

“There, get ye gone to your dinners :

Don't mind me in the least ;

Think of the happy paupers

Eating your Christmas feast ;

And when you recount their blessings

In your smug parochial way,

Say what you did for me, too,

Only last Christmas Day.”