

E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

THE POSTMASTER OF MARKET DEIGNTON. 6s.

Mr. Oppenheim is always successful in making a mystery, and still more fortunate in the ease with which he solves it.

THE PEER AND THE WOMAN. 6s.

THE NEWCASTLE CHRONICLE.—"One of the most effective novels that we have had from Mr. Oppenheim's pen."

BERENICE. 6s.

THE YORKSHIRE OBSERVER.—"More sincere work than is to be found in this novel Mr. Oppenheim has never written. The subject shows the author in a new and unexpected light."

MR. MARX'S SECRET. 6s.

THE SCOTSMAN.—"Mr. Marx's Secret' has a wonderful power of fascination: it is strongly written, and is certain to appeal to that popular author's admirers."

JEANNE OF THE MARSHES. 6s.

BRISTOL MERCURY.—"Jeanne of the Marshes' is charming and delightful in the extreme; without a doubt it will be voted one of the best novels of the season."

THE LONG ARM. 6s.

THE WORLD.—"The Long Arm' is a clever story, which no one will lay down till every line is read."

THE GOVERNORS. 6s.

THE GLOBE.—"The Governors' is by Mr. E. P. Oppenheim—need more be said to assure the reader that it is as full of ruses, politics, and sensations as heart could desire."

THE MISSIONER. 6s.

THE HUDDERSFIELD EXAMINER.—"We have nothing but the very highest praise for this book. It is a remarkable success for Mr. Oppenheim in every way. Deeply engrossing as a novel, pure in style, and practically faultless as a literary work."

CONSPIRATORS. 6s.

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH.—"The author must be congratulated on having achieved a story which is full of liveliness."

THE SECRET. 6s.

THE STANDARD.—"We have no hesitation in saying that this is the finest and most absorbing story that Mr. Oppenheim has ever written. It glows with feeling; it is curiously fertile in character and incident, and it works its way onward to a most remarkable climax."
