

Introductory Note

At its last meeting Aug. 20, 1909, The United Baptist Institute was favored with the presence of Rev. S. Burnham, D.D., Dean of the Theological Department of Colgate University, Hamilton, N. Y. By his genial presence, attractive personality, and forceful discussions he contributed no small part to the success of the various sessions.

The Paper on "The Limits of Preaching and Teaching in the Baptist Denomination" was so well received by the Institute that by a unanimous vote the Secretary was instructed to print the paper for general distribution.
