

representative of a sister grand chapter a member of the grand chapter of Canada, with such rank as the grand chapter may deem to be appropriate.

XXXIV. The grand principals, or either of them, may preside in any chapter they may visit.

XXXV. The grand Z. may summon any chapter or companion to attend him, and may order the production of the warrant, books, papers and accounts of such chapter. If the summons be not complied with, nor a sufficient reason given for non-compliance, such summons shall be repealed as a peremptory one; and if such last summons be not attended to, the offending chapter or companion may be suspended, and the proceeding notified to the grand chapter for further consideration, and punishment if deemed necessary.

XXXVI. The grand Z. shall not be applied to officially concerning royal arch companions or masonry except through the grand scribe E. or grand superintendents of districts. But this shall not refer to the grand principals H. and J., who can communicate direct.

XXXVII. The grand Z. has the sole power to grant dispensations, except for public festivals or processions, authority for which may be granted by any of the grand principals or grand superintendents of districts.
