral trader, 90.
- Order in Council of March 11, 1915, for restricting further the commerce of Germany, 190.
- Orders in Council adopting the Declaration of London, 17-18, 183-4.
- Ordonnance de la Marine of 1681, 110, 222.
- Ortolan on the international unlawfulness of trade in contraband, 92; on conditional contraband, 127; on the practice of breaking bulk, 210; on the practice of pre-emption, 228; on the condemnation of the non-