

Special Readers.

X Victoria the Great. The Story of the Queen's Life. A Reader for Girls. Beautifully illustrated with Pictures and Portraits. Price 1s. 3d.

Girls at Home. A School Reader in Domestic Economy. Illustrated. Post 8vo. Price 1s. 6d.

The Coral Island. By R. M. BALLANTYNE. Arranged as a School Reader, and beautifully illustrated. Post 8vo. Price 1s. 6d.

First Lessons in English Government. An Easy Introduction to the Law and Custom of the Constitution. Illustrated. Price 1s. 6d.

The book is admirably suited for Evening Continuation Students, Candidate Pupil Teachers, the highest class in the Elementary School, or lower forms of the Secondary School.

NELSON'S SIXPENNY CLASSICS.

NELSON'S SIXPENNY CLASSICS are well printed in large, readable type, with frontispieces and decorative title-pages, and neatly and strongly bound in CLOTH, gold lettered on back, at the price of ordinary paper-covered reprints. They completely eclipse anything previously produced at the price. Handy for the pocket or knapsack, and perfectly presentable for the bookshelf.

A Tale of Two Cities. DICKENS.

Tom Brown's School Days. HUGHES.

The Deerslayer. COOPER.

The History of Henry Esmond, Esq. THACKERAY.

Hypatia. KINGSLEY.

The Mill on the Floss. GEORGE ELIOT.

Adam Bede. GEORGE ELIOT.

The Old Curiosity Shop. DICKENS.

X Uncle Tom's Cabin. MRS. STOWE.

The Last of the Mohicans. COOPER.

Oliver Twist. DICKENS.

Kenilworth. SCOTT.

This is the list of the first twelve volumes.

Others in active preparation.

THE CHEAPEST BOOKS IN THE WORLD.

T. Nelson and Sons, London, Edinburgh, Dublin, and New York.