MANY BOYS PLEDGE TO EARN AND GIVE

Four Hundred Lads Are Entertained at Y.M.C.A. by Kiwanis Club.

Enthusiasm knew no bounds at Central Y. M. C. last night when the Kiwanis Club entertained 400 boys at a supper, the object of which was to get an opportunity to interest the boys in the great "earn and give" campaign. It is expected that there will be 6000 boys throughout Canada who will pledge that they will earn and give $10 each by October, 1918. The supper was interspersed with songs, recitations and humorous stories. Their singing and whistling of the popular songs was enthusiastic. Taylor Stuart, who made the address of the evening, said it was not the getting of the $10 that was the main object of the movement, but the creating of the "earn and give" spirit in the minds of the boys and that it would bear full fruit in 15 years' time. He gave many illustrations from personal experiences among young men and boys who had shown this great spirit of service. He also likened it to a great relay race, many of which had been lost in third relay, which he represented to be the age in a boy's life as from 14 years to 21 years, and so much depended on a good start. He drew a graphic picture of the boys who would make the big men of the future.

John G. Kent, chairman of the "earn and give" campaign, said that there would be a parade before the grand stand at the Exhibition of boys of Toronto who joined the campaign, and said they had challenged Winnipeg, and Toronto must get at least 2500 boys to win.

The boys will pay $1 at a time, for which they will receive a coupon. Ten coupons will entitle them to a bond signed by the governor-general, and a badge which will give them free admission to the Exhibition. H. G. Hammond, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., said that the boys, telling them of things he had seen at the front, and greatly impressed the boys with the spirit of sacrifice going on there, and brought matters to a climax by asking the all who intended to sign the cards to stand up. Every boy present stood up, and great was the cheering.

PLAYS PICTURES AND MUSIC.

"The Gipsy Trail," the Plymouth Theatre success of over a year, which has just been released for stock purposes, will have its first presentation on any stage in Canada at the Royal Alexandra Theatre next Monday evening, with Edward E. Robbins and his Players. This comedy is from the pen of a Cleveland newspaper man, Robert Housman, who has several successes to his credit, and who presented by Arthur Hopkins at the Plymouth Theatre was considered so good by the New York press and public that it was kept at this one theatre during its entire run. The story of "The Gipsy Trail" centres around a young man who has been mugged under a bridge in the Andes, and has been taken to a cheap restaurant when he is introduced to the audience he is a reporter after a story. Comedy and romance only belong to the "Gipsy Trail"—laughter, and more laughter. The reserve seats for next week are on-sale today.

"The Heart of Wexford." The David Belasco-Charles Frohman production, which is coming to the Grand Theatre, has no play of recent years has excited such widespread discussion as "The Heart of Wexford." Men of eminence in the professions endorse it. Everybody goes to see it. There is not a dull moment in the play. It is a natural life. It is a play for the people who like heartstrings played upon and who still cling to the old beliefs about rugged honesty and love for men and women.

Any person who has ever heard Gus Van and Joe Schenck will want to hear them again. These popular song writers, known as the "Pennant-Winning" writers of songs, are at the head of the bill at the Theatre next week. Moon and Morris, dancers, have studied their art so diligently that the twin dance act of "The Pils' Sake" is the title of a melodramatic travesty which will be offered by Charles Wilbur and company. Joyce and Moran have an assortment of song and dance numbers, while Mack and Vincent present song sketches, by the piano. Connell and Graven, in "Moonlight," have an unusual novelty, while the Gervill Brothers will present a scenic spectacle, "A Night in France." The Le Volos, mid-air entertainers and the British Gazette are also on the bill.

The true story of the Russian revolution and the fall of the Romanoffs is unfolded in "Rasputin, the Black Monk," the feature photodrama of next week's offerings at the Theatre next week. The all-star cast includes Louis J. June, Irving Cummings, Hubert Wilke and scores of other film favorites. The production is a miniature musical comedy, with twelve people, will head the bill. Archie Lacey, an English music hall entertainer, assisted by "his better half," will give impersonations of some of the leading London comedians, including George Lashwood, singing "The Number of the House." Other turns include Victor and Corralia, in a potpourri of vaudeville; Donovan and Murray, in "Clubland"; Billie Pugh and Evelyn Blaney, in "The Entertainers"; the Breakaway Barbers, in eccentric aerial specialties, and others. "Mutt and Jeff" pictures complete the bill.

At the Hippodrome.
The William Fox star, Theda Bara, more popular of all screen beauties, will headline the Hippodrome bill next week in "Hearts and Souls." The picture is a love story, with Theda Bara as the wonderful story of "Jesse," and deals with the woman who sacrificed her own life for the sake of the "little prince," a musical extravaganza, with a cast of ten people, heads the bill. At the Hippodrome.
The William Fox star, Theda Bara, more popular of all screen beauties, will headline the Hippodrome bill next week in "Hearts and Souls." The picture is a love story, with Theda Bara as the wonderful story of "Jesse," and deals with the woman who sacrificed her own life for the sake of the "little prince," a musical extravaganza, with a cast of ten people, heads the bill. The feature is a musical comedy, with twelve people, will head the bill. Archie Lacey, an English music hall entertainer, assisted by "his better half," will give impersonations of some of the leading London comedians, including George Lashwood, singing "The Number of the House." Other turns include Victor and Corralia, in a potpourri of vaudeville; Donovan and Murray, in "Clubland"; Billie Pugh and Evelyn Blaney, in "The Entertainers"; the Breakaway Barbers, in eccentric aerial specialties, and others. "Mutt and Jeff" pictures complete the bill.
