BLUE SHIRTS ROMP HOME WITH VICTORY

Defeat Ottawa, Eight to Two, in Pro Game at Arena.

Charlie Querre's blue shirts just walked away from the Ottawa Senators last night. The final count was 8 to 2 and just about indicated the margin in the play. Both Noble and Cameron were in the fray and Noble has seldom played better hockey. He was over the ice, checking like a hornet, and his work in passing the Ottawa defence was smooth. Sprague Cleghorn failed to arrive in time for the game and the same squad did the battling for the locals. Ottawa only took a brief check in the first half of the second round and put in their best here. The blue shirts checked well, showed a strong defence and Cameron and Noble were the main factors in the rubber, and the fans thought he was going the way to score. He stopped at mid-line.

Cyril Denney arrived with a grouse and nearly got himself into trouble trying to drive Mummy and Randall. Nothing serious happened. Frank Nighor stepped into the fray for the visitors and played a fair sort of a game. The smallest crowd of the pro season viewed the fixture.

Ottawa opened like a lot of stale race horses and lagged for the first period. The locals had speed, checked well and went in close. Their work got four goals and the visitors were scoreless. To the Ottawa brace was only a flash in the pan and the final count stood 8 to 2.

GOOD-BYE TO CHARLIE.

The hockey managers and newspapermen tendered a complimentary dinner to Charlie E. Huxton at the Charles Hotel. Mr. Huxton, who has been the manager of the arena for two years, left last night for Ottawa to join the food controller's staff. Mr. Huxton made many friends while manager of the big ice rink and the dinner was a small token of the esteem in which he is held. A Masonic ring was presented to the guest of honor and the many speeches told of the sorrow at his leaving.

THE DECIDING GAME.

De La Salle and Aura Lee will stage their fourth meeting at the arena on Friday night. Aura Lee won on Saturday night and will have to turn in another victory on Friday to tie up the group.

KITCHENER SWAMP LONDON MILITARY

Winners Show Marvelous
Speed and Combination in Western Senior Games.

Kitchener, Feb. 4.—The champions of group No. 2 showed their class here tonight when the Kitchener seniors defeated the strengthened London military by a score of 22 to 3. The one-sided score is no indication of the game, as both teams played the fastest kind of hockey, but the locals showed superior combination and speed. The local forward division shut with deadly effect the best man on the ice, Ruppel, scored two of the visitors' goals on single-handed rushes and White got the third. Each of the Kitchener team figured in the scoring, with the exception of the forward division.

The locals started the scoring in the first period, when Hiller netted two in four minutes. Ruppel scored for London a minute later. Solomon followed with three and Parkes with one before the visitors kept the scoring machine out of the nets for 12 minutes and both teams appeared to be evenly matched.

Parkes broke the spell by a single-handed rush and followed with another two minutes later. Hiller and Solomon also scored, after which Ruppel rushed thru a tally for London.

It was all Kitchener in the final period and twelve goals were tallied, while White of the soldiers got the third goal for his team. The game was clean only single-handed rushes and White got the third. Each of the Kitchener team figured in the scoring, with the exception of the forward division.

THE FENELON FALLS JUNIOR HOCKEY TEAM won a game at Bobcaygeon by a score of 12 to 7.

COAST BASEBALL LEAGUE
Tough Place for Managers

Of the six managers who handled Coast League teams the "start of last season" only one will be on the job when the spring games begin April 2 to start in the 1918 season.

Frank Chance of the Angels, Harry Wolverton of the Seals, George Stovall of the Tigers and Bernad of the Bears, have passed out of the scene. Walter Henry McCredie, then with Port, has joined the Bears, while leaving only Del Howard of the Oaks, a manager who will be with a team he was with in 1917.

Wade Kilmer took Chance's place. Jerry Downer replaced Wolverton, Essick replaced Stovall, McCredie replaced Bernad, while losing his ball team. Who will be at Sacramento is unsettled.

VARSITY SCHOOLS DOWN ST. ANDREWS

Have Easy Time in Prep
College Group Fixture
The Details.

University Schools will have to show improvement if they intend to win the honors of the prep. college group. White U.T.S. downed St. Andrews, 7 to 2, in their fixture yesterday. The work of the Varsity School was far from finished. They were very lacking in clean-out work around the net, and a smart checking team would have kept them out. Yesterday's result leaves the title fight up to Friday's game between U.T.S. and Upper Canada. If U.T.S. can win, it will leave a three-cornered war for the U.C.C. will give them the honors. This is always provided that St. Michaels would put in a strong team. U.T.S. won Wednesday. A win for the Scotchmen would put the Saliks out of it, and a Friday win for U.C.C. would leave the latter tied with U.C.C.

U.T.S. simply ran away from the winners. He checked like a real top, and he had the St. Andrews defence in a real tight spot. U.T.S. was much the better, but can brush up on their passing and the carrying of the rubber when at close quarters. Only two goals were scored in the first period, and both of these went to the winners. U.T.S. simply ran away from the winners. ## Union Jacks Winners In Cornwall District

Cornwall, Feb. 3.—There will be no play-off to decide the tie existing in the Cornwall district of the O.H.A. to settle the three-to-three match played between the French Flyers and the Union Jacks as ordered to be played on Monday. The Flyers claim and seemingly with good cause, that the reason the draw was not decided in the early hours of the morning was not the fact that the lights went out, but that some one pulled out a plug at the rink in order that a decision would not be reached, the declaring of bets being the evidence.

The French Flyers sent an ultimatum to the governing board of the league, making certain demands that the league could not accede to and which the board of the league under which all teams entered the league. The Flyers stipulated that unless their demands were met they would absolutely refuse to play the draw on Monday night. The board replied to the Flyers, giving them until 10 o'clock Saturday to decide whether they would play or not, and on being informed that their ultimatum was final, the board declared the Union Jacks winners, and the draw was cancelled.

The Crackside Gun Club held their weekly shoot on Saturday afternoon. The monthly handicap, which has been in progress since the first of the season, was held. The club is a very popular one and the members are very active.

The final curling competition for the Ontario Silver Tankard starts this morning at the city rink according to the draw given below. Fourteen of the sixteen group winners had representatives at the meeting last night at the Victoria Club. Thus only two clubs defaulted, a very good showing. Harristown, that won No. 12 by default, and the London Thistles could not come, and also Ingersoll, the runner-up to London in No. 15, that was entitled to representation, did not appear. Thus two byes were necessary in the preliminary round, and Barrie Thistles being the lucky clubs.
