MURDER CHARGE LAID AGAINST CHATHAM MAN

Thomas Griffiths Struck Orlando Arnold During Quarrel, Latter Succumbing to Injuries.

CHATHAM, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Thomas Griffiths of Chatham Township was arrested at noon today, charged with the killing of Orlando Arnold, who was remanded pending the verdict of the coroner's jury, which will enquire into the death of Arnold.

Arnold's death is the result of a quarrel between the two named men. It is claimed that Griffiths, in the heat of an altercation, struck Arnold over the head. The latter was then confined to his home for the past few days as a result of the injury, and he died early this morning. Griffith was held in custody at the Chatham police station, where a speedy trial is expected.

Griffith was tried by Magistrate Houston here some 15 years ago, but was charged of attempted murder, but was found not guilty and dismissed.

W. R. JOHNSTON PASSES

Well-known Toronto Business Man Succumbs to Pneumonia.

One of the most highly respected men in Toronto, William Robert Johnston, passed away last night at midnight.

About two years ago Mr. Johnston contracted bronchitis, which became chronic, and last Friday developed into pneumonia, from which he died. Little hope of his recovery had been given by the doctors the last two or three days.

The deceased was known as one of the most successful merchants in Canada, the business of which he was president having been conducted here at 40 years of age. Mr. Johnston was born in the little village of Inverness, Ontario, in 1841. When a young man he went to Montreal, taking employment with the firm of Henry Morgan & Co. At the age of 26 he came to Toronto, and with L. M. Livingstone established the business of Livingstone, Johnston & Co., which was continued for 18 years. After that with two of his sons, and Herbert Langille and J. W. Johnston, he formed the business of W. R. Johnston & Co., which a little later was changed to W. R. Johnston & Co., Limited.

Mr. Johnston was president of the company, but the last two or three years he took little part in its control, the business being managed by his sons, William Robert and Alfred Johnston, and under their executive it will probably remain.

Mr. Johnston was known in Toronto as a most enthusiastic horseman, he being a member of the Toronto Hunt. He was also, until late years, a very active member of the Toronto Golf Club, as well as the Toronto Club.

He was married in 1866 to Elsie Strachan, who with their six children, survive him. Mrs. R. R. Johnston has a daughter, and the sons are William R. Alfred, Strachan, Frank P. and Harry E. Johnston.

ARCHBISHOP McEAVY'S WILL

Generous Bequests to St. Augustine's Seminary and Extension Society.

Several bequests to the Seminary of St. Augustine are included in the will of the late Archbishop McEavy. These include the giving of his library and personal papers, valued at $500 to be used after the death of his mother, to whom it is first bequeathed, in founding a bursary for certain students of the seminary. The property is made with the latter bequest and it is that the students shall offer, once in every year during the octave of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, the holy sacrifice of the mass for its intention. Provision is made also, in a bequest to the Catholic Church Extension Society, for masses to be said for the repose of his soul.

DE PACHMANN, THE ARTIST.

De Pachmann, the greatest pianist, who appeared at Massey Hall on Wednesday evening, may be eccentric, but he is without doubt the greatest pianist in the world to-day. He is one of the few really great artists.

He kept his audience spellbound, and that beautiful singing tone, which he only is able to produce, will linger long in the minds of those who were fortunate enough to hear him.

The New Scale Williams piano which he used was a magnificent instrument and the tone was a revelation to those who had never had the pleasure of hearing "Canada's greatest piano" before.

De Pachmann is one of the many famous artists who have chosen this piano for the Canadian tour because there is an indescribable something in the tone, that is not found in the other Canadian pianos.
