

	Page
	O
Opitchapan succeeds Powhatan,	63
Opechancanough has a House built for him by the English,	64
—————, makes a Treaty with the Settlers in Virginia,	ibid
—————, artful Conduct towards Gov. Wyat,	75
—————, demands Satisfaction for the Death of Nematanou,	77
—————, plans and executes a general Massacre of the English,	78, 80
	P
Penn William, his Birth and Education,	381
———, his religious Impression,	ibid
———, punished at the University for Nonconformity,	382
———, travels to France,	ibid
———, Student at Lincoln's Inn,	383
———, goes to Ireland,	ibid
———, attaches himself to the Quakers,	ibid
———, arrested at a Conventicle,	384
———, his sensible Plea in his Defence and his Discharge,	ibid
———, discarded by his Father,	385
———, an itinerant Preacher,	ibid
———, publishes a Book which offends the spiritual Lords,	ibid
———, imprisoned in the Tower,	ibid
———, released,	386
———, his second Journey to Ireland,	ibid
———, preaches in the Street in London,	387
———, arrested, tried and acquitted,	ibid
———, his Father reconciled to him,	388
———, great Increase of Property on the Death of his Father,	ibid
———, imprisoned in Newgate,	389
———, travels on the Continent,	ibid
———, returns to England, marries, &c.	ibid
———, travels with Francis Barclay and Keith,	ibid
———, settles the Government of the Churches,	ibid
———, pleads for the Quakers, before Parliament,	391
———, Character of his Writings,	392
———, his Political Character and Opinions,	393
———, receives a Charter of Pennsylvania,	398
———, his Terms of Settlement,	401, 402
———, sends a Letter to the Indians,	402
———, elected Fellow of the Royal Society,	403
———, completes a Frame of Government for his Province,	ibid
———, embarks with a Number of Quakers for America,	408
———, arrives at Newcastle,	ibid