

His general conduct during the period of his residence in this college was exemplary: the zeal and diligence with which he pursued his studies has been fully proved by the honorable place in the class list to which he was referred by the public examiners, and I have never seen any thing in him whatever to shake my confidence in the soundness and integrity of his religious and moral principles.

I do not hesitate to say, that if he should succeed in obtaining the appointment which he is now seeking, the ability and judgment with which he will discharge the function of an instructor of youth will do full credit to my recommendation.

I have the honour to be,

Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

RICH'D HARINGTON, D.D.,

Principal of Brasenose.

From the Rev. Thomas Chaffers, M.A., Vice-Principal and Tutor of Brasenose College, Oxford.

Wormley Rectory, Waltham Cross.

Mr. John Ambery, B.A., of Brasenose College, Oxford, has requested of me a testimonial as to his qualifications for filling the office of Assistant Classical Master at -----.

Mr. Ambery was my pupil during the four years of his undergraduateship, and I always found him exemplary in his attention to college discipline, diligent in his studies, and in moral character perfectly unexceptionable. His position in the class list is to my mind a sufficient guarantee of his attainments being quite equal to the duties of the office which he is anxious to obtain; and of the conscientious integrity with which he would discharge those duties, my past experience enables me to speak in the most favourable terms.

THOMAS CHAFFERS, M.A.,

Vice-Principal and Tutor of Brasenose College, Oxford.

Friday, January 3, 1851.