MISS ELLA C. LEWIS.

Oh Mary go, and call the cattle home,
Across the sands of Dee.
The western gale blew wild and dark with foam,

And all alone went she.

The western tide crept up along the sand, And round and round the strand, And o'er and o'er the strand as far as eye could see; The blinding mist came down and hid the land, And never home came she.

Oh! is it weed, or fish, or floating hair?
A tress of golden hair,
A drowned maiden's hair above the nets at sea;

Was never salmon yet that shone so fair Among the stakes on Dee.

They row'd her in across the rolling foam, The cruel crawling foam, the eruel hungry foam, To her grave beside the sea. But still the boatmen bear her eall the cattle home, Across the sands of Dec.
