TO JAIL FOR PERJURY.

Man and Woman Severely Punished For Falsely Testifying.

St. Catharines, Oct. 19.—Judge Carman this morning sentenced John A. Secord to one year in the Central Prison, and Mrs. Jane Tipp of Grimsby to six months in the Reformatory for perjury.

Secord was charged with having on Sept. 27 assisted Mrs. Tipp to abduct 13-year-old Jessie Ecker from Smithville fair. When Mrs. Tipp was tried for abduction before Magistrate Forbes at Grimsby, she swore that she had not abducted the girl, and John A. Secord, in turn, took oath that he had not been a party to it. He had been seen driving the girl in a buggy on the day in question.

This led to a charge of perjury being laid against Secord and the Tipp woman. Mrs. Tipp pleaded guilty to perjury when arraigned, but Secord stoutly maintained his innocence

FOUND DEAD IN A SHACK INVENTOR MEETS SAD ENDING

Detective Rogers, who returned to the city yesterday from northern Ontario, reports the finding of the body of William Thompson of Huntsville in an old shanty near the line of the Temiskaming Railway, 60 miles above North Bay.

Thompson came from Parry Sound and was endeavoring to introduce a new invention for raising logs out of the water. He worked some time during the summer for the Muskoka Wood Company, but his success was limited. He was delicate in health and is said to have become partly unbalanced in mind thru worrying over his invention.

His father is John Thompson of Star Lake, in Parry Sound district.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS 6000 AT WOODBRIDGE FAIR

Unpleasant Weather Couldn't Keep Crowd Away—Ladies Will Sue for Damages.

Woodbridge, Oct. 19.—For thirty-one years in succession the annual fair of West York and Vaughan Agricultural Societies has been held in Woodbridge. Occasionally, like yesterday, good weather fails to connect, but, rain or shine, Woodbridge Fair occupies the centre of the stage on the days set apart for it. To-day the weather conditions were more favorable than yesterday, and 6000 people were in attendance, so that the fair is a success financially. Amongst the prominent visitors present were: Arch Campbell, M.P., and Mrs. Campbell, Hon. J. W. St. John, Mayor Smith of Toronto Junction, Reeve Bull of Weston and many other representative men from all parts of the county, as well as from Peel, Simcoe and Ontario. The splendid exhibit of horses attracted general notice. The following speeding events were contested:

Judges—A. J. Bell, Beeton; Geo. Gobell, Kleinburg; Dr. Quinn, Brampton.

A three-year-old colt that won first prize was sold on the grounds to a visitor for $400 cash. The colt belonged to Mr. Willis of Pine Grove. One of the most interesting features was the competition in handwriting.

The display of vegetables, fruit, etc., was as usual excellent. Some of the mangolds were so large that they looked like stumps pulled out by the roots. There were some beautiful exhibits of flowers, particularly that of Messrs. F. C. Miller & Sons of Bracondale. Music was furnished by the Victoria Industrial School Band.

William Rowntree, president, occupied the chair at the banquet to-night, when 400 people sat down. The toasts proposed were "The King" and "Canada," the latter being responded to by Hon. J. W. St. John, Arch Campbell, M.P., and Rev. Dr. Powell.

Toronto Junction.

Toronto Junction, Oct. 19.—It is understood that the two ladies who were injured by the explosion of an electric lamp in a Weston street car one night last week, propose to take action against the Toronto Suburban Railway Company for $2000 damages. One of the young ladies had just remarked "What a pretty light that lamp gives," and the other had replied, "Yes, doesn't it?" when the lamp exploded.

At the regular meeting of L.O.L. No. 300 there wa sone initiation, three applications for membership, four candidates raised to the purple and four to the blue degrees. This lodge now has a membership of 156. A joint meeting of L.O.L. 602 and 900 will be held shortly to consider the advisability of erecting an Orange hall in Toronto Junction.

Samuel Jessop, one of the Junction's pioneer citizens, died this morning at his son's residence, 50 Aston-avenue, Toronto, aged 89 years. He leaves a grown up family, one of whom is Mrs. Smyth, wife of T. H. Smyth, science master in Harbord Collegiate Institute. One of the first business blocks erected in Toronto Junction was built for Mr. Jessop on the north side of West Dundas-street, between May and Medland-streets. The funeral will take place to Prospect Cemetery on Saturday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Parker, a former pastor of Annette-street Methodist Church, Toronto Junction, officiating.

E. A. English sold to-day to F. M. Tuckett of Toronto Junction, a block of land for $10,000, comprising 600 feet on Dundas-street north of Bloor, at $13 a foot, 170 feet on Sinclair-avenue, and 100 feet on Barnett-street, at $7 per foot.

East Toronto.

East Toronto, Oct. 19.—Lodge Cambridge, No. 54, S.O.E.B.S., celebrated the eve of the hundreth anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar in right royal style to-night. President "Ernie" Snell occupied the chair, and a fine musical program was rendered. The feature was the lecture of Rev. Dr. Osborne, rector of St. Saviour's Church, who gave a most instructive and entertaining account of the life and deeds of the hero of Tafalgar. Admiral Horatio Nelson was at one time a visitor in Canada when as a junior he accompanied the British fleet on a cruise up the St. Lawrence to Quebec. Admiral Nelson might at one time have been "strung up" at the yard arm for disobedience to the orders of his superior officer, but he was a man of genius and his departures from the ordinary rules of discipline were always crowned with success. The reverend lecturer gave many instances in the life of Nelson, illustrative of his phenomenal success as a seaman of the fighting kind, and in his peroration waxed eloquent in his laudation of the hero whose centennial is now being celebrated. On motion of Bro. Rev. W. L. Baynes-Reed a vote of thanks was tendered Rev. Dr. Osborne for his lecture. A banquet was given to the members and visitors, and a good musical program rendered. Among the prominent visitors present were: Bros. Jas. Lomas, P.S.P.; R. A. Rogers, D.D. G.P.; A. O. Robinson, P.D.D.G.P.; J. W. Carter, P.D.D.G.P.; C. Meech, P.P.; Jas. Batty, V.P. of Manchester Lodge, and others.

East York License Commissioners.

Weston.

The semi-annual meeting of the Presbyterian Society of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society will be held this afternoon and evening, the first session beginning at two o'clock. Cars leave Junction every half hour for Weston. The evening session will be addressed by the Rev. J. W. Griffith of Honan, China, and Mrs. Griffith will also speak.

The village council held a special meeting Wednesday night to deal with the electric light problem. Two tenders were received—one from the Stark T. L. & P. Co. of Toronto Junction, offering to purchase the entire electric light plant from Weston at $8000, half in cash and half in trade. The Southern Light and Power Co. of Erindale offered $1500 for the poles and wires, and to light the streets at $35 per arc light per year, which is $10 lower than the Stark Co. with ten years franchise. A meeting of citizens is to be called to discuss the question.

Price of Coal Oil.

The rumored approach of a rise in the price of coal oil finds its origin in a small rise at the refineries, but it will not affect the consumer. J. B. McColl of McColl Bros. & Co. stated last night that as far as he knew retail prices would remain the same.

GRENS. UNDER INSPECTION.

Parade Over 600 Strong Before Lord Aylmer.

The Royal Grenadiers acquitted themselves admirably before Lord Aylmer's critical eye last night. The assembly was sounded at 8.30, and at the call "fall in" every man was in his place. Promptly at 8.45 the regiment was formed in a line and received the inspector-general as he entered from the officers' quarters with a general salute. Lord Aylmer passed down the line from right to left, inspecting the accoutrements thorely, after which the regiment was put thru battalion drill by Col. Stimson, performing each movement with a snap and vim that evoked the admiration of the spectators and the compliments of Lord Aylmer.

The regiment paraded over strength, there being about 600 out. Inspection over, the regiment was formed in a half square for the presentation of the battalion and company team rifle trophies by Mrs. Mortimer Clark.

WALKS INTO PAWNSHOP WITH STOLEN WATCH CHAIN

About two months ago Abraham Bernstein, 158 1-2 York-street, had a gold watch chain stolen from him. Yesterday Charles A. Smith (colored), 116 1-2 West Queen-street, walked into Bernstein's store wearing the chain. An officer was called and Smith was arrested.

Smith says he bought the chain from an unknown man for 50 cents. Mrs. Smith formerly worked for Bernstein.

Holland Wants Ontario Minerals.

The bureau of mines has been asked for supplies of iron, copper and nickel ore, by John Otten and Loon, Rotterdam, Holland, which they wish to purchase for export to Europe. They are anxious to secure iron ore rich in phosphorus. The Antwerp Trade Company, Antwerp, Belgium, have enquired for silver, cobalt and copper ores.

Hon. J. S. Hendrie is in favor of cancelling all the licences held in Ontario by any American syndicate found poaching. This drastic measure, he thinks, would end the numerous complaints received of late.

TRUSTEES FOR ANNUITIES ONE PRINCIPAL RETAINED

School Board is Generous as Usual —Ryerson Teacher's Plea Wins Out.

As usual, the board of education showed itself sympathetically disposed toward the principle of granting superannuation allowances, when that clause of the report of the management committee, recommending the allowing of certain annuities to teachers whom it was proposed to retire came up at last night's meeting. What was submitted for endorsation was that S. McAllister, principal of Ryerson school, and A. F. Macdonald, principal of Wellesley school, be superannuated on yearly allowances of $400, and that George Crane, headmaster of Lansdowne school, get $300, to take effect Dec. 31.

Principal S. McAllister appeared to object in person to the plan as affecting himself. A deputation of the Ryerson Old Boys' Association, headed by Ald. Keeler and Dr. Harold Clarke, backed him up.

The board was won over with easy unanimity, and Mr. McAllister stays.

Such discussion as there was had to it a sentimental tinge. The superannuation grants were spoken of as proper rewards for faithful service, and much was made of the argument that men who had given their lives and best energies to the inculcation of knowledge should not be neglected when old age came on. Also was it contended that the making of allowances would act as an incentive to good work on the part of teachers in general.

Some Objections.

Trustee Davis, in making a motion to have the matter referred back, said that he understood there was a government superannuation scheme in the air. There were exclamations of dissent, and the motion when put had no other backer than the mover and Trustee James Simpson, whose idea was that a comprehensive system should be adopted, providing for a regular and fixed scale of superannuation allowances.

Trustee Levee's amendment, providing for the retirement of Mr. Macdonald and Mr. Crane without any allowance shared a like fate, being supported only by the mover and Trustees Davis and J. Simpson.

The vote on Trustee Levee's motion was: Yeas—Trustees Levee, J. Simpson, Davis—3. Nays—Trustees Ogden, H. Simpson, Parkinson, Shaw, Smallpeice, Kent, Rawlinson, Martin and Brown—9.

An Old Debate.

The management committee's recommendation made as a result of a test of the rival Pitman and Eclectic shorthand systems, that the former be the only system taught after the next midsummer term, brought about more discussion. It was ruled on a close vote to refer the matter back to the committee.

ADVICE TO YOUNG PEOPLE TO IMPROVE CHURCH WORK

A meeting of the Young People's Societies was held in thh Central Presbyterian Church last night.

Edgar Oliver and Rev. Dr. McKay spoke along the lines of better organization. The latter suggested that each society select a bright young man or woman from among them who would be capable of teaching and to form a class for studying the history of missionary work in the various countries. He told them of certain books arranged for just such classes.

ASSERTIONS AND DENIALS.

Politicians Figure Largely in Enterprise Bank Sensation.

Pittsburg, Oct. 19.—The investigation of the affairs of the Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny City, following the sensational suicide of T. Lee Clark, the cashier, is making good progress. The developments following the tragedy and the closing of the bank have been startling, involving as they do the names of several prominent citizens who have been active in state politics.

According to the statement of President Gwynner, the bank, thru Cashier Clark, has furnished most of the funds used to float the Santa Fe Central Railway and the Pennsylvania Development Company, in which Former State Senators W. H. Andrews and Arthur Kennedy and Francis J. Torrance were deeply interested, together with Cashier Clark.

Former Senator Andrews denies the statement of President Gwynner, and says he never got a cent from the bank. Mr. Torrance is ill and Secretary Hagan, speaking for him, also denied that he had been a borrower.

It has developed that United States government and state officers have been in Pittsburg within the last few weeks, looking into the affairs of the institution, and, particularly, it was said, to make an investigation of the statement recently made by Homer L. Castle, prohibition candidate for supreme judge, relative to the accepting of money from the state with the understanding that certain politicians would have the benefit of loans.

Commenting upon Mr. Andrews' denial, that he had received any of the bank's money, Mr. Castle said: "If Mr. Andrews asserts that he never received a penny from the defunct Enterprise National Bank, and that his name does not appear on paper for a loan secured from that institution, he is guilty of an unqualified falsehood. I can furnish convincing proof if required that Mr. Andrews also has received money from other institutions. I am prepared to prove that his name is on a note at the Enterprise National Bank for $200,000. The note was endorsed by Francis J. Torrance and Arthur Kennedy, and the loan was gained thru Mr. Andrews' pull, which insured the bank a state deposit."

CLUE IN HAMILTON MURDER COMES FROM WESTERN TOWN

Just What It Is, Police Will Not Divulge Until Detective Greer Returns.

Hamilton, Oct. 19.—(Special)—Chief Smith has some important information about the murder, but he is keeping it bottled up until Detective Greer returns to the city. He got a letter this morning from the authorities of a western town, which he considers important and which throws a good deal of light on the mystery. That is all the chief will give out about it. The police have also received the following on a post card.

"In reference to the Hamilton murder mystery, I can give some valuable information if it is made worth my while, P. M. B."

Vincent Latroumille, an old offender, was sent to Kingston Penitentiary for three years this morning for snatching a purse from Mrs. Forbes. The prisoner's lawyer pleaded for leniency because his mother was very ill. "Latroumille has been convicted of almost every charge in the code except murder and manslaughter, and he knows that he deserves three years in penitentiary, and that's what I am going to give him," the magistrate said in passing sentence.

CLASH OVER FERMENTED WINES.

Differences Become More Acute in Reformed Presbyterian Church.

The members of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Carlton-street have long been divided into two parties upon the question of the use of fermented wine in the sacrament. The struggle was brought to a head when four persons were refused communion because they objected to the wine. At a meeting of the congregation Wednesday night to elect elders, Jas. A. Finnie's candidature was ruled out by the pastor because he had not taken communion for a long time, and because he had an appeal pending against a decision of the session refusing to allow the use of non-alcoholic wines to those who desire it.

Mr. Finnie protested against being declared out because he "had refused to violate his conscience." Mr. Finnie was defeated on a vote and Mr. L. Long, who had proposed him, gave notice of a protest, and appealed on the ground that the exclusion of persons from communion was utra-vires.
