Lakeland Highlands, Florida, Solves the Coal Problem

WHY NOT CLOSE YOUR HOME AND spend your winters at Lakeland Highlands, the most beautiful and healthiest section of Florida—live outdoors, enjoy the flowers and fruit instead of shoveling coal and snow—avoid the risks of colds and pneumonia? The coal you save would supply someone who cannot leave, or supply power to make shells to beat the heat. You will live longer and have more comfort and enjoyment.

Grow Grape Fruit

COMBINE A HOME WITH A COMMERCIAL grapefruit grove—you can purchase (on easy terms) a ten-acre grapefruit grove, planted with 450 budded trees, and build a pretty bungalow on the property for the price of a modern house in the North; in a short time these 450 trees will each be earning $1.00 or more, or $450 net per year—more than enough to keep your family in Florida—keep a car—and ENJOY THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS.

AMERICAN PAPERS COMMENT ON GERMAN OFFER OF PEACE

New York, Oct. 13.—Comment by the press of the United States on Germany's offer to President Wilson's enquiries follows:

New York Tribune: Victory in this war is but a means to justice, and by justice we mean peace. We are not interested in the triumph of the American people we do not know them. The people are greater than all circumstances.

New York Times: Surrender, not an armistice, must be the condition precedent to any talk about peace. The German offer is a surrender without the will nor the power to seize the next favorable occasion to begin a new war of imperialist aggression.

New York Herald: If the American people have any say in the matter, the German offer for an armistice will be granted only on terms similar to those granted to Bulgaria. There must be immediate transfer to the allies of the victorious allies of all German arms and munitions.

New York Journal: Coming from any honest and respectable government, the offer is a surprise. It is a surprise because it is a surprise. It is a surprise because it is a surprise.

New York Sun: What are the credentials of the voice now speaking? A satisfactory answer must be an explicit announcement of the Kaiser's abdication.

New York World: Coming from any honest and respectable government, the offer is a surprise. It is a surprise because it is a surprise. It is a surprise because it is a surprise.

New York Tribune: While the German Army still is in formidable being, to enter into discussion is to enter into a mere evasion of invaded territories would be to allow himself to be placed in the German Government's hands.

Philadelphia Press: The country awaits his (President Wilson's) reply in hopeful confidence that he will not allow himself to be outmaneuvered in diplomatic strategy, nor, when we are on the threshold of driving the German invaders continuously and disastrously back to their homes, that he will not arrest the march of our triumph.

Philadelphia Public Ledger: The purpose of America and her allies that the central powers shall surrender unconditionally, was never more firmly held than now. The hope that the president means nothing less is all but universal.

Washington Post: The mere fact that Germany ostensibly accepts President Wilson's program of world peace does not justify anyone in presuming that President Wilson must proceed to negotiate with the enemy. There may be a thousand reasons why he will not do so, and yet no confidence whatever that the enemy is unbeaten. No peace conference will be held while Germany holds a sword in her hands.

St. Louis Republic: Who knows whether the German offer is a step or an honest step towards peace? Nobody in America has the means of knowing enough to those who are the president's advisors enjoy. He may be trusted to detect the fraud.

Philadelphia Inquirer: There can be no peace that does not bring to the bar of justice—not a bar of vengeance—the criminals who have committed such fearful crimes against humanity and in utter violation of international law.

Philadelphia Press: The country awaits his (President Wilson's) reply in hopeful confidence that he will not allow himself to be outmaneuvered in diplomatic strategy, nor, when we are on the threshold of driving the German invaders continuously and disastrously back to their homes, that he will not arrest the march of our triumph.
